Lawyer fights use of alleged murder plan tapes in custody case

Judge will decide relevancy of recordings

HOUSTON (AP) — A judge determining a child custody case said Tuesday he may listen to tape recordings of a mother allegedly attempting to hire a hitman to kill the mother of her daughter's cheerleading rival.

Assistant District Attorney Bill Delmore objected on grounds that the tapes are not relevant to the custody issue and they should be restricted to the criminal case against Wanda Webb Holloway.

State District Judge Henry Schuble is presiding in a custody case between Tony Harper and Mrs. Holloway over their two children, Shanna Harper, 13, and Anthony Harper, 17.

Mrs. Holloway, 37, was arrested Jan. 30 after Tony Harper's brother, Terry, contacted police about the alleged plot to kill Verna Heath.

Mrs. Holloway is to be tried in June on a charge of soliciting capital murder. She has been freed on $10,000 bond.
