

Cowboys could use speedster

Patriots have to offer. Sure Dallas needs a big offensive lineman, but they should only have to give up the 11th and 12th picks to move up. That would leave the last pick to start building a solid offensive line to surround Aikman, Smith, Wright and possibly Ismail. Of course this is just the opinion of a diehard Cowboys fan. One of many fans who suffered greatly through the 1-15 debacle that was the 1989 season and rejoiced last season as the new-look Dallas team exhibited some of that old last-minute magic.

Signing someone with the marketability and the athletic ability of the Rocket would be one of the last cogs Cowboy head coach Jimmy Johnson would need to get Dallas rolling toward a playoff berth in 1991.

If the Cowboys do trade up and choose to bypass Ismail, there are other viable candidates that would fit in quite well.

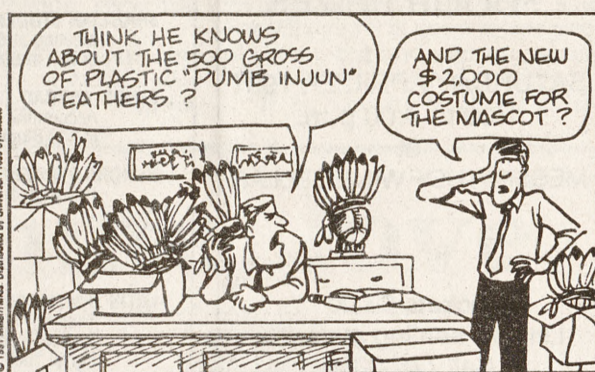

The defensive line still needs a big time pass-rusher. Either Miami's Russell Maryland, Colorado's Kanavis McGhee or Mississippi's Kelvin Pritchett could do the job.

However, if the Cowboys pass up on a chance to take Ismail, they will forever be second-guessed. Much in the same way they are still hounded for not taking Miami's Dan Marino a few years ago.

Rockets eliminated

HOUSTON (AP) — Terry Cummings had 21 points and San Antonio survived Sleepy Floyd's fourth-quarter scoring barrage for a 102-95 victory over Houston on Thursday night, eliminating the Rockets from the Midwest Division title race.

The Rockets trail the first-place Spurs by three games with two games left in the regular season.

Floyd scored 12 points in a 2:45 span of the fourth quarter as Houston cut San Antonio's lead to 90-86 with 5:14 left in the game, but the Spurs held on. The closest the Rockets got was a 94-91 deficit with 2:24 to go on a free throw by Hakeem Olajuwon.

San Antonio's four other starters also scored in double figures. Rod Strickland had 14 points and 10 assists while center David Robinson had 18 points and 8 rebounds despite getting in early foul trouble. Sean Elliott had 17 points and Willie Anderson added 16.

Floyd scored 19 points, Vernon Maxwell had 18 and Olajuwon had 19 points and 14 rebounds.

San Antonio took a 57-47 half-time lead although Robinson picked up his third foul 59 seconds into the second quarter and spent the rest of the half on the bench.

The Spurs withstood four consecutive 3-pointers by the Rockets in the third quarter that cut their lead to 66-60 with 6:03 left in the period and built a 76-66 lead going into the final quarter.

Robinson completed a three-point play with 6:15 to go in the first quarter to give the Spurs a 17-14 lead and they did not trail again.

Chisox drubbed in new home

CHICAGO (AP) — Maybe the Chicago White Sox should have stayed in the old Comiskey Park.

Detroit's Rob Deer hit two home runs and Cecil Fielder and Tony Phillips added one homer each as the White Sox opened the $135 million new Comiskey with a 16-0 rout at the hands of the Detroit Tigers.

Jack McDowell, who won the final game at the old Comiskey last Sept. 30, was shelled for six runs in the third inning.
