

TAMU STUDY IN DOMINICA

WHERE
Archbold Tropical Center

WHAT
Field Studies and Individual Programs (WFSC 300, SP TP 485 - 6 hours)

WHEN
Summer Session I

Courses at Archbold Tropical Research Center will expose students to tropical island biology, including intensive studies of tropical rain forest, elfin woodland, dry scrub woodland, and seashore environments. Both plant and animal components will be investigated.

Prerequisites: Introductory biology or ecology course

Informational Meeting Thursday, September 13 2:00 - 3:30 510 Rudder or contact: Study Abroad Office 161 West Bizzell Hall 845-0544

Chinese Cultural Arts Performance

青訪團

MISSION OF THE YOUTH GOOD WILL REPUBLIC OF CHINA '90
中華民國青年友好訪問團

Tuesday, September 18, 1990
7:00 p.m. Rudder Theatre

Tickets may be purchased at the MSC Box Office for $3.00. For more information call the MSC Box Office at 845-1234.

Presented by:
Chinese Student Association International Student Services MSC Jordan Institute for International Awareness

TAMU STUDY ABROAD IN ITALY

Spring Semester 1991

Informational Meeting
September 13, 2-3:30 p.m.
510 Rudder

LBAR 331: Studies in European Civilization and Culture I: The Italian Experience in Ancient, Medieval, and Renaissance Literature
Dr. Elise Garrison 201 B Academic 845-2185

LBAR 334: Studies in Italian Civilization and Culture II: Social, Economic and Political Aspects of Italian Culture
Dr. James Copp 416 Academic 845-4043

ARTS 350: Arts and Civilization
Prof. Paolo Baruschieri Santa Chiara, Italy

CLAS 351: Classical Mythology
Dr. Elise Garrison

SOCI 205: Principles of Sociology
Dr. James Copp

Study Abroad Office
161 W. Bizzell Hall
845-0544

Professional Computing ANNOUNCES...

Great offers — on the HP 48SX and the HP 28S

- FREE HP Solve Equation Library card when you buy a new HP 48SX Scientific Expandable calculator.*
- $25 rebate from HP when you buy an HP 28S Advanced Scientific calculator.*

Free HP Solve Equation Library card $99.95 Value

*Offers good on purchases made between August 15, 1990 and October 15, 1990. Ask for HP's "Limited time only" coupon.

CALCULATORS FOR BUSINESS		CALCULATORS FOR SCIENCE & ENGINEERING
10B....$37.50	17BII...$80.30	20S....$37.50	32S.....$50.95
12C....$70.00	19BII...$129.95	21S....$37.50	42S.....$88.95
14B....$59.50		22S....$44.50	28S.....$173.95
		27S....$59.50	48SX...$259.95

HEWLETT PACKARD Authorized Dealer

BUSINESS HOURS
M-F 8:00-5:30
SAT. 10:00-3:00

505 CHURCH STREET COLLEGE STATION (409) 846-5332

Saddling up with the Big Boys

Tech's Dykes readies for rough riding

Photo by Phelan M. Ebenhack

LUBBOCK (AP) — Life is not getting any easier for Texas Tech coach Spike Dykes.

After suffering a 17-10 loss at No. 18 Ohio State Saturday, the Red Raiders have only a few days to prepare for a Thursday night battle against the explosive Houston Cougars, 1-0.

"We can't mope around," Dykes said. "We've got Russia coming here Thursday. We held Ohio State to 94 yards in the first half. Shoot, that's just one possession's worth for Houston."

Tech, 0-1, hosts the Run-and-Shoot Cougars to open the Southwest Conference schedule. The game is televised nationally by ESPN with kickoff slated for 7:07 p.m.

Dykes said the Red Raiders' near upset of Ohio State proved they could play with the country's best.

"The Ohio State game was like having a blind date with Miss America and letting her get away without getting her phone number," Dykes said Monday at his weekly press conference.

"You had better take advantage of the opportunity, and we just didn't quite do it."

Tech was plagued Saturday by weak punting, which led to the Buckeyes' winning touchdown.

"The kicking game was a big worry before the game and it's still a worry," Dykes said. "We did not play the kicking game very well."

A 50-yard punt return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter by Ohio State's speedy Jeff Graham was the margin of victory.

"You don't fault the coverage

A&M defensive back Kevin Smith applies pressure on Tech quarterback Jamie Gill.

on a play like that," Dykes said after the game. "You can't kick a line-drive punt to a guy like Graham."

Tech, a 10-point underdog against the Buckeyes, still had a chance to win the game with time running out.

But with 1:08 left, Tech quarterback Jamie Gill threw a bomb from the 50 on 4th-and-1, thinking it was only second down. The pass fell incomplete and Ohio State ran the clock out.

"Jamie really thought it was second down," Dykes said. "But we probably had as good a chance of winning with that pass as we would have any other way. It was one of those things where if it had worked it would have been great."

Dykes praised his defense, which forced five turnovers and held Ohio State scoreless in the first half.

"It was probably one of the better defensive efforts this team has ever played," Dykes said. Ohio State "had four possessions 33 yards or closer to our goal line and didn't get any points out of it. That's a real mark to the defense, especially against a team that physical."

Dykes said Tech's defense will have to slow down the dizzying offensive arsenal of No. 24 Houston, which features five receivers on every play and averaged more than 500 passing yards per game last season. The Cougars defeated Nevada-Las Vegas Saturday, 37-9.

