A&M's Horton, UT kicker named players of week

From Staff and Wire Reports

Texas A&M safety Larry Horton, a three-letterman senior, was chosen as The Associated Press' Southwest Conference defensive player of the week after intercepting his first pass of the season for a 35-yard touchdown against Texas Christian.

Horton, a schoolboy star at Tatum, also had nine tackles, including six unassisted, and pressured the quarterback once as A&M scorched the Horned Frogs 56-10.

"Larry had a fine day Saturday," said A&M coach R.C. Slocum. "He's really made great strides as a defensive back after we moved him from running back to the defensive secondary."

Joining Horton is Texas kicker Michael Pollak, who kicked three field goals Saturday, setting a single-season school record of 20, as Texas won the SWC football championship by beating Baylor, 23-13, at Waco.

For his performance, Pollak was selected as SWC offensive player of the week.

The first kick was a career-long 56 yards that opened Texas' scoring; the second was for 43 yards and made it 20-10; and the third, for 38 yards into a strong wind, climaxing a 17-play drive, closed out scoring with 4:31 to play.

"What a kick, what a drive," exclaimed Texas offensive coordinator Lynn Amedee.

Pollak added two extra points, so his 11 points provided the winning margin.

"I've proven that I am reliable," said Pollak, who kicked only one year in high school, as a senior at Austin Johnston.

Dallas Mavericks Mavs' losing streak ends in 107-88 victory

DALLAS (AP) — Rolando Blackman scored 30 points to become Dallas' all-time leading scorer as the Mavericks snapped a three-game losing streak with a 107-88 win over the Los Angeles Clippers Wednesday night.

Dallas' inside defense forced the Clippers outside, and Los Angeles shot only 39 percent, 33 of 85, and remained winless on the road at 0-5.

The Clippers have not won at Reunion Arena since Jan. 22, 1986, and are 0-10 in Dallas since then.

Blackman surpassed Mark Aguirre, who scored 13,930 points for Dallas, with a 12-foot jumper with 10:40 left in the second quarter. Blackman now has 13,953 points in 722 games.

Alex English started in place of injured Herb Williams, who has bursitis of the knee, and scored 17 points, one under his season high. Charles Smith led the Clippers with 24 points.

The Mavericks made 13 of 21 shots in the third quarter to build a 75-63 lead that was never threatened. From 6:22 of the third through the first 10 minutes of the fourth, Dallas made 12 consecutive field goals in the lane, including five layups and a tip-in.

Dallas burst out to an 11-2 lead, but the Clippers responded with a 15-0 run, mostly with a three-guard lineup, holding the Mavs scoreless for 6:09.

Blackman scored 11 points in the second quarter, including five late points that put Dallas ahead 48-44 at halftime.

Houston Rockets Rockets come up short in 103-92 loss to Jazz

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Karl Malone scored 31 points as the Utah Jazz won the 600th game in franchise history, beating the Houston Rockets 103-92 on Wednesday night.

John Stockton added 14 points and 12 assists for the Jazz, while Jeff Malone and Blue Edwards had 13 apiece. Buck Johnson led Houston with 22 points, Kenny Smith scored 20 and Akeem Olajuwon 19.

The Jazz, leading 42-38 at halftime, shot 73 percent (11-for-15) from the field and made 11 of 12 free throws in the third quarter, expanding their lead to 76-61. Jeff Malone scored 10 points in the period.

A 3-pointer by Stockton gave Utah its biggest lead, 83-61, and the closest the Rockets got was the final margin.

Johnson scored 8 points in the first 6½ minutes of the game as Houston grabbed a 15-5 lead and went on for a 24-20 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

The Jazz, 600-725 since the franchise started in New Orleans in 1974, scored the first 8 points of the second period, taking the lead for the first time, and they never trailed again. The Rockets made only 6 of 22 shots in the second quarter and were outscored 22-14 in the period.

The Rockets outscored the Jazz 82-66 from the field, but Utah made 27 of 33 free throws while the Rockets were 10-for-11. Karl Malone was 13-for-15 from the line.

"For the first few plays of the game, it looked like we weren't ready for them," Jazz coach Jerry Sloan said. "But we were able to finally put it together."

Sloan praised reserve point guard Delaney Rudd, who scored 11 points in 12 minutes, including 7 in the last half of the third quarter when the Jazz broke the game open.

San Antonio Spurs Lakers muscle past Spurs in third quarter

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — James Worthy scored 8 of his 20 points as the Los Angeles Lakers outscored San Antonio 16-2 to open a 24-point lead in the third quarter and won their fifth straight game, 97-80 on Wednesday night.

After their worst start in 12 years (1-4), the Lakers improved their record to 7-5.

The Spurs beat the Lakers 110-99 in San Antonio in their season opener, but in the rematch at the Forum, the Lakers took command with the run in the first 4:38 of the third period, opening up a 67-43 lead.

The Spurs, playing their fourth game on the road in six days, threatened briefly in the final quarter, narrowing the gap to 86-74 on Terry Cummings' jumper with 5:23 remaining. But Byron Scott's jumper put the lead at 14 and the Lakers pulled away again.

Worthy also had 11 rebounds for the Lakers, and Sam Perkins had 16 points and 10 rebounds.

Cummings led San Antonio with 19 points, while Sean Elliott scored 18 and David Robinson 17.

Three Lakers — Perkins, Worthy and Terry Teagle — had 9 points each in the first half as the Lakers opened up a 10-point lead over the Spurs, who made just 16 of 44 field goal attempts in the first two quarters.

Los Angeles went up 49-31 on Worthy's layup 2:52 before halftime, but the Lakers went the final 1:45 of the period without scoring as San Antonio closed to 51-41.

Both teams got off to a ragged start, with the Spurs hitting just seven of 27 shots in the first quarter and committing six turnovers.

The Lakers, meanwhile, shot better — 12 of 25 — but turned the ball over five times. Los Angeles held a 27-18 lead at the end of the opening period.
