

Frank C. Lewis, Jr.
 Republican
 for County Commissioner
 Precinct 4

Supports:

- Strong Christian family values
- A&M Student voting rights
- Stronger law enforcement
- Better Fire Protection
- Lowering taxes
- Rural Roads Improvements

Pol. adv. paid for by campaign to elect Frank C. Lewis, Jr.

HELP!

Rudder Theatre Complex
 Needs student workers
 For stagehand and spotlight work

To Apply Come To: 107 Rudder
 or Call 845-8903 between 8:00am & 5:00pm

COME SIGN UP!!

CAFE ECCELL BAKERY

BLUEBERRY DANISH • FRENCH BAGUETTE WITH BUTTER, JAM AND COFFEE • STRAWBERRY CROISSANTS

Specialty Breads

101 Church Open 7:00 A.M.

SEE THE PROS AGGIES!
 3301 S. Texas Ave.
 in Bryan
 (2 Blocks South of Manor East Mall)

Accept Visa, MasterCard, Amex, Points Plus, and Shell Card

846-9478

$200 OFF SHAMMY SPECIAL
 Full Service Car Wash
 •Poly Sealant •Polish Wax •Fragrance
 Regularly $9.95
 Thru November 31, 1990
 Featuring Auto Detail, Car Wash, Quick Lube & State Inspection!

KOREAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION SCHEDULED MEETING

- Nov. 3: Inter-Department Softball tournament will be held in Central Park at 12:00 PM. (contact 846-1131 for more info.)
- Nov. 10: Tennis tournament will be held in the school tennis courts at 1:00 PM. (contact 846-0673).
- Nov. 12: Officials from Gold Star Co. will sponsor a dinner meeting for all interested Korean students in the University Tower Ballroom at 6:00 PM. Officials from the semiconductor lab. and the central lab. will be present to talk about their company. All members are invited. (contact 846-9241).
- Nov. 17: The Hankuk Ilbo Daily sponsored softball tournament will be held in Central Park.

All Dressed Up!

The Bridal Boutique and Cologero's Formal Wear

2501 S. Texas Ave. (next to Winn Dixie)
 College Station 693-0709

Smith Continued from page 9

a guy like Walls and myself. I'm not the only guy out there who can intercept the ball. (A&M safety) Larry Horton hasn't gotten any interceptions this year. What's the deal?"

Part of being a successful cornerback is being a successful actor, Smith said. Sometimes you have to lay back and give the receiver room to get open. That's the only way the ball will be thrown your way.

"You have to bait them," Smith said. "You have to hook them before you can reel them in. If you're all on top of the guy, then the quarterback's not going to throw it. If it seems like he's open, maybe he'll throw the ball. Then you have a chance to break on the ball."

Still, at one point of the season, Smith said he thought his luck was running out. He gave up a touchdown catch to Houston's Manny Hazard in A&M's 36-31 loss, and he said he began questioning his gambling style.

"Manny ran a good route and I bit on it," he said. "At the time, I got discouraged and covered him a little closer. I stopped inviting them to throw the ball to him."

But sometimes, he said, doubting your play is more dangerous than throwing the dice once too often.

"I'll get beaten again," Smith said. "Sooner or later, it'll happen. You

Tyson Continued from page 9

The jury ruled Wednesday that Tyson grabbed Miller's breasts and buttocks after she refused his advances. The finding that Tyson committed battery cleared the way for a determination of punitive damages.

On Thursday, the jury heard that Tyson's net worth was $15 million and listened to testimony from another woman who claimed the boxer had reached under her dress on the same night as the Miller incident.

Tyson has acknowledged that he was at Bentley's that night but denies knowing or ever touching Miller, a 26-year old Queens computer operator.

In testimony Thursday, Tyson

Hierholzer Continued from page 9

where I feel comfortable, as if I'm doing a good job."

And she's living with the identity crisis.

"A lot of people still say, 'Yvonne ... Yvonne ...' Hierholzer says. "I'm that blonde girl after Yvonne."

Throughout this season, Hierholzer has been a mold of consistency. She is the quarterback of the Lady Aggie offense and the point guard of the A&M attack. And with 10 games remaining in her career as a Lady Aggie, she continues to set her sights high.

