Contact Lenses

ONLY QUALITY NAME BRANDS (Bausch & Lomb, Ciba, Barnes-Hinds-Hydrocurve)

28 00 TOTAL COST....
INCLUDES EYE EXAM, FREE CARE KIT, STD. DAILY
WEAR, EXTENDED WEAR OR TINTED LENSES.

Std. Daily Wear, Extended Wear or Tinted Soft Lenses

> YOUR CHOICE of

SAME DAY DELIVERY ON MOST LENSES. 🛱

Extended to Feb. 28, 1991

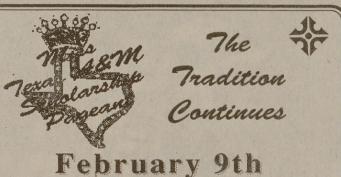

Call 696-3754 for Appointment

Charles C. Schroeppel, O.D., P.C.

Doctor of Optometry 707 S. Texas Ave.-Suite 101D

College Station, Texas 77840

7:00 pm Rudder Auditorium

Entertainment includes: Aggie Wranglers Vocalist Karen Jackson

Appearances by: Reveille Ross Volunteers

Tickets are available at the MSC Box Office for $5, $8, and $10. For information call 845-1515.

SPONSORED BY THE MSC PAGEANT COMMITTEE

AND PAR

RECEPTION IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING IN THE FACULTY CLUB $2.00

Northgate Pizza Hut presents Daily Specials

Monday

99¢ Personal Pan Pepperoni 5pm-11pm

Tuesday

2 for Tuesday. Any regular price food item 2 for 1 5pm-11pm

Wednesday/Thursday

99¢ Personal Pan Pepperoni

Friday/Saturday

Free Movies. Check marquee

Sunday

for titles and times

Sunday Meal Deals. Starting at $3.99.5pm-11pm

All day everday-Medium Pepperoni Pizza $5.99 Call 693-9393 for campus delivery

Kelly riddles NFC as AFC wins Pro Bowl

HONOLULU (AP) — Jim Kelly had a better Sunday to finish off the 1990 NFL season.

The Buffalo Bills quarterback threw two touchdown passes, the second a 13-yarder to Ernest Givins of the Houston Oilers with 1:49 remaining, to give the AFC a 23-21 victory over the NFC in the Pro Bowl on Sunday.

Unlike last week's Super Bowl, Kelly was on the other side as a team failed to kick a game-winning field goal in the final seconds. Last week, it was Buffalo's Scott Norwood who failed on a 47yarder as Buffalo lost to the New York Giants 20-

Sunday night, it was the NFC's Morten Andersen of New Orleans who failed to come through, when his 46-yarder was blocked with seven seconds to play by Miami's Jeff Cross.

Kelly, a frustrated sideline onlooker in the Super Bowl as the Giants' time-consuming offense controlled the ball, completed 13 of 19 passes for 210 yards in the Pro Bowl while splitting playing time with the Oilers' Warren Moon.

Kelly's other touchdown pass was a 20-yard to Buffalo teammate Andre Reed early in the final

Detroit's Barry Sanders, the NFL's leading rusher this season, ran 22 yards for a touchdown with 5:11 remaining to give the NFC a 21-13

Nick Lowery of Kansas City then pulled the AFC to within 21-16 with his third field goal of the game, a 34-yarder with 2:58 remaining.

Kelly and Reed hooked up on their scoring pass to pull the AFC to within 14-13 early in the final quarter. Kelly threaded the ball perfectly between two NFC defenders for the touchdown.

A 33-yard pass from Kelly to Anthony Miller of the San Diego Chargers was a key play in the AFC's touchdown drive, moving the ball to the NFC 42-yard line.

Phoenix rookie Johnny Johnson scored two touchdowns for the NFC on runs of 1 and 9

Johnson gave the NFC a 14-6 lead with his second touchdown of the game, with 1:04 remaining in the third quarter.

Jerry Rice of the San Francisco 49ers provide the big play on the drive to the second Nouchdown, grabbing a pass after Rod Wood of the Pittsburgh Steelers bobbled the ball as tried for an interception. The play covered yards, and Johnson scored on the next play.

Johnson, who rushed for 926 yards this sease despite missing most of three games with an askle injury, gave the NFC a 7-3 lead when he down a yard out 43 seconds before halftime.

