

Junior Yell Leader

Patricia Hollis
Math

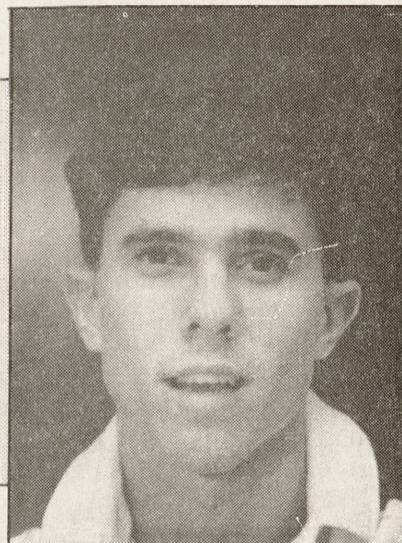

Nothing Is Impossible
The future is yours. It belongs to you.
And with faith in God and yourself too,
No hills too high, no mountains too tall
For with faith in the Lord, you can conquer them all.
And all that you wish for
That is honest and true
The Lord will certainly give it to you.
Not always the way you must desire
But always He gives what you must require.
So accept what he sends,
be it "bitter or sweet"
For God knows best, what makes life complete.
And great in your gladness
And rich in your reward
When you learn to accept the will of the Lord
Nothing Is Impossible.

Support A&M in becoming a world class institution.
Vote Patricia Hollis - Jr. Yell Leader: #1 on the ballot. ✓

Tim Isgitt
Political Science

Howdy Ags!
My name is Tim Isgitt. I'm a sophomore, political science major from Humble, and I'm running for Jr. Yell Leader. Two of the most outstanding qualities of A&M are spirit and tradition. As important as these traits are to Aggieland, it is equally important that we elect Yell Leaders that will support the Twelfth Man and uphold our spirit and traditions with integrity. Elect me, and you will be getting one motivated yell leader dedicated to doing just that.
Remember, on March 27 and 28, number 2 on your ballot: TIM ISGITT IS IT for Jr. YELL.

Danny Hinde
Electrical Engineering

I'm the FIRST Aggie ever in my family. All my parents, aunts, and uncles went to those northern, Ivy League-type schools, and I wanted to keep up our family tradition of going to great, World Class Universities, so I came to A&M! I'll say right now that it's been the best decision I've ever made!! This school's given me some of the best times I have ever, or will ever, have, and I really want to lead the way in returning the favor and pumpin' up that 100% pure Fightin' Texas Aggie Spirit and motivatin' the HELL out of the 12th Man!!!!
So remember: vote DANNY HINDE FOR Jr. YELL.
p.s. #3 on the ballot.

Rob Cody
Accounting

Howdy Ags! My name is Rob Cody, and I would be honored to lead the Twelfth Man and represent you next year as Junior Yell Leader. I'm an accounting major from Sulphur Springs, and a proud member of the Aggie Men's Club.

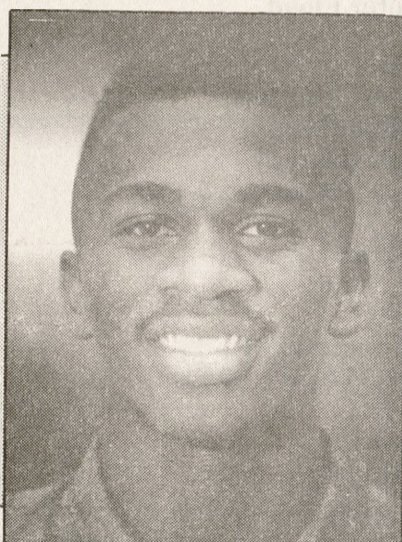

Being an Aggie Yell Leader has been a long-time dream of mine, and I'm looking forward to upholding the spirit and traditions of Aggieland. I want to give you every ounce of energy and enthusiasm that I have, so that everyone can see and understand what A&M is all about. My candidacy for Jr. Yell was decided by my love and dedication to Texas A&M, and I want to serve this University with a high standard of integrity and character.

Look for Rob Cody on March 27 and 28, and give me the opportunity to make my contribution in keeping Aggie Spirit and Traditions Alive! GIG 'EM! ✓

Adin Pfeuffer
Industrial Distribution

Howdy! My name is Adin Pfeuffer, and I am running for Junior Yell Leader. I'm a sophomore Industrial Distribution major from Glen Rose, and a member of the Corps of Cadets. I came to Texas A&M because of the many traditions and the spirit of the student body. Yell Leaders have the responsibility of keeping these traditions alive and supporting the Twelfth Man. I would be honored to represent A&M in this position, and remember I'm number 5 on the ballot.

Ronnie McDonald
Political Science

Howdy Ags! My name's Ronnie McDonald, a political science major from Bastrop. I'm here to incite, excite, unite, and motivate the masses of Texas A&M University.

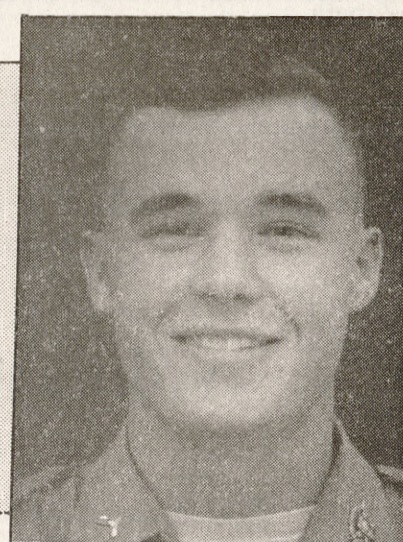

A&M was founded in 1876, and since then, has become a world-class university of over 40,000 multi-cultural and diverse people.

Texas A&M should resemble a rainbow. When one sees a rainbow, one doesn't see just one color, but an accumulation of colors, blending to enhance the beauty of that rainbow.

So when one looks at A&M, one doesn't see just one group, but one sees the Corps, fraternities, sororities, and many different social, religious and minority groups, all of which come together to form the Spirit of Aggieland.

Vote for the man who's going to motivate the masses: Ronnie McDonald, for Junior Yell Leader.

Ronnie McDonald and the 12th Man.
Over 40,000 motivated! ✓

Gray Schroeder
Psychology

Howdy! My name is Gray Schroeder. I'm a sophomore psychology major from Austin (But don't hold that against me!!). I'm a member of the Corps of Cadets and I would like to represent you as Jr. Yell Leader.

Non-regs, fraternities, sororities, Corps, and former students, we're all part of the 12th Man! As Jr. Yell leader it would be my job to keep the 12th Man spirited and united by upholding the Aggie traditions that make A&M so special. Gig'em! ✓
