Coogs' Klingler sets six NCAA records

DALLAS (AP) — Ninety-five to 21 it wasn't, but David Klingler still set six NCAA records in Houston's 44-17 romp over Southern Methodist.

Klingler completed 48 of 76 passes for 461 yards and five touchdowns, three going to Manny Hazard, as the No. 9 Cougars ran their winning streak to 10 games, longest among major-college teams.

Houston coach John Jenkins said he wasn't disappointed his team fell short of its 1,000-yard performance of last year, when Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware quarterbacked a 95-21 thumping of an SMU team coming off two years of NCAA-imposed inactivity.

"Whether we win by one point or 200-0 doesn't really matter to me. All that matters is that we win the game," Jenkins said. "We played very well today, especially in the first quarter" when Houston led 20-0.

"Then the SMU defense kind of stiffened. But we were able to make the adjustments. ... We won the game and got better fundamentally. That is a sign of a good team."

Jenkins' 6-0 start is the best ever by a first-time, first-year head coach in the Southwest Conference. The Cougars are 5-0 in the SWC. SMU is 1-5 and 0-3.

SMU coach Forrest Gregg said he told his players he was proud of their effort.

"It's a little unusual to come in after a 44-17 loss and say that, but I am. I'm very proud of what they did today," Gregg said. "When you consider that Klingler threw more passes today than any other game in history and we gave them six turnovers, it could have been much worse."

Klingler said: "SMU did a good job of stopping us some in the game. They are really improved over last year. We had a lot of dropped passes, but you have to give SMU credit, because they really played well."

Hazard agreed. "We were just glad to come out with a victory. We didn't want to let this one get away from us. We worked hard in practice all week and did not take SMU lightly."

Klingler, the nation's total offense leader, broke the records of 45 completions, set in 1982 by Northwest-ern's Sandy Schwab against Michigan, and 73 attempts, set in 1989 by North Carolina State's Shane Montgomery against Duke.

 perfect pass."

The game-winning catch came only 1:33 after Steve Christie's 32-yard field goal appeared to thwart the Cowboys effort to overcome a 10-point halftime deficit and win in their first-ever appearance at Tampa Stadium.

Issiac Holt returned one of his two interceptions of Vinny Testaverde 64 yards for a touchdown, and Aikman's ability to remain calm under pressure on the last drive helped the Cowboys remain one of eight teams that have never lost to the Bucs in a regular season or playoff game.

Aikman, who completed 13 of 29 passes for 159 yards, threw 14 yards to Irvin and 18 yards to Jay Novacek before his 20-yard run gave Dallas a first down at the 28 with 31 seconds to go.

After a timeout, Irvin ran past cornerback Rodney Rice to the left corner of the end zone, where he made his TD catch just beyond the reach of safety Mark Robinson. Several Cowboys joined him in a celebration that drew a penalty.

"This team has gone through some difficult times and we're trying to fight through it," said Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson, who watched his team generate only 100 yards total offense in a 20-3 loss to the Phoenix Cardinals last week.

"We had a very disappointing game a week ago," Johnson added.

 learns their system," said Warren Moon, who completed 23 of 37 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown.

"This was a scratch-and-claw win and not very pretty. We just had to take what the defense gave us."

"I had a lot of fun out there. We were geared up," said Oilers defensive end Sean Jones, who had two of the sacks of Walsh. "It's one of those things that comes and goes in cycles. But as long as I'm confident I'm getting the job done and the line is putting constant pressure on, I'm happy."

Lorenzo White accounted for Houston's touchdowns, one on a run and the other on a pass from Moon.

The Oilers (4-3) spotted the Saints a 3-0 lead before reeling off 20 straight points. The loss snapped the (2-4) Saints' NFL record-tying streak of 13 consecutive victories against American Conference teams, dating back to 1986.

Walsh, acquired last month from the Dallas Cowboys for three high draft choices, completed 22 of 39 passes for 292 yards and one touchdown, a 31-yarder to Hoby Brenner with 12:53 remaining in the game.

White, whose fumble at the 1-yard line on the opening drive of the game cost the Oilers an almost certain touchdown, went in from the 1 with 8:53 left in the third quarter to put Houston ahead 17-3.

Baylor coach Grant Teaff announced that the Bears were back in the race with the tie.

"A tie at this point doesn't eliminate you," Teaff said. "For those who wondered out loud and in the media last week, we are in the race. You can legitimately count us in now."

Teaff had a near physical exchange after the game with a Baylor fan who felt the Bears sat on the ball in their last possession.

The unidentified fan grabbed Teaff by the shirt after the game and told him he should have gone for the touchdown.

"I had no idea what the guy's deal was," Teaff said.

Baylor drove to the A&M 38 late in the game but didn't use its final time out as the clock ran down.

"All I know is our kids just finished one of the most courageous performances any team of mine has ever put on the field," Teaff said.

"We're disappointed to come away with a tie but we're not eliminated from the conference race. But I can't be disappointed with our effort. It was great effort," he said.

Houston remained undefeated but didn't score the 95 points it did against SMU last year in a 95-21 victory.

"Whether we win by one point or 200-0 doesn't really matter to me," said Houston coach John Jenkins. "All that matters is that we win the game."

We've got some young players, but we played just about everybody we had. Those guys have to get better. We will look hard at those positions, and if there are personnel changes to be made, we'll do that."

That includes the linebacker position, which Slocum said missed several big plays against the Bears. Marcus Buckley started at outside linebacker ahead of Tyrone Malone, and the linebackers as a group missed key tackles.

Bucky Richardson made his second consecutive start, and completed five-of-12 passes for 89 yards, one touchdown and one interception. The junior now has thrown a touchdown pass in three straight games, but he's also thrown seven interceptions in those three games.

"We've got five games left, and we could have a very good season if we win those five games," Slocum said. "That would put you at 9-2-1, and there are a lot of teams like us. There are a bunch of teams that have had some of the same problems we've had."

"You don't panic and you don't throw in the towel. We've got to figure out a way to get better. We will look at everything we're doing to try to do that."