The Los Angeles Rams' Jim Everett, who to placed San Francisco's injured Joe Montana of the NFC roster, completed all six of his passes the second quarter and directed the 80-yan touchdown drive after taking over for state Randall Cunningham of Philadelphia. Kansas City's Nick Lowery's second field go of the game, a 43-yarder, pulled the AFC within 7-6 midway through the third quarter, at ter Buffalo's Bruce Smith blocked a field goal in

Horns beat alum team

AUSTIN (AP) - There were some big names on the field when the Texas Longhorns played their 7th annual alumni game Saturday in front of 7,253 fans.

The current Texas varsity used a 7-run fourth inning outburst to post a 14-9 victory over former UT players who now play profes-

Texas Ranger Nolan Ryan, whose son Reid is a freshman pitcher for the Longhorns, threw out the first pitch.

Ryan and his teammates will return on April 2 for an exibition with the Longhorns when he will face his son.

Two-time Cy Young Award winner Roger Clemens of the Boston Red Sox started the game and pitched to one batter, strik-ing out Calvin Murray. Former All-American catcher

Brian Johnson, who plays in the Cleveland Indian chain, returned to lead the alumnus with three singles and a run batted in.

Brooks Kieschnick, Clay King, Scott Pugh, Dean Haskins and Shane Halter led the 15-hit Longhorn attack with two hits each. 03204200 Kieschnick, a freshman from Corpus Christi Carroll, knocked in three runs and also belted a home run. Haskins also had a home run. Kieshnick (a true freshman), Haskins and Halter (junior college transfers) are newcomers to Texas, while Pugh is the defend-ing Southwest Conference batting champion.

The alumni team paraded 15 pitchers and used 30 players in Junior righthander Rodney Pedraza was the winner, while two-time All-American Kirk Dressendorfer was the loser in his first trip back to Disch-Falk Field. Pedraza went two innings and gave up four hits and three runs. Dressendorfer, who is in the Oakland Athletics organization and won 45 games for Texas, lasted only two-thirds of an inrrendering four runs and three hits.

The Longhorns, 51-17 last year and finishing second in the SWC race, open their season Tuesday against Hardin Sim-

Texas will come to College Station to face the Aggies in a three-game SWC showdown April 19-20.

University of Southern Cal players accused of cheating on drug tests

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Some Southern Cal football players regularly cheated on their drug tests, according to a report published Sunaccording to a report publis day.

The Los Angeles Times, citing its own two-week investigation, reported that some USC football players have learned how to get around drug testing by devising elaborate schemes to substitute "clean" urine for their own and also by using masking drugs.

The Times began its investigation after former USC quarterback Todd Marinovich was arrested Jan. 20 on charges of misdemeanor cocaine and marijuana possession.

At the time of his arrest, Marinovich was on indefinite suspension from the team for not registering for spring semester classes and missing a team meeting.

On Friday, he announced that he will pass up his final two years of eligibility in order to make himself available for the NFL draft in April. Marinovich will be arraigned on the drug charges Feb. 11

Two days after Marinovich's ar-rest in Newport Beach, USC formed a task force to investigate drug testing at the school.

The group, chosen by athletic director Mike McGee, has yet to offer gram.

lem more than a year ago.
"We heard in the fall of '89 that

Todd. And they felt guilty to a to tain extent and wanted to make maware of things that were going on the point of collection by a smill group of athletes. one of our athletes may have cheated on a test — not how it was done," McGee told the Times. "At that point, we put into motion what we thought were some extra precau-

"It actually fit with my suspicion. There were lots of rumors and the seemed to be cause to be suspicion." According to the Times, we among USC football players is the USC's testing procedure was laxar could be beaten. The Times 18 ported that interviews with mor than 15 players indicate that seven ways have been used to beat the tes ing since the program was started:

Most athletes spoke with the Times only on the condition the names not be used. tions that involved, in addition to a technician, a university administra-

One person who spoke on their cord was Brandon Bowlin, a form McGee acknowledged that Mari-USC defensive back. novich's arrest was the impetus to form the task force. That concern

USC started testing all of its all letes in 1985. Initially, 10 percent the athletes failed the test. USC so was echoed by Marvin Cobb, assistant athletic director and the adminonly 2 percent of the athletes to fail drug tests. istrator of USC's drug-testing pro-

Steinbrenner returns to Olympic Committee Rusk High athlete. A tor to be an observer.

brenner, making his public return to the U.S. Olympic Committee, pre-dicted Saturday that the Persian Gulf War would cause a "feeling of tension and uncertainty" at the 1992 Summer Olympics.

