LOSE 20 POUNDS IN TWO WEEKS!

Famous U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members used the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way. It's a diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is, honestly, a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $10.00 ($10.50 for Rush Service) - to: SlimQuik, P.O. Box 103, Dept. 2R, Hayden, ID 83835. Don't order unless you want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do. © 1990

Oil companies pull advertising for gasoline

DALLAS (AP) — Big oil companies, some reporting huge profits in the midst of the Persian Gulf War, are struggling to create advertising campaigns that don't remind the public of high prices and other energy issues.

Officials at both Amoco Corp. and Chevron Corp., deciding that little or no profile was the best policy, pulled all of their print and electronic advertising shortly after Iraqi tanks began rolling into Kuwait seven months ago.

"We feel it is inappropriate to be promoting the sale of gasoline at this time," Chevron spokesman Mike Libbey said. "It has to do with the perception — which we think is clearly erroneous — that this war is being fought for Big Oil."

At Phillips Petroleum Co., the strategy involves suspending gasoline-related advertising, but keeping the company's name in ads focusing on other aspects of its business, such as petrochemicals, or civic projects. The company's marketing executives held meetings to discuss their advertising strategy after Iraqi troops invaded Kuwait on Aug. 2 and again when the Gulf War started last month.

HERBERT LEARNS NEVER TO MOUTH-OFF AT THE BOWLING ALLEY.

"Our feeling is that if you stop advertising, there's a vacuum created," Mobil spokesman John Lord told the Dallas Morning News, "and if you don't fill it with your message, someone else will fill it with theirs."

Mobil has continued running its series of "advertorials," which address current petroleum industry issues such as profits and gas prices and also have mentioned issues related to the Persian Gulf conflict.

"We have been responsive to the situation over there" in the Middle East, Lord said.
