Big Eight's Colorado keeps win after review

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — It looks like it'll be a final: Colorado 33, Missouri 31.
The Big Eight Conference on Sunday said a "complete review" of the officiating, which allowed Colorado an extra down that resulted in the winning touchdown on the game's last play, would be made. But a Big Eight spokesman doubted if the outcome could be changed by league commissioner Carl James.
"I don't think the commissioner has the power to change the outcome," Jeff Bollig, a Big Eight spokesman said Sunday, adding another announcement will be made Monday.

Missouri athletic director Dick Tamburo is calling for the Big Eight to reverse the outcome and award the Tigers the victory, but coach Bob Stull doubts his team will be handed the win.
Colorado coach Bill McCartney said there's no way his school is about to give up the victory. "There's no way, in light of the fact we were forced to play on a surface that was unplayable," he said.

Referee J.C. Louderback, meanwhile, said a touchdown, regardless of error, would be called back "only if there would be a penalty."
"Our record on the field as officials is that they scored on fourth down," Louderback said.
Dave Nelson, secretary and editor of the NCAA rules book, backed Louderback.

wanted to set it up to get him stopped."
San Francisco coach George Seifert said the 49ers also considered a timeout.
"In that situation, it's confusing," Seifert said. "We were going to call a time, but we decided to just go ahead and run the play."
The play ran perfectly, capping yet another comeback by Montana and the Super Bowl champions. It was Montana's third touchdown pass—earlier he hit Taylor with a 78-yarder and threw six yards to Jerry Rice.
Roger Craig set a record for career receptions by a running back with 494 for San Francisco (4-0).

"Emmitt's a big-time back, and he showed it today," Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson said. "It was special. I thought he was ready to break loose for a big game."
Paul Palmer gained 110 yards rushing last year in the only plus 100-game by a Dallas running back.
The game-winning 73-yard drive early in the fourth period was set in motion by a 7-yard third-down scramble by Aikman for a first down on the 50.
On the next play, Aikman hit full-back Tommie Agee on a 30-yard screen play.
Then Agee threw the clearing block on Smith's touchdown run.

"The blocking was outstanding because it allowed me to get into then I could bounce to the outside," Smith said. "That's how you get to the end zone."
Tampa Bay coach Ray Perkins said he was shocked by the Cowboys. "I didn't think they had that quality of a running team," Perkins said. "I'm not trying to take anything away from them, but let's face it, they haven't been running the well."
Vince Testaverde, the NFL's most proficient passer, couldn't bring the Bucs back. He was sacked three times by an aggressive Dallas defense.

regular season, held Boston to one run on four hits. Eckersley escaped a bases-loaded jam in the eighth by striking out Dwight Evans on three pitches.
The series resumes Tuesday in Oakland, where the Athletics are 51-30, the same record the Red Sox were at Fenway. Mike Moore (13-15) will pitch against Boston's Mike Boddicker (17-8).
Both teams wasted bases-loaded threats in the sixth, with Oakland getting four hits in the inning, but hitting the ball too sharply to score.
Jose Canseco led off with a single and was running on a full-count pitch when Baines hit a grounder so hard to second base that the Red Sox were able to turn a double play. But singles by Mark McGwire and Carney Lansford finished Kiecker, and Greg Harris, the losing pitcher, gave up a single to Ron Hassey that reached right fielder Tom Brunansky too fast for McGwire to try for the plate.
The Athletics batted .343 this season with the bases loaded and Walt Weiss went 2-for-3 in those situations. This time, though, the Red Sox escaped when Weiss grounded into a routine force play.
Boston scratched back in its half when Boggs singled with one out for only his second hit in 22 career at-bats against Welch, Mike Greenwell walked with two outs and Weiss fumbled a grounder by Evans. The Red Sox hit just .268 with the bases loaded with Brunansky going only 2-for-15, and neither average improved as the big guy bounced into a little forceout.

The Sooners were ranked No. 7 in the nation last week and increased their record to 5-0 on Saturday with a 31-17 victory over Oklahoma State.
The Longhorns opened the season with a 17-13 victory over Penn State and is 2-1 after beating Rice 26-10, Saturday night.
After upsetting Oklahoma 28-23 last year, Texas is seeking back-to-back victories in the series for the first time since 1979-81.
"I don't think we ever lost the game as an attraction," Texas assistant athletic director Craig Heber said.