"Barcelona has a great city and great people, but it could be a little awkward," the New York Yankees owner said. "Security will have to be Steinbrenner, who stepped back from his Olympic duties for five months because of his baseball problems, predicted a large number of gold medals for the United States in interests of baseball" when he made

"The communist nations won't be ard Spira. able to spend the money they used to on their athletes and it will help us," and it will be interesting to see what he said. "It's different when you happens," said Steinbrenner, who have to pay as you go." happens," said Steinbrenner, who still owns the Yankees even though have to pay as you go."

ing of the USOC board of directors, answered and a lot of truth will come hinted he would be making further out and I'll be vindicated. The media moves against the baseball commissioner's office. will get the truth and we'll see it. "I know that sounds strange coma $40,000 payment to gambler How-

Steinbrenner, speaking during a he is barred from running the team. breakfast interview prior to a meet"There are still a lot of questons to be Steinbrenner gave up control of ing from me, but the press is the the Yankees last Aug. 20 under an clarion of the people. I really didn't agreement with Fay Vincent. The want to put baseball through all of this, but I believe in the system an I'm not bitter.' Steinbrenner last month returns to his USOC post after the inaction

"I believe we will really have " erything going by the time we have the Summer Games in Atlanta 1996," Steinbrenner said. "All of the steinbrenner said." Robert Helmick's programs will in by then.' Steinbrenner said he is pushing cian and cian and the NCAA to help save some the use the nation's track and field process.

"I believe we should take some the money we are spending on for March ties and give it to the NCAA to he "I lost n their programs," Steinbrenner ster really hun "It's not good when you see a schi drop track. I'd like to see it where Olympic athlete could work out college facilities and the USO could help upgrade those facilities with funds.

"I've talked to (NCAA presided Dick Schultz about it and we've got committee going to study it. Wet going to get it done. We don't not build monuments. We need to build monuments. We need to build monuments. build athletes."

Player survives wind, rain and Trevino to win RCC

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — Gary Player overcame a stiff wind, occasional rain and surges by Bob Charles and Lee Trevino to win the Royal Caribbean Classic by two shots with a 3-under-par 68 Sunday.

Player, who began the day with a two-stroke lead, set a tournament record with his total of 13-under 200. He collected $67,500 for his 16th Senior Tour title

Despite the inclement weather, Trevino and Charles each shot a closing 66. They shared second place with Chi Chi Rodriguez at 11 under par.

Charles birdied six of the first 12 holes to briefly forge a tie at 12-under. Player then dropped short birdie putts at the 11th and 14th holes, and Charles missed a 3-foot putt to bogey No. 15 and fall three shots be-Trevino, who rallied from five shots back with three holes left to win last year's tournament, posted continuitive birdies on holes 14 through 16. But he could no closer than two strokes.

Player's score on the Links at Key Biscayne broken record of 202 set by Lee Elder in 1988, the second of the tournament. The $460,000 tournament is first full-field event of the senior season.

Player birdied the first two holes and made and birdie at No. 5 with a 45-foot putt from the fringe fell to 12 under when he bogeyed No. 9 after driv into mangroves that line the fairway.

Rodriguez, who began the day in second place, several chances to gain on Player. But Rodriguessed birdie putts of 4 feet at the first and sixth was never closer than two shots and came in with a second place.

"I had one student last semester who 4711'd in my class."

-Anonymous philosophy professor

A STIMULATING EXPERIENCE.

(If you've never 4711'd, come to JCPenney and learn how. While supplies last, get a free T-shirt with any 4711 purchase.)

Hundreds and Hundreds of EKUSA One of the largest inventories of Trek Bicycles

3122 S. Texas

Close-Out Models Save $50-$200

We have a Trek Bike and Price that's right for you!

Mond

Boris Stich rec Becke , 4-6, 6tie at Stich the (7-4), 6-1 Germa ime sin gentina i Secon vhile, co ium in ur com with sing berg, the beat Edu ind Mas 2. Both r to three the matcl United S France, v reschedu Six zor

Bahrain-

Syria, Sir.

group, ar ria-Ivory

a-Saudi

Yugosl tory over goslavia RUSK

ld to cha

McGow

at an ago

When I and him. ried, and boxing c obligation

long time go for it, ju I wanted t to the ring

ages die, fi Le Righth

Messick, J Harrison

Johnson

and death

all the ti

out of the was the sta season, ha tience as him from Witte v spring, be

SAT

32 oz In