

VIDEO CENTER

3517 S. Texas
846-8591

1014 S. Texas
775-9521

Mon - Sat 10 a.m. - 9 p.m.
Sun. 12 p.m. - 8 p.m.

Rent One
Movie
Get One
FREE
excluding new releases
Expires 11-01-90

VCR
& One
Movie
$4⁹⁹ per day
excluding new releases
Expires 11-01-90

"We Bring Hollywood Home"

OFF CAMPUS STUDENTS:

Don't believe the rumor that you have to live on-campus or be in the corps to work on AGGIE BONFIRE!

Come out, learn the truth and BUILD THE HELL OUTTA BONFIRE!

First Cut: Sunday Oct. 7th
Meet : 8:00am at Duncan Field
Bring : Pots, Protective Eyewear, Boots, Sack Lunch, and Cut Card (available at Cut Site)

For Further Information Contact TOM ELLIS at 764-9026.

Searching For The Opportunity Oasis?

AMOCO WILL BE INTERVIEWING ON CAMPUS ON THE FOLLOWING DATES. PLEASE SEE PLACEMENT OFFICE FOR DETAILS AND CAREER INFORMATION.

COMPANY (LOCATION)	DATE(S)	DISCIPLINE(S)
AMOCO CHEMICALS (Texas City, TX)	Oct. 17	CHEN, ELEN, MEEN
AMOCO CORPORATION - IS (Houston, TX)	Oct. 11	BANA, BSCS, CPSC
AMOCO CORPORATION - IS/TC (Houston, TX, Chicago, IL.)	Oct. 25	ENTC
AMOCO OIL REFINING (Texas City, TX)	Oct. 23, 24	CHEN, CEEN, MEEN
AMOCO OIL - R&TE (Chicago, IL)	Oct. 30	CHEN, CEEN, ELEN, MEEN
AMOCO PIPELINE COMPANY (Chicago, IL)	Oct. 25	MEEN, ELEN, CEEN
AMOCO PRODUCTION (Houston, TX)	Oct. 9, 10	GEOL, GEOP
AMOCO PRODUCTION (Houston, TX)	Oct. 10, 11	CHEN, ELEN, MEEN, PETE
AMOCO PRODUCTION (Houston, TX)	Oct. 25, 26	BUSI, ECON, FINC, MGMT, MKTG

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER M/F/H/V

THE HIT MAN

Photo by Phelan M. Ebenhad

Anthony Williams has become the heart of the Aggie defense.

Williams leads young Aggie 'D' by example

By NADJA SABAWALA
Of The Battalion Staff

Call him the hitting machine. If something moves, Anthony Williams will hit it. Hard. And he'll love every minute of it.

Jamie Gill knows that all too well. The Texas Tech quarterback, listed as questionable for Saturday's football game against Texas A&M, was flattened by Williams in the fourth quarter of last year's 27-24 Aggie loss in Lubbock.

Gill had to leave the game. Williams stayed in to finish his first collegiate start and one year later, the junior linebacker has become the inspirational leader for a young Aggie defense.

"That's my whole game ... to play on emotion," Williams said. "You just get so intense as the game progresses."

As his career progresses, Williams has been developing an intensity second to none on the team.

Last Saturday, the 6-2, 243-pound linebacker looked up at the scoreboard in the fourth quarter of A&M's loss to Louisiana State. The Aggies had just scored their only touchdown. The score was 17-8. Five minutes remained.

"I looked up and asked, 'Can we pull this off?' and then my conscience said, 'You know better than to talk like that,'" Williams said. "Even if there's one second left, you always have a second chance of pulling it off."

But A&M didn't pull it off, and the Aggies wound up walking away from Tiger Stadium with an emotional loss.

On the sidelines Williams dropped his head in disappointment, but he said he knew things

Battalion file photo by F. Joe

This hit by Williams knocked Tech quarterback Jamie Gill out of the game for a few plays in last year's 27-24 A&M loss.

would get better.

"The sun's still going to come up tomorrow regardless of what Texas A&M does," Williams said. "We just try to take it and learn from any experience we have — win or lose."

As a leader on the Aggie team, Williams has become a figure for the defense to look up to. When plays aren't going right, Williams said, a player can't let his frustration show.

"(The defense) looks to you to guide them," he said. "If you're frustrated, then the rest of the team gets frustrated and none of us would be able to get anything done with all of the bickering going on."

So Williams kept his composure throughout the game against LSU, wrapping up the Tiger offense with a career-high 18 tackles and forcing two fumbles.

Head coach R.C. Slocum said he has great confidence in Williams' ability both as a player and a leader and believes Williams could become one of the best linebackers the Aggies have had.

Ask Williams and he'll say the same.

"Those guys had their lime light," Williams said, "and maybe mine will come. But I want to surpass everything that they accomplished ... I'm not saying that I'm much better or they're much better than me, but I want to become more than what they were."

Williams is well on his way to establishing his name in the A&M recordbooks. He leads the Aggies in tackles for the year with 46 — 33 unassisted.

Pretty good numbers for a junior who saw his first collegiate start just last year against Tech and who's quickly become a dominant force on the A&M squad.

"I've always played that way," Williams said. "It's in my nature."

"My mother raised me to believe that if you're going to do things, do them the right way and do them to the best of your abilities."

Williams said he may never peak his abilities, but rather have a constant build up of his play.

"I think I'll always get better," Williams said. "I am pretty consistent right now, but I'd like to take it up to another level."

Would Williams ever want to give up his responsibilities as a leader to just concentrate on his own game?

"Never ... I wouldn't trade it in for anything."

Reba

IN CONCERT WITH

VINCE GILL

Special Guest: Baillie and The Boys

Sunday, October 21, 7:00 p.m.
G. Rollie White Coliseum

Tickets: $17.50 public
$15.50 student

Tickets on sale now at:
MSC Box Office
All Ticketron Outlets or
Charge by phone at
1-800-275-1000

ALL
RESERVED
SEATING

DOWN HILL
concerts
* MSC