Pardee: poor field position resulted in low point production

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Oilers went farther for fewer points against the New York Jets and Coach Jack Pardee said Monday he must find ways to shorten the field for his Texas team's run-and-shoot offense.

"We started too many drives inside our 10-yard line," Pardee said after reviewing Sunday's 17-12 loss. "We've got to get the field shortened and that will help our offense if they don't have to drive 97 yards to score."

The Oilers started drives from their 6, 9, 6 and 4 yard lines in Sunday's game in which the Oilers won all the statistical battles except the final score.

Houston outgained the Jets 425-229 in total yards, 28-13 in first downs and they had the ball 37:30 to 22:30.

Poor field position caused by good punting and bad special teams execution and turnovers led to the Oilers' downfall, Pardee said.

"If I could lead the league in anything it would be takeaway-giveaways," Pardee said. "You don't win football games by giving the ball away."

The Oilers drove to the Jets 1-yard line in the second quarter before a fumble on a pitch by Warren Moon killed the drive.

Moon was sacked by the Jets' Darrell Davis, forcing a fumble, which Davis recovered in the end zone for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

The Oilers had reversed an early season turnover trend. They were minus-12 in takeaway-giveaways early in the season but had been plus 10 in the four games before playing the Jets.

The Oilers have allowed six touchdowns this season when the defense wasn't on the field.

"That's unacceptable," Pardee said.

Jets punter Joe Prokop helped put the Oilers in the hole with his pin-point punts inside the Oilers' 10.

"When the ball hits on the fly at the 1-yard line and doesn't go in..." Pardee said, raising his hands in a helpless gesture. "We certainly aren't going to be handling the ball inside the 5-yard line. We just have to avoid those situations."

Despite the addition of return specialist Gerald McNeil this season, the Oilers' special teams haven't given the Oilers good field position.

"Gerald would rather return punts than kickoffs but he's the best we've got to return kickoffs," Pardee said. "He has the ability to be one of the best. He'll break one before long."

The Oilers reached the half-way point of the season at 4-4 going into Sunday's game at the Los Angeles Rams, one of five road games the Oilers will play in the second half.

"The road doesn't beat you, your opponents do," Pardee said.

Cowboys still low over last-minute loss to Eagles

IRVING (AP) — It was a Randall Cunningham-induced blue Monday at Valley Ranch.

"This was as about a devastating loss that Dallas has had that I've been involved with on this team," said safety Bill Bates after the Philadelphia Eagles rallied behind Cunningham for a last second 21-20 victory over the Cowboys on Sunday.

"We had the game. Everybody on this team is devastated because we know we should have won the game."

Cunningham's winning touchdown pass came with 44 seconds left to play and the Cowboys couldn't get into field goal position.

"It was a frustrating loss," said Dallas quarterback Troy Aikman. "We hung in there and they couldn't knock us out. But Cunningham pulled it out. This was probably the toughest loss we've suffered since I've been here."

Running back Emmitt Smith, who thought he had scored the winning touchdown with four minutes left, said "it's a loss that we felt like should have never happened."

The Cowboys dropped to 3-5 for the first half of the season. That was better than their 1-7 start in 1989 in coach Jimmy Johnson's rookie season.

Even the Eagles were praising the Cowboys after the game.

"It was a lot tougher game than I thought it would be," said safety Wes Hopkins, who had an interception off Aikman. "They have a tough team."

"They are a lot more improved now than they have been in the past," Cunningham said. "Last year, when we came down, the adjustments the defense made weren't as good. This year, they adjusted real quick. The difference is the way their coaches and players are reacting under pressure."

"I think the offense with Troy Aikman is a great offense. He makes things happen," he said.

Dallas linebacker Eugene Lockhart said the Cowboys need to forget the game as soon as possible.

"We're building the continuity that we need to build in order to be a good football team," Lockhart said.

Doran hints at possible return to Astros in '91

HOUSTON (AP) — Power hitter Bill Doran could be returning to the Houston Astros next season if the price is right, according to reports.

"It would depend on his attitude about returning and financial circumstances," Astros General Manager Bill Wood said.

The second baseman, who was traded to the Cincinnati Reds late in the season, is a free agent. He finished the year with a .300 batting average but back surgery kept him out of the playoffs and the World Series, which was won by the Reds.
