SMU's Gregg says he'll step down as coach

DALLAS (AP) — Forrest Gregg said Tuesday night he will step down as Southern Methodist football coach after Saturday's season finale against Arkansas, and will remain on as the school's athletic director.

"This was a difficult decision for me and my family, and I came back to SMU because we care deeply about the university," said Gregg, a lineman for the Mustangs in 1953-55.

Forrest Gregg

Gregg said a search for his successor as football coach would begin immediately. He refused to name any possibilities. "I hope to have a coach in place as soon as possible," he said.

Gregg, who coached the Cleveland Browns, Cincinnati Bengals and Green Bay Packers in the NFL, was named Southern Methodist coach in January 1988. He brought the Mustangs back from the NCAA death penalty, stemming from a slush fund scandal during the mid-1980s.

In April, Gregg also became athletic director, replacing Doug Single, who resigned to take a post with the Special Olympics in Washington, D.C.

Gregg assumed the dual role with the stipulation that he relinquish his coaching duties after this season. That requirement later changed, so that he would have to give up one position or the other.

"I feel that I can have a greater impact on the overall future of the SMU athletic program as director of athletics," Gregg said.

"My one regret is that I won't be able to coach these young men we brought in, for their entire college careers."

But, he said, "When I accepted the position as athletic director, it was with the stipulation that I would give up coaching."

"I am fulfilling that commitment," Gregg said. "I feel that my decision is what's best for the university."

The Mustangs went 2-9 last year, and are 1-9 this season. They have lost a school-record nine straight games and have yet to win a Southwest Conference matchup since the program was reinstated.

Gregg was All-SWC in 1954 and 1955, when he was captain. He was an assistant coach for the San Diego Chargers in 1972-73 and an assistant for the Browns in 1974, before becoming head coach for Cleveland from 1975-77.

In 1979, Gregg coached the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League, but returned to the NFL to coach the Bengals from 1980-83. He coached Green Bay from 1984-1987.

Astros' Stubbs receives contract

HOUSTON (AP) — Franklin Stubbs, the Houston Astros' home run and RBI leader last season, has received a 3-year guaranteed contract offer from another club, Stubbs' agent said Monday.

"The Astros are not willing to do that," Stubbs' agent Jim Turner told KRIV-TV. "It is going to be very difficult for Franklin Stubbs to return to Houston."

PIGS 'N TOADS 'N SIPS-1990 CONTINUES WITH MOTHER GOOSE AND...

THE TOAD WHO WOULD BE PRINCE

HOW SAD IT IS TO BE A TOAD, TO BE A PURPLE ONE AT THAT, AND BEAR A HEAVY LOAD WITH NO CHANCE OF GETTING FAT! ONCE YOU LIVED A LIFE OF LEISURE AND YOU DINED ON CAVIAR, YOU WERE TREATED LIKE A CAESAR AND WORSHIPED FROM AFAR. BUT THAT WAS MANY YEARS AGO WHEN THEY SAID THE TOAD WAS GREAT. I JUST THOUGHT YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW IT WAS 1938!

THE PURPLE TOAD WAS NUMBER ONE AND THEY CALLED THE TOAD A PRINCE. THAT YEAR HE HAD A LOT OF FUN BUT HE HASN'T HAD MUCH SINCE.

BUT STILL HE DREAMS HIS PURPLE DREAM OF PURPLE TOAD WITH PURPLE CROWN BUT ALWAYS WAKES UP WITH A SCREAM WHEN THE AGGIES KNOCK HIM DOWN.

HOW SAD IT IS TO BE A TOAD, A TOAD THAT LIVES ON MEMORY LANE, WHO WISHES ON THAT LONELY ROAD FOR ANOTHER PURPLE REIGN!

A&M basketball teams face tough weekend tournaments

By NADJA SABAWALA
 Of The Battalion Staff

The Texas A&M men's and women's basketball teams will have a short Thanksgiving holiday as both have tough tournament weekends ahead.

