Pittsburgh's Leyland selected National League manager of year

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Leyland, who turned the Pittsburgh Pirates into contenders and guided them through the pressure of a pennant race, was selected the National League manager of the year on Wednesday. Leyland took a team that went 74-88 and was fifth in the NL East in 1989 and molded it into a division champion at 95-67. The Pirates overcame the New York Mets and all the odds in the stretch to finish with the second-best record in baseball.

The Pirates had Barry Bonds and Bobby Bonilla for offense, but did not have a set starting rotation or a re-lief ace. Leyland juggled his staff and wound up with 18 different pitchers getting victories. Leyland got 17 of the 24 first-place votes and fin-ished with 99 points. Lou Piniella, who led Cincinnati to the World Series championship in his first season with the Reds, got three first-place votes and was second with 49 points.

Montreal's Buck Rodgers also got three first-place votes and was tied for third with 32 points with Los An-geles' Tom Lasorda, who got the other first-place vote. San Francisco's Roger Craig and New York's Bud Har-relson tied for fourth with two points each. No manager was named on all 24 ballots. Two mem-

Nothing to see here Shell plays down LA's weekend KC matchup

EL SEGUNDO, Calif. (AP) ----Coach Art Shell says the Los Angeles Raiders' visit to Kansas City on Sunday is just another game on his team's schedule. The AFC West standings say something else

"Every game we play is impor-tant, that's the way we approach

Shell said Wednesday. "The Kansas City game is no more important than the San Diego game, the Pittsburgh game, the Seattle game, the Denver game. "Division and conference games are very important. Our players understand that. You can take the records and throw them out the window. They're going to try and ambush us. We'll show up." Should the Raiders (6-1) beat the Chiefs (4-3), they'll have a three-game lead in the AFC West at the halfway point of the season as they attempt to make the play-offs for the first time since 1985. The division crown would be theirs to lose

Should the Chiefs win, they'd

be one game out of first place and the division title would be up for grabs.

"They're a pretty good football team," Shell said. "They're really pushing the ball at people. The quarterback (Steve DeBerg) is doing an excellent job with the play action; of course, they've got the Nightmare (Christian Okoye) back there and (Barry) Word is creating a lot of cane. "Defensively, they've got 25 sacks and one of the better secondaries we'll see. You just have to trust your people up front to do a good job of protection. So far, we've done a pretty good job

Shell knows the Raiders have to stop Okoye, last year's NFL rushing leader who has 515 yards

"You've got to try and catch him before he runs up the field,

The game marks the return of running back-outfielder Bo Jackson to Kansas City, where he plays for the Royals during the baseball season. Jackson has played one game since baseball season ended.

"Tech will be a big challenge for us," Givens says. "We played them extremely well here, the question is, 'Can we play better in Lubbock?"" team is ready to avenge the loss. "I want to pay back Tech person-ally," Hierholzer says. "But we're traditionally not a very good team on the road.

"Hopefully we'll be able to overcome that.'

The Lady Aggies have had their troubles playing outside of College Station this season. A&M is 2-11 in road games, 1-2 in conference matches.
