Army vehicles dispatched from Texas

Nerd House by Tom A. Madison

KILLEEN (AP) — Eight hundred vehicles from the 1st Cavalry Division at Fort Hood will be dispatched to the Port of Houston this week for shipment to the Middle East. Four hundred vehicles will leave Fort Hood Wednesday in four separate convoys, base spokeswoman Liz Crossan said. She said the vehicles are trucks and "other wheeled vehicles." The remaining 400 will leave Thursday, she said. The convoys, which will take an estimated nine hours to reach the port, will depart at 6 a.m., 8 a.m., noon and 2 p.m. (all times CDT). Troops will drive the vehicles to the port and return to the Army post, she said. The vehicles will be loaded onto ships ferrying equipment to Saudi Arabia for Operation Desert Shield. "I don't know if they will be loaded tomorrow or when they will be loaded," Crossan said. Last week, Fort Hood deployed approximately 300 vehicles.

"Weight Watchers® Works For You Through Thick And Thin."

When the going gets tough, Weight Watchers is here to get you going — and keep you going. Our meeting leaders will show you exactly what it takes to lose weight. And keep it off. They know. Because they've all been there themselves. And for them, Weight Watchers is the one weight loss program that got them thin, and keeps them thin. So, get the kind of support that makes losing weight easier than you ever thought possible. Join Weight Watchers today.

It will work for you, too. Through thick and thin.