The men's team travels to Cincinnati, Ohio to take part in the Bearcat Classic while the women's team hosts the Domino's Pizza/Holiday Inn Classic in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

The Aggie men are one of four teams in the Bearcat Classic. Cincinnati, Kent State and Sam Houston State round out the field.

"Kent State will be a good test," said A&M coach Kermit Davis Jr. "They were an NIT team last year. And it's in Ohio, where they're from, so it'll be tough for us."

Davis said the team's zone defense needs to be better and they must work on offensive execution. In the exhibition season, the Aggies went 2-0, defeating St. Petersburg AAU, 104-67, and the New Zealand National Team, 92-72.

"We got what we wanted from the exhibition season," Davis said. "We got an idea of how the team performs and what needs work."

While the men's team is battling out-of-state, the A&M women's team hosts Eastern Washington in the first round of the Domino's Pizza Classic Friday at 8 p.m., however the first match of the tournament features Oklahoma and Washington State at 6 p.m.

A&M dropped its first game, 86-72, to the Olympic Hopefuls in an exhibition match Nov. 13 in G. Rollie White.

Lady Aggie head coach Lynn Hickey said after the loss that the team has many areas to work on and improve.

"Offensively, we got shots," Hickey said. "I think it's just a matter that will improve with some playing experience."

"I think the two biggest keys are defense and hitting the boards."

OTHER NOTES: Twylana Harrison, a 5-10 forward from Levelland, signed a national letter-of-intent with the Lady Aggies.

Shedrick Anderson (3) and the rest of the Aggie basketball team travel to Cincinnati, Ohio to compete in the Bearcat Classic this weekend, with Cincinnati, Kent State and Sam Houston State.

Harrison averaged 19.3 points and 7.3 rebounds per game and was selected district MVP.

She was also named to the TABC and TGCA first team All-Region and All-State and was selected to the Texas Sports Writers All-State team.

Harrison will also participate on the A&M track team. This past summer she attended a training camp at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado.

A&M recruited Harrison over Texas, Texas Tech and UCLA.

Clemens suspended, fined for misconduct

BOSTON (AP) — Roger Clemens was suspended for the first five games of next season and fined $10,000 Tuesday for behavior which led to the Boston pitcher's ejection from the last game of the American League playoffs.

The penalty announced by AL president Bobby Brown will force the Red Sox star to miss one start. It came a week after he earned a $50,000 bonus for finishing second in the AL Cy Young Award voting and on the same day he earned another $50,000 for finishing third in the AL Most Valuable Player voting.

Although Clemens can appeal, Red Sox general manager Lou Gorman said, "Dr. Brown's statement and subsequent fine and suspension of Roger Clemens speaks for itself. Although we are not in agreement with the severity of the league's action, we are satisfied that the issue has been addressed."

Clemens was ejected by plate umpire Terry Cooney in the second inning of Oakland's 3-1 victory that completed the A's four-game sweep Oct. 10.

In his announcement, Brown cited Clemens for making "... significant physical contact with an umpire (Jim Evans), for threatening umpire Cooney, for verbally abusing umpire Cooney with personal obscenities and for not leaving the dugout immediately after the ejection."

Clemens was not immediately available for comment.

Last season, Clemens led the league for the second time in earned run average with a 1.93 mark. He was 21-6, the second winningest season of his career.

He finished second to Oakland's Bob Welch in the Cy Young balloting. Clemens won the award in 1986 and 1987 and was most valuable player in 1987.

Although Boston surprised season predictors by winning the AL East, the season ended on a sour note for the team and its star pitcher.

The altercation occurred after Clemens walked Willie Randolph giving the A's, who led 1-0, runner on first and third. Cooney said Clemens got into a shouting match and Clemens, trying to get closer to Cooney, bumped Evans.

Cooney said he told Clemens, "I hope you're not shaking your head at me. He said, 'if you want to talk to me, take your mask off.' By me removing my mask and not getting into a verbal thing with him, that was my way of warning him."

"I was looking down," Clemens said. "I saw (Cooney's) throat moving, so he was saying something. He thought I was talking to him. I told him, 'I'm not shaking my head at you. The problem was with you.'"
