Test Your Knowledge!

Who Is This Man?

A. Rode across Asia on a tricycle.
B. First magician to successfully saw a woman in half.
C. Winner of 1886 Ulysses S. Grant look-alike contest.
D. Developed rotary dial telephone and automatic switchboard.

If you answered "D," move to the head of the class! Because the man pictured above is Lars Magnus Ericsson, who was working the kinks out of the telephone in Sweden at the same time Alexander Graham Bell was developing the telephone in the U.S. Ericsson went on to found one of the world's largest telecommunications companies, Ericsson Network Systems, now with offices in over 70 countries worldwide.

If you're about to graduate with a technical degree in Computer Science, Electrical Engineering, Telecommunications or a related field, you owe it to yourself to explore a career with Ericsson. We can offer you a world of challenge and international prestige. A world that lets you be a real part of Ericsson's success.

Soviets

deputy White House press secretary Roman Popadiuk.

The new Soviet defense minister, Gen. Yevgeny Shaposhnikov, told a news conference on Tuesday that the country's nuclear weapons are under secure control.

Shaposhnikov also said he would hold talks with representatives of all republics on the status of Soviet troops on their territory.

Congress agreed on Tuesday to move toward a market economy, including the right to own property, and passed a sweeping human rights declaration.

The human rights declaration promises freedom of speech, press, ideology, religion, assembly, life, health and security, also bars censorship and promotes protection for ethnic minorities.

The controlled breakup is supposed to bring more freedom and quicker economic reform. Some republics may use the escape from Kremlin control to back Gorbachev's reforms and revert to a strong dictatorship.

Reformist legislators said it could happen in Uzbekistan where the Communist Party controls the press, the government and the economy.

"I will not yield the microphone to anyone from the floor!" he said as some deputies tried to speak. "Either make a decision or not. That's all!"

After Wednesday's session, Gorbachev sent lawmakers into caucuses, where they were subjected to arm-twisting by republican leaders who had helped put together the plan.

The Congress endorsed the plan by a lopsided 1,682-43 vote. When the tally came up, Gorbachev nodded and clapped, and Russian President Boris Yeltsin, seated next to him, smiled broadly.

The plan was fashioned by Gorbachev and the leaders of 10 republics - including Yeltsin, who emerged as his governing partner after leading nationwide resistance to last month's abortive coup.

"We've said all along, as long as they continue on the reform path in both economics and politics, as long as they arrive at decisions in a peaceful manner that's mutually acceptable to the center and the republics, the final outcome is something that they have to decide for themselves," said

Writing down the facts of time, when possible, will spare you to make better use of time you spend with your doctor.

During the examination, not be afraid to mention all of symptoms, and do not hesitate to ask your physician questions about the examination or diagnosis.

The doctor will be able to help you with an accurate diagnosis with an accurate diagnosis with tests or consultations might be advised.

Also during your examination your physician will check to see if your immunization requirements are up-to-date. A&M requirements are:

- * Tetanus (within the last 5 years)
- * Diphtheria (within the last 5 years)
- * Polio series (not required if you are 4 years old or older)
- * Measles (two doses)
- * Mumps (at least one dose)
- * Rubella (at least one dose)
- * Mantoux tuberculosis skin test (required for all students from outside the United States, except Canadians).

All these immunizations are available at the health center. If you do not comply with these requirements, you will be blocked from registering for classes.

Finally, follow your doctor's instructions. Your recovery depends on how you take care of yourself after your visit.

Take all of the medication prescribed and call your physician if you have any additional questions about your treatment.
