A&M tracksters place well in CSR

Young runners provide spark

By Steve O'Brien

If Saturday's performance is any indication, the Texas A&M track team has a bright future.

Individual performances from young A&M tracksters marked the College Station Relays this weekend at the Frank Anderson Track and Field Complex.

Leading the Aggies were freshman javelin thrower Amy Pratt and sophomore hurdler Rick Smith.

Pratt won the women's javelin with a school-record throw of 152 feet, 4 inches and freshman Amy Paulsen placed third in the event with a toss of 136-2. Pratt's record setting throw qualifies her for the NCAA championships.

In the men's division, Smith came in second place in the 400-meter hurdles behind Baylor's Kevin Walker with a time of 51.66 seconds. Walker's winning time was 51.38.

Smith's time was a personal best.

"I was hoping I'd run a 51 this week," Smith said. "We've been off for three weeks with rain-outs. This makes it a lot more fun."

A&M head coach Ted Nelson was happy with the performance of his young athletes.

"We got a lot of young guys a lot of experience today," Nelson said. "We got disqualified in the 4x100 relay. They haven't run together this year, but I thought they ran well."

Also for the men, senior Kary Vincent placed second in the 100 meter dash with a time of 10.54 behind Ron Clark (10.44) of Stephen F. Austin.

A&M sophomore Mike Miller won the 800 meter with a time of 1:52.80. Mike Hawk of Stephen F. Austin placed second with a time of 1:53.37.

Aggie junior Ricky Barker qualified for the NCAA's with a victory in the decathlon.

And A&M freshman Lee Pool won the high jump with a leap of 7-0 3/4.

Other second-place finishers for the A&M men were Danny Signorelli in the pole vault (16-9 1/2), Steve Collier in the 400 meter hurdles (51.66) and Nic Poland in the 110 meter hurdles (14.08).

For the women, Gwen Buck won the high jump event with a leap of 5-8 and Sandra Hines of A&M came in second behind Buck with a jump of 5-8.

