"Weight Watchers Works For You Through Thick And Thin."
 Let Weight Watchers help you get in shape for the holidays!
 Our meeting leaders will show you exactly what it takes to lose weight. And keep it off. They know. Because they've all been there themselves. And for them, Weight Watchers is the one weight loss program that got them thin, and keeps them thin. It will work for you, too. Through thick and thin.
 So, get the kind of support that makes losing weight easier than you ever thought possible. Join Weight Watchers today and you'll have plenty to celebrate this holiday season.

 MR. JENNINGS, THIS VOICE YOU HEAR SAID YOU SHOULD BUILD MORE PARKING ON CAMPUS?
 ... WHY WE HAVE LOTS OF NEW PARKING ON CAMPUS, LIKE THAT NEW 3-STORY PARKING GARAGE OVER THERE.
 OH? HOW MANY STUDENT CARS WILL THAT HOLD?
 WELL, UM... NONE. THAT'S THE RESEARCH PARKING BUILDING. WHERE WE ONLY DO RESEARCH ON PARKING PROBLEMS.

Police continue Nerd House search for suspect by Tom A. Madison
 AUSTIN (AP) — A man fitting the description of a fast-food restaurant bandit was spotted in a nearby psychiatric care hospital after the Tuesday robbery, but a search yielded no suspects, police said.
 "He was seen going in, but he was not seen leaving," said Sr. Sgt. Elizabeth Merrill.
 Employees of HCA Shoal Creek Hospital speculated the man may have slipped out through a rear exit before police secured the area, she said.
 All patients and staff were accounted for, Merrill said as most officers were leaving the hospital after 1 p.m. Two officers remained to check elevator shafts and other areas, she said.
 Asked whether the robbery suspect could be a hospital employee or patient, Merrill said, "We questioned that possibility, but that has not been determined at this time."
 Police said the man entered a Taco Bell shortly before 10:30 a.m. and took an undisclosed amount of cash. The initial report said he was armed with a handgun, said Senior Patrol Officer Jim Collins.

Man sentenced to 70 years in prison
 DALLAS (AP) — An 18-year-old has been sentenced to 70 years in prison for killing one man and wounding two others after he was caught trying to steal a bag of corn chips.
 Robert Tremaine Sams also was given a pair of 10-year sentences Monday and fined $20,000 in connection with the July shootings.
 The shootings occurred July 5 after Sams and a friend entered a South Dallas grocery store. When Sams tried to steal a bag of corn chips, he was confronted by two store clerks who blocked the door, according to testimony last week.
 Sams pulled a semiautomatic pistol and began firing, killing In Sung Chung, a friend of the clerks'. The two store workers, Myung Kim and Kichul Kim, were wounded.
 Sams fled the scene but later surrendered. He testified that he fired in self-defense.
 During the punishment hearing, Sams wept on the witness stand and begged the jury for mercy.
 "I was hoping I would just pull it out and they would back off, but they didn't," he told the jury.
 "I'm asking you to forgive me because I didn't mean to do it."
 But Assistant District Attorney Bob Dark told jurors not to be swayed by Sams' tears. Dark asked the jury to sentence Sams to life.
 Sams won't be eligible for parole for at least 15 years.

For a limited time, we are featuring fresh (never frozen) beef retail cuts along with our usual variety of vacuum packaged, frozen cuts. It is being made available during an extensive Meats and Muscle Biology Section Project to investigate the time involved in cutting beef wholesale cuts into steaks and roasts, therefore a larger amount of freshly cut retail cuts are generated. The fresh cuts will be available on the following dates:
 Oct. 11 and 12
 Oct. 25, 26, and 27
 Nov. 1 and 2
 Nov. 8 and 9
 Please stop by and shop with us.
 The Rosenthal Meat Science and Technology Center is open Monday through Friday 9:00 am till 6:00 pm, and open on home football Saturdays from 9:00 am till 1:00 pm.