"I just want to keep playing well and I'd like us to play better," she says. "I'd like all of us, individually too, just to play our best the rest of the way. And for us to finish with a winning season."

Her performance has been a key in A&M's elevated level of play this year. This season she broke a personal record in assists not once, but twice. The second time she recorded 65 assists against North Carolina State in the Aggie Classic. The total was just five short of Van Brandt's school record of 70 set over three years ago.

However, she says she couldn't obtain any records were it not for the other players on the court.

"I could set all I want, but if they

Game Continued from page 9

game," Slocum said. "We'll go ahead and do whatever we have to do to win the ballgame and we'll adjust to those other things if we can."

While the team may have trouble getting excited about playing the Mustangs, cornerback Kevin Smith said the game will still be somewhat of a challenge.

"It's hard to get up for a team that's not as successful," Smith said. "But it's a challenge for us defensive backs because they'll be throwing 40 or 50 times a game."

"That's the kind of things we're looking for — to get challenged throughout the game."

That challenge will come in the form of SMU quarterback Mike Romo, last year's SWC Offensive Newcomer of the Year. Romo finished second in the SWC in total passing yards to Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware last year with 2,927 yards.

This year, however, the signal-caller from San Antonio Roosevelt hasn't been as productive, most noticeably in last week's 52-3 loss against Texas.

Romo had career lows in all categories, completing 11-of-29 attempts for 74 yards. He was sacked eight times. Romo's streak of 12 consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass was broken. He did, however, move past Arkansas and NFL journeyman quarterback Joe Ferguson into 18th place on the all-time SWC passing leaders with 4,457 yards.

Slocum said the Mustangs' Run-and-Shoot is similar to the Houston Cougars' offense, but the defense won't be able to blitz at will.

"They have a few different plays, but the overall preparation is very similar to what we would have against Houston," Slocum said. "I think with them throwing the ball like they do, if you're going to pres-

NAILS & MORE

Sculptured Nails.... $25⁰⁰
 Fill-in..... $18⁰⁰
 Male Manicures..... $9⁰⁰

Everyday low prices

(409) 822-5977

215 South Main
 Bryan, TX 77803

Need to Raise Money Fast?

Points Plus has a fund raising opportunity for individuals or organizations. Interested?

For more info. 846-9085

JACOB'S WELL

Reverse Osmosis Drinking Water Store

Bottles & Pumps

4 Gallons for $1.00
 With Coupon in Your Bottle (Reg 30/gal)

Dispensers, Coolers, Home Units

Tastes Great • Sodium Free • Of Distilled Quality
 Friendly Service

693-8293 524 E. University

NIGHT-TIME HEARTBURN STUDY

Do you experience night-time heartburn? VIP Research is seeking individuals for a short-term research study of a currently available medication. A $100 incentive will be paid to those who enroll and complete this study.

CALL
 VOLUNTEERS IN PHARMACEUTICAL RESEARCH®
 776-1417

4 OF EVERY 5 DOGS & CATS DIE HOMELESS...

ADOPT-A-PET/SPAY & NEUTER

Supervisor of Academic Computing Consulting Services at The University of Houston

The Academic Computing User Services department is looking for a person who will be responsible for the supervision and accountability of the academic computing consulting staff. The position will be responsible for software consulting and analysis of complex academic user programs. Requires good communication, teaching, analytical and interpersonal skills. The position will require a good working knowledge of VMS, CMS and UNIX operating systems. Work will require good conceptual knowledge of DECNET, RSCS, and TCP/IP network protocols/systems. A degree in computer science or closely related field is preferred. Managerial and/or supervisory experience in a campus environment is highly desirable. For additional information contact Jares at U.H. education.

Send Resumes to:
 The University of Houston
 Human Resources Department
 Houston, Texas 77204-2770
 U.H. is an Equal Opportunity Employer

Dorm Special!

$4.99 plus tax

A medium original style cheese pizza and one 12 oz. can of Coca-Cola Classic or Diet Coke for only $4.99 plus tax.

Additional toppings extra.
 Not valid with any other specials.
 Expires: 11/7/90
 Valid only for students living in TAMU dorms.

693-2335 Southside and Corps Dorms

DOMINO'S PIZZA

260-9020 Northside and Commons

Dorm Special! Dorm Special!