Desert Shield packages detoured through Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Priority packages for Operation Desert Shield mailed in the Southwest will now go through Dallas, a postal official said Monday. Within a few weeks the Dallas station should handle about 70,000 pieces per day. Dallas also will handle mail for about 140 cities in Eastern Europe, said Buck. Spokeswoman Barbara Buck said postal operations at Washington Dulles, Chicago and New York were overwhelmed. As of Monday, Dallas became a concentration point for APO priority parcels. Those are anything 12 ounces and over, generally packages, for regular two-day delivery, said Buck.

Developer liquidates own estate

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Smack in the middle of the upscale neighborhood the former Dallas developer built in the mid-1980s was a sign of the times: "Kenneth Good Estate Liquidation Sale Today." All day Sunday, the financially troubled developer opened his home for deals on household items ranging from zebra-skin rugs to plastic tissue dispensers. Good is known for his business links to Neil Bush, the president's son, who was a director at the Silverado Savings and Loan Association during the mid-1980s. Good bought about $14 million in Silverado stock and became one of the thrift's biggest borrowers. Silverado collapsed in 1988, costing taxpayers an estimated $1 billion. The family advertised the sale with signs posted at the main entrances to the 9,000-acre Tampa Palms community north of the University of South Florida. "We're just getting rid of some stuff," a young man who identified himself as Good's son said. Good greeted bargain-hunters to the home he once tried to sell for $650,000. He said he was moving but told a reporter he did not want to talk to the press. Some of Sunday's shoppers apparently found a few steals. One woman left the house cradling a jumbo box of pots and pans. Another man hauled a silver object d'art to his silver Mercedes. Some left the 5,000-square-foot house empty-handed.

YOUR ENGAGEMENT DIAMOND SHOULD LAST FOR LIFE.... NOT COST FOR LIFE.

Before you buy an engagement diamond, meet David Gardner. Because there's a lot more to making the commitment of a lifetime than just picking one off the shelf. The staff of professional gemologists at David Gardner's give you more than sales talk. They teach you about diamonds, about gold and about quality. And you'll find a lot more diamond, for a lot less money.

David Gardner's.
We give more, instead of charging more.