"Houston gets it going in a hurry," Dykes said. "They don't huddle and when they line up under that center they are gone like a covey of quail."

Dykes said the defense can't give up any big plays and must contain the Cougars on third down.

"Houston lights up the scoreboard, so naturally that worries you," he said. "But I think it is going to be an exciting game. Should be fun to watch."

Dykes said Houston will not be affected by the loss of All-American wide receiver Manny Hazard, who is out for three weeks with an injured left elbow.

"He will miss Hazard because he is a great player," Dykes said. "But they have so many good players lined up behind him that they won't be slowed down."

UT not about to take Buffs lightly

AUSTIN (AP) — Coach David McWilliams of Texas slowed the Longhorns' practice pace Monday, before turning attention to Colorado in the distance.

"I want them thinking about Colorado," McWilliams told his weekly news conference. "They're probably a team that deserves two weeks."

Unranked Texas upset Penn State 17-13 Saturday and has an open date this weekend while Colorado plays Illinois.

"This team has been there before," he said, with the seniors talking it up. "Hey, we know we've got an open date, but we're going to make sure that we don't do something that loses our momentum."

Lady Ags play host to Bobcats

By SCOTT WUDEL
Of The Battalion Staff

Texas A&M volleyball coach Al Givens is looking for team consistency.

The Lady Aggies play Southwest Texas State University tonight at 7 p.m. at G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Givens said he is hoping to see six players step forward against the Bobcats to establish a chemistry on which the team can build.

"Right now some of the concerns we have is trying to get a nucleus of starters identified," Givens said. "We've been having different people shine at different times."

"I think the talent we have is pretty good. I think we're young in some spots — inexperienced — but I think athletically we're OK," he said.

SWTSU is 3-3, but is coming off two straight losses against Texas and Indiana last week. A&M defeated the Bobcats last year in San Marcos and own an 8-2 lead in the series.

The Lady Aggies, 1-3, are coming off a victory over North Texas Friday and a loss the Vandals of Idaho Saturday.

Givens will alter his starting lineup again tonight. Freshman Amy Kising will draw her first start at middle blocker. Genny Woods will join regulars Amy Cummings and Krista Hierholzer again in the starting rotation. Givens says he has not determined who will fill the two outside attacker spots but has plenty of depth to pick from.

"Role identity is still something we're looking at. Who plays well when they start, who plays well off the bench," he said.

Givens said the leadership of seniors Cummings and Heirholzer is important to the Lady Aggies success.

"We've got to find a way to get the ball to the people who are the most experienced," he says.

Heirholzer has been nursing a sprained thumb on her left hand since the Hawaii match but will play against the Bobcats.

Givens says the team was upset with spotting other teams leads and having to come from behind in the Hawaii and Idaho matches.

He says the team has been evaluating its performance and is anxious to redeem the losses.

Givens says the team is starting to figure out, "Hey, we're better than this, let's quit talking and start playing."

Aikman savours first win as Cowboys' quarterback

IRVING (AP) — Troy finally found NFL joy.

Troy Aikman spent his rookie year as Dallas' quarterback of the future, losing all 11 games he started last season — the Cowboys only victory came when Aikman was out with a broken finger.

"It had bothered me," Aikman said. "It gnawed at me. In some games last year I played good enough for us to win. In others, I didn't."

The futility ended Sunday, courtesy of San Diego coach Dan Henning.

With San Diego ahead 14-10 late in the game, Henning called a fake punt on fourth-and-6 near midfield.

The fake failed, and Dallas got the ball at its 47 with under six minutes left.

Aikman then hit Kelvin Martin with a 24-yard pass to set up a 1-yard touchdown sneak with 1:58 left, giving the Cowboys a 17-14 victory and snapping a 14-game home losing streak.

It also was the first home victory for coach Jimmy Johnson.

Aikman was all smiles.

"From a personal standpoint, it feels good to finally be able to get that monkey off my back and win one," Aikman said. "I don't have to listen to people say 'I can't win a ballgame.' I took a lot of abuse in the media."

Glanville

Continued from page 7

three years before replacing Glanville as Oilers head coach in January.

"I don't know Jerry that well," Pardee said. "I was doing my job and he was doing his."

Glanville led the Oilers to the playoffs his last three years and kept up a feud with Pittsburgh coach Chuck Noll and Cincinnati's Sam Wyche.

Oilers players generally responded to Glanville's theatrics with a knowing smile.

"That's just Jerry," Oiler defensive end William Fuller said. "We didn't play Jerry Glanville, we played Jerry's team."

"If you get into stuff like that with Jerry, you'll be arguing from now on. He did it to get his team up."

Running back Mike Rozier and defensive tackle Doug Smith, players who were often in Glanville's doghouse, took a milder approach to their former coach's comments.

"It's uncalled for but he knows anything he says you all (writers) will pump up in the paper," Rozier said. "Other than that he's a grown man. He can do what he wants to do."

"I don't think he was trying to rip us. He knows his team last year won three ball games. He knew he had to jack his guys up. That's all."

ROHM AND HAAS

INTERVIEWING FOR B.S. AND M.S. CHEMICAL ENGINEERS ON OCTOBER 16 AND 17TH AND MECHANICAL ENGINEERS ON SEPTEMBER 20TH

DROP BY THE CAREER FAIR ON SEPTEMBER 12 AND SEPTEMBER 13 AND FIND OUT MORE ABOUT OUR COMPANY