Holyfield won't relenquish title to Foreman easily

NEW YORK (AP) — Evander Holyfield will not surrender the World Boxing Council's piece of his heavyweight championship without a fight.

Holyfield, who won the undisputed title from James "Buster" Douglas Oct. 25, is signed to defend it against 42-year-old George Foreman April 19.

"The fight is happening April 19 because Evander Holyfield is the undisputed heavyweight champion of the world, and there's nothing (WBC president) Jose Sulaiman can do to change that," Dan Duva, Holyfield's promoter, said Wednesday.

He spoke at a news conference called to officially announce that the World Boxing Association had changed its stance and will sanction the match.

The WBC, WBA and International Boxing Federation all ruled that Holyfield's first defense had to be against Mike Tyson, who lost the title to Douglas.

At the news conference, James Binns, counsel for the WBA, read a letter from WBA President Gilberto Mendoza to Holyfield in which Mendoza said the WBA would sanction the fight with Foreman "upon the condition that the winner must defend the title against the then leading available contender, by no later than June 11, 1991."

Tyson, who is to fight Alex Stewart Dec. 8 at Atlantic City, N.J., currently is the No. 1 contender of all three governing bodies.

The IBF Executive Committee reportedly is leaning toward sanctioning the match, and President Bob Lee said by telephone that he will have an announcement by the end of the week. Should the fight be sanctioned, Lee said, the winner would have 30 days to negotiate with the leading contender for a defense by next Oct. 25.

Duva threatened court action against the WBC and take his case to the public and to advertisers who sponsor WBC fights on television, adding: "I believe the WBC is going to sanction this fight or get out of boxing."

"I see the possibility of a congressional investigation into boxing if they steal Holyfield's title."

Asked why he would press for WBC recognition since the fight will happen even if it's withheld, Duva said: "Why it is important is Evander Holyfield earned it."

Duva said the WBC sanctioning fees for the Holyfield-Douglas fight were more than $300,000, with $150,000 coming from Holyfield. The new champion's share of the WBA sanctioning fees was $100,000 and his share of the IBF fees was $80,000.

"For that kind of money, you expect fair treatment," Duva said.

"Root for Sulaiman to take the title from you," a grinning Bob Arum, who represents Foreman and will co-promote the fight, told Duva, "then you'll save $150,000. For me, it's ridiculous to pay $150,000 for that green (championship) belt. You can buy it for $5 in a store."

Pirates' Drabek named NL Cy Young winner

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Doug Drabek, who pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates within one step of the World Series, came within one vote Wednesday of unanimous selection as the National League Cy Young Award winner.

Drabek, who led the league with 22 victories against six losses while leading his team to its first division title since 1979, became the first Pirate in 30 years to win the award.

He received 23 of 24 first-place votes and 118 of a possible 120 points in balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Ramon Martinez (20-6), the Los Angeles Dodgers' 22-year-old fastballer, was second with one first-place vote and 70 points. Frank Viola of the New York Mets was third with two second-place votes and 13 thirds for 19 points.

Ballots were cast by two writers in each National League city.

It was Drabek's ability to win big games in a pressure-cooker pennant race that kept the Mets from overtaking the Pirates.

Pittsburgh lacked the bullpen stopper that most contenders have, but manager Jim Leyland contended all season it didn't matter, "because we've got Cy Young (Drabek) on our staff. He's our stopper."

Drabek, who never won more than 15 games before this season, said he was never worried he would win — or not win — the Cy Young.

"Because of the pennant race and the playoffs, I never allowed myself to even think about this," said Drabek, the first Pirate Cy Young winner since Vernon Law in 1960. "All of that individual stuff was pushed aside. I didn't think about it, even after the season. I was just wishing we were in the World Series."

Drabek was 1-1 in the Pirates' six-game NL playoffs loss to Cincinnati, winning 2-1 in Game 5. He allowed three runs in 16 1-3 innings for a 1.65 postseason ERA.

"He's the best pitcher in the league — no doubt, no question about it," Leyland said.