Smith

Smith said he's not too worried about the them getting up for the task of facing Houston's prolific Run-and-Shoot.
"For us defensively it's a challenge," Smith said. "But we'd rather play Houston than any other team in the country."
"We'd like to play UH every week."
Smith, who won the Associated Press's defensive player of the week award after the Southwestern Louisiana game, and the rest of the secondary will be looking for similar results from last year's game with the Cougars.
A&M picked off Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware three times and held the vaunted Houston offense to only 247 yards passing.

the win was anything but pretty. Backup quarterback Bucky Richardson had to come in for an ineffective Lance Pavlas in the first quarter. The offense sputtered at times even though it finished with 473 total yards.
Tailback Darren Lewis was responsible for about half of that. Lewis, paired with the option-specialist Richardson, rambled for a career-high 232 yards on 34 carries. When Lewis wasn't moving the chains, the Aggies ran into problems. A&M suffered four turnovers.
"You'd like to go out there and kick everybody's teeth in, but I think (a close win) helps your team," Slocum said. "It does something for your team when you go out there and a bunch of things go wrong, but you still find a way to hang in there and come back to win."
"Somewhere down the road we'll have to do this again if we're going to be a good team. This won't be the only time we're going to be behind."
A&M fell behind for the first time at Kyle Field this year. Down 6-0 late in the second quarter, the Aggies averted a first-half shutout on Richardson's four-yard touchdown pass to Lewis with 11 seconds left.
But Rodney Blackshear returned the ensuing kickoff 92 yards to put the Red Raiders on top 13-7 at the half. It was the first kickoff ever returned for a touchdown against A&M's 12th Man Kickoff Team. It was also the only kickoff returned against the squad Saturday. Slocum replaced the walk-on, non-scholarship unit with the regular unit that returns kicks at road games.
"They're just like any other player on the field," Slocum said. "I didn't want to take a chance on doing that again. Tech has always been a good kickoff return team, so I put in our regular return unit."
"We're playing a conference game and I didn't want to take a chance on them running another one back. We'll have to evaluate (the future of the 12th Man) later on."
Slocum also said Sunday that he'll make the decision of which quarterback to start early this week. It was the second straight game where Pavlas ran into problems, but Slocum stressed he hasn't given up on the senior.

Neither has Richardson, who said Pavlas will have to play a big role in the Aggies this year.
"I don't want this to be a big deal between me and Lance," Richardson said. "Lance is going to have to come back and play well for us to get back to Dallas. We've grown pretty close and we pull for each other. I'm backing Lance 100 percent."
Offensive coordinator Bob Toledo said Slocum, who had wanted to give Richardson a chance to play early anyway, inserted the junior in the first quarter because of his ability to run the option.
"What Bucky gave us was the option," Toledo said. "We felt with the front they were giving us, we could run the option on it. It had nothing to do with what Lance was doing, was just that Bucky could run the option against that particular front and we hurt them with it."
Lewis all but destroyed the Red Raiders. With his 232-yard effort, Lewis moved into the No. 4 position of the SWC's all-time leading rushers with 3,972 yards. He would move up to No. 3 if he gains 92 yards against the Cougars.
Lewis rushed for 120 yards against Houston last year.
"Darren made some key plays—that's about what he does when he's in there," Slocum said. "He's a deceptive runner. He never quite looks like he's running fast and he does make a lot of long runs."
"But every time he carries the ball, see those chains moving a little. You watch the game and you're shocked that he ran for 232 yards. It's just kind of a nonchalant guy for him."
Slocum will be hoping for another "nonchalant" game from Lewis against the Cougars. He said problems the Aggies have had the last two weeks on offense against LSU and Tech will have to be corrected. Soon.
"We need to sustain drives against Houston," Slocum said. "We need to run some time off the clock, maintain the football. That will be a critical point of the ballgame. can't go out there, go one-two-three and let them have a lot of time at it."

MEET THE FUTURE OF CREATIVE THINKING.

Amiga doesn't just improve your work. It improves your thinking. Just working hard isn't enough anymore. Creative thinking is what sets winners apart.

The Amiga computer was designed precisely with that thought in mind. It handles routine tasks, then lets you go all the way to innovation and invention.

Whatever you can imagine, Amiga has the power to produce. Easily.

Its built-in technology is a major advancement in a computer of this size and price range.

With a mouse and simple icons, Amiga combines a full color display, full stereo sound, graphics, 3-D animation, video capability and text as no other computer can.

It has the power to run software sophisticated enough to manipulate vast amounts of data, as well as the creative genius to create the complete score for an orchestral composition.

We deliver today, what others promise tomorrow.

Amiga was designed to keep up with you, from schoolwork demands through career needs.

You'll find standard what other people make optional. As well as sophisticated technology that doesn't exist on comparably powered and priced computers.

Creative educational discounts make Amiga an easy decision.

The Amiga Education Purchase Program for college and university students, faculty and administrators, offers a wide range of fully loaded, specially bundled hardware systems, with a complete system starting under $700*. All include a one year limited warranty and AmigaVision™.

The best way to make up your own mind is to try Amiga.
