Tyler lawyer takes oath as secretary

John Hannah was sworn in Thursday as secretary of state, which — if Texas tradition holds — would make him Gov. Ann Richards' right arm in state government.

Richards, who appointed Hannah to the position, said, "He truly is the best that we could possibly have as

Special employment fair Saturday morning

Texas A&M's Human Resources Department is hosting a "Saturday Morning Special" job fair from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday.

"Saturday Morning Specials," held three times a year, provide opportunities for people seeking employment at A&M who are unable to visit the department's employment office during regular business

The job fair will take place at the University's Employment Office in the Westgate Center, 4309 Wellborn Road in Bryan.

Prospective employees attending the job fair will be able to view detailed job descriptions of available positions, complete applications, take typing tests and meet with interviewers.

Organizations featured at Open House

Texas A&M's Memorial Student Center will present its annual spring open house from 2 to 6 p.m. Saturday.

The event, called "Jump Right In and Get Involved," will feature representatives from more than 100 student and campus organiza-
