Rec Fitness

"Just for the Health of It"

Rec Fitness, sponsored by the Department of Recreational Sports, is a program to encourage the TAMU campus population to become more seriously involved in fitness activities. The weekly fitness tally is designed to produce a weekly participation commitment from the individuals involved.

As an added incentive, the Department of Recreational Sports will hand out awards at certain times when the appropriate number of points have been achieved. Such goodies include: koozies, water bottles, T-shirts, sweat shirts and collared shirts.

For more information about this FREE program, please call James Welford at 845-3074 or come to 159 Read Building.
