Astros edge Reds

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros snapped a streak of 31 consecutive scoreless innings with two runs in the ninth off Cincinnati reliever Randy Myers to beat the Reds 2-1 Monday night.

After Norm Charlton and Myers had shut out the Astros through eight innings, Ken Caminiti singled, pinch-hitter Mark Davidson walked and Luis Gonzalez singled in the tying run.

Myers (0-1) walked Casey Candaele on four pitches before Karl Rhodes drove a single to right field, scoring Davidson.

Cardinals 3, Cubs 2
ST. LOUIS — Felix Jose hit a two-run homer off Dave Smith with one out in ninth inning.

Dave Smith (0-2) walked Pedro Guerrero. Jose followed with a home run, giving Smith his third blown save in seven opportunities.

Twins 3, Athletics 2
MINNEAPOLIS — The Oakland Athletics lost their fifth consecutive game for the first time in three seasons as Greg Gagne hit a go-ahead single in the eighth inning after a Chuck Knoblauch single.

Tigers 10, Yankees 5
NEW YORK — Cecil Fielder blooped a two-run double to break a ninth-inning tie and Rob Deer then added a three-run homer.

Red Sox 6, Blue Jays 4
BOSTON — Tom Brunansky and Wade Boggs hit two-run homers and Ellis Burks added a solo home run.

Indians 10, Royals 4
CLEVELAND — Rookie Charles Nagy pitched six perfect innings. Nagy (1-1) was perfect until Jim Eisenreich led off the seventh with a double.

White Sox 8, Orioles 7
CHICAGO — Frank Thomas hit the first home run for the White Sox in the new Comiskey Park to beat Ben McDonald.

McDonald made his first appearance after opening the season on the disabled list with a strained muscle in his right elbow.

Slocum scrapped wrong team

EDITOR:

It seems to me that coach Slocum forgot one of the best-known rules of sports: "It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game."

The Texas A&M 12th Man Kickoff Team played well, and gave it their best. I know that I'm not alone when I say that I will feel an emptiness next fall when the regular team kicks off rather than the 12th Man.

Coach Slocum says that having two kickoff teams is inefficient, I agree, but he got rid of the wrong one!

I'll miss that special moment when 10 crazy guys come jumping out on the field waving those towels. But hey, we'll win, won't we?

I'd rather lose.

Aggie baseball program shines with sweep

the job is not done, yet. The Ags still must avoid their worst enemies all season: inconsistency in pitching and untimely hitting slumps.

The A&M team that made UT fans cry all the way back to Austin is the same team that lost a slugfest to Sam Houston State last week after having a nine-run lead.

And the A&M team that swept an anemic Rice squad was swept the weekend before by Baylor's power show.

But Texas saw the raw potential A&M can muster when its bats and arms are clicking simultaneously.

The Aggies outthusted, outpitched and outhit the Longhorns to take all three games.

But let's not forget another of the main reasons the Ags are where they are today.

The Olsen Field Rowdies. It was not good to be Longhorn Calvin Murray this past weekend.

The brother of former Aggie quarterback Kevin Murray,

Calvin chose to attend UT over A&M. And it only took one baserunning error to start the crowd chanting, "Traitor, traitor."

His play was seemingly affected by it, he couldn't get a handle on Billy Harlan's double in left field and looked generally out of synch all weekend.

And poor Kyle Moody had to listen to the crowd chant, "One PMS, Two PMS," whenever he took warmup cuts at the plate.

His last name gives that away. The fans are definitely some of the most enthusiastic, boisterous and intimidating in the country for college baseball.

The A&M baseball team benefits greatly from the spirit that comes from a long-standing tradition of togetherness and Aggie fan harmony.

The only thing better than this weekend's fan support would be if the Ags could pull a good crowd for the SWC tournament, which will be held here May 16-18, after school ends.

With faithful fans behind them, the Ags may be headed for a trip to Omaha this May.

1990-91 UNIVERSITY UNDERGRADUATE FELLOWS SYMPOSIUM PRESENTATIONS
The University Undergraduate Fellows Program is the capstone of the Honors curriculum at Texas A&M. This program is the most prestigious research opportunity available for undergraduates at the University featuring a close, master-apprentice relationship between student researcher and faculty advisor.
Shortly after Fellows submit their completed Senior Honors Theses, they are invited to make formal oral presentations of their completed research at the annual University Undergraduate Fellows Symposium. This year the Fellows have been divided into ten groups of students pursuing research in related areas. Each group will conduct a separate Symposium session on the fourth floor of Rudder Tower according to the following schedule:

Tuesday, April 23rd, 7:00 p.m.: Aerospace &amp; Mechanical Engineering Sciences Kelley Albrecht Fred Davis	Benny Budiman Laurie Wittig	Thursday, April 25th, 7:00 p.m.: Biological Sciences Robert Garza Eric McIntush Ann Underwood	Stacy Hayes Lisa Pawloski Victoria Valadez
Biochemical Sciences Charles Foulds Michael Moore Felix Vajdos	Robert Greve Uma Shah	Electrical &amp; Computer Engineering Sciences Casey Harl Eric Trenk Stephen Williams
Humanities Renee Bailey Laura Floyd Monica Kim	Andrew Burke Debra Johnson Susan Parker	History Russell Acker Bryan Dickens Ann Marie Cotman Hicks Helen Kim	Ty Clevenger Anne Edwards
Psychology Danielle Devine Karen Hunt Vincent Smith	Todd Honeycutt Kristie Scrutchfield	Physical Sciences Bunker Hill Charles Phipps	Viren Kapadia Michael Taylor
Social Sciences Cynthia Madison DeCoursin Candice Freeman Emmanuel Schweikert Mary Walters	Denise Nance Randolph Stevenson	Psychology Andrea Allen Clare Redig	Keven Chen Laurie Shebilke

A reception honoring the 1990-91 University Undergraduate Fellows will be held on the second floor of Rudder Tower at 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, April 23rd. Faculty, students, and other members of the University community are invited to attend the reception and any of the Symposium sessions to learn more about what some of Texas A&M University's most successful, confident, and motivated undergraduates have been able to achieve. Should you have any questions, please contact Ms. Julie Cowley, Program Coordinator in the University Honors Program, 845-1957.
