Porch

act that just released Like A Version, will appear in one of the Porch's biggest shows of the semester. Two Nice Girls is actually three nice girls who display a deep regard for feminist themes and witty satire.

Saturday night, Austin's Highwaymen will perform with a heavy country-rock blend. No this is not Willie, Waylon, Kris and Johnny, but instead Troy, Jud, Mike and Mark.

The quartet has just released its first album, Live Texas Radio, and has been performing with Austin heroes, Poi Dog Pondering. Apparently, the band does a killer version of Dylan's "Highway 61," interpolated with "Stayin' Alive" by the Bee Gees (weird). Somehow, you got to respect that. Anyway, great things have filtered down from Austin about this high-energy group.

Friday nights show with Two Nice Girls will cost $8 and will start at 9 p.m. Saturday nights show with the Highwaymen will be $5 for admission and will begin at 9 p.m.

Symphonic band performs

The Texas A&M Symphonic Band will perform in concert tonight at 7:30 in Rudder Auditorium.

The band will play popular selections by the late Leonard Bernstein as well as traditional symphonic band literature by Alfred Reed, Gustav Holst and John Philip Sousa.

The A&M Jazz Band will contribute a few pieces as well.

Admission is free. For more information call the MSC Box Office at 845-1234.