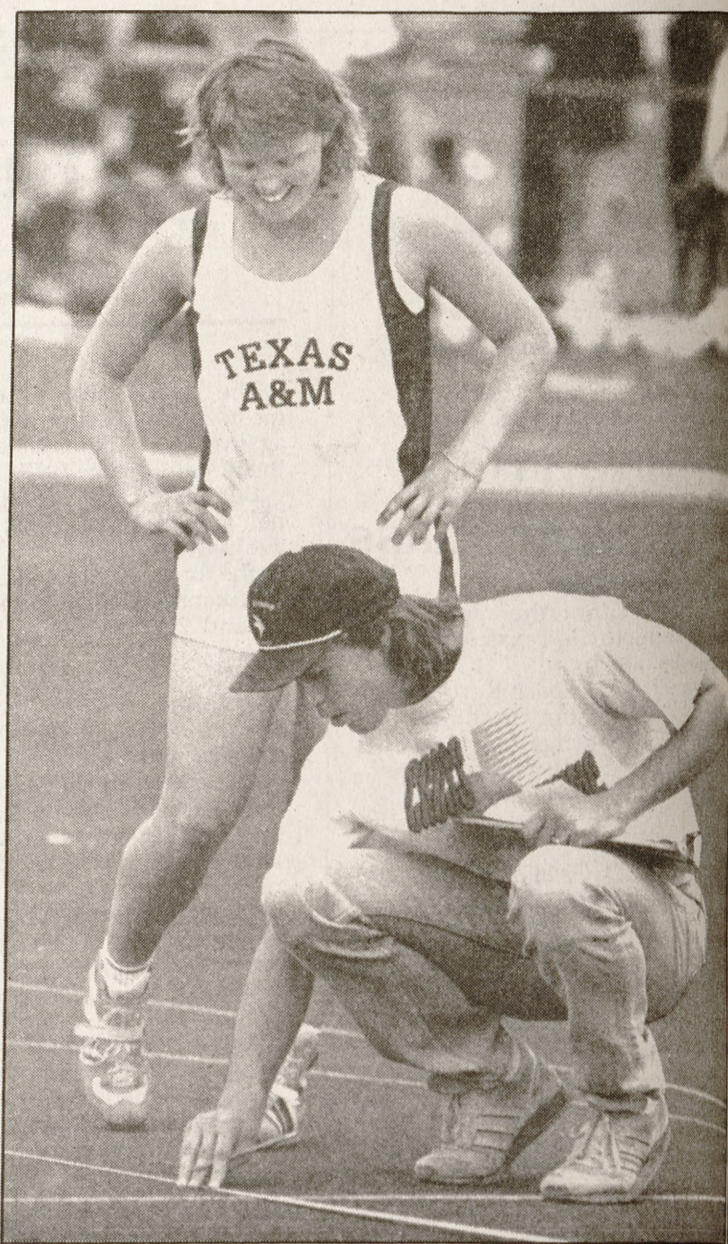

In the 5000, A&M's Melissa Weaver came in first with a time of 17:15.45. Helen O'Sullivan of Angelo State came in second at 18:06.19

Lady Aggie Michelle Byrne placed second in the 3200 with a time of 9:57.77.

Also placing second for A&M were Kalleen Madden in the 100 meter hurdles (14.48) and Kasandra McDaniel in the 400 meter dash (56.19).

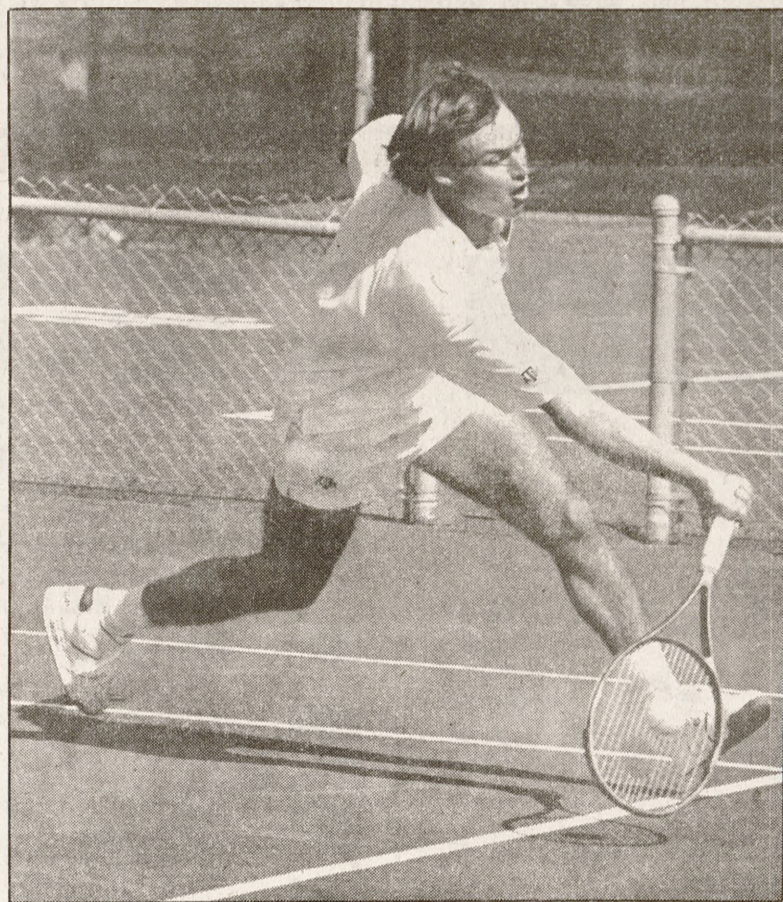

The women's 4x100 relay took first place and the 4x400 team placed second.

The Aggies travel to Southwest Louisiana this week for a meet and won't return home until April 13 for the Aggie Invitational.

A&M freshman javelin thrower Amy Pratt smiles as she sees her score of 152 feet, 4 inches, at the College Station relays Saturdays. The throw set a new school record.

Aggie netters survive long match, UNM scare

A&M freshman netter Clayton Johnson goes for a drop shot in his singles match Sunday against New Mexico at the Omar Smith Tennis Center.

From Staff and Wire Reports

The Texas A&M tennis team took a hard-fought 5-4 decision from New Mexico Sunday at the Omar Smith Tennis Center.

The Aggies' doubles team of Doug Brown and Steve Kennedy staved off three match points in the dual match's final and clinching match, but pulled out a 3-6, 7-6, 6-0 win. Brown/Kennedy's match finally ended at 7 p.m., five and a half hours after it began.

Coach David Kent had nothing but praise for the doubles' tandem.

"I've been coaching for 33 years and I haven't seen a better comeback than Doug and Steve had here today," Kent said. "We could live a lifetime and never see another match like that."
