Home sweet home

A&M undefeated at the Coliseum

By Doug Foster
The Battalion

There's no place like home for Lynn Hickey and the Lady Aggies.

Texas A&M took advantage of four quick turnovers Saturday night and jumped out to an early 8-0 lead over Baylor University at G. Rollie White Coliseum. A&M never trailed on its way to a 73-64 victory, maintaining a 6-0 record at home this season.

The victory moved the Lady Aggies overall record to 11-5, 3-0 in Southwest Conference play. It also marks the first time A&M has been 3-0 in the SWC since 1986.

A&M will take a five-game winning streak to Austin tonight when they take on the University of Texas at 7 p.m. in the Erwin Center.

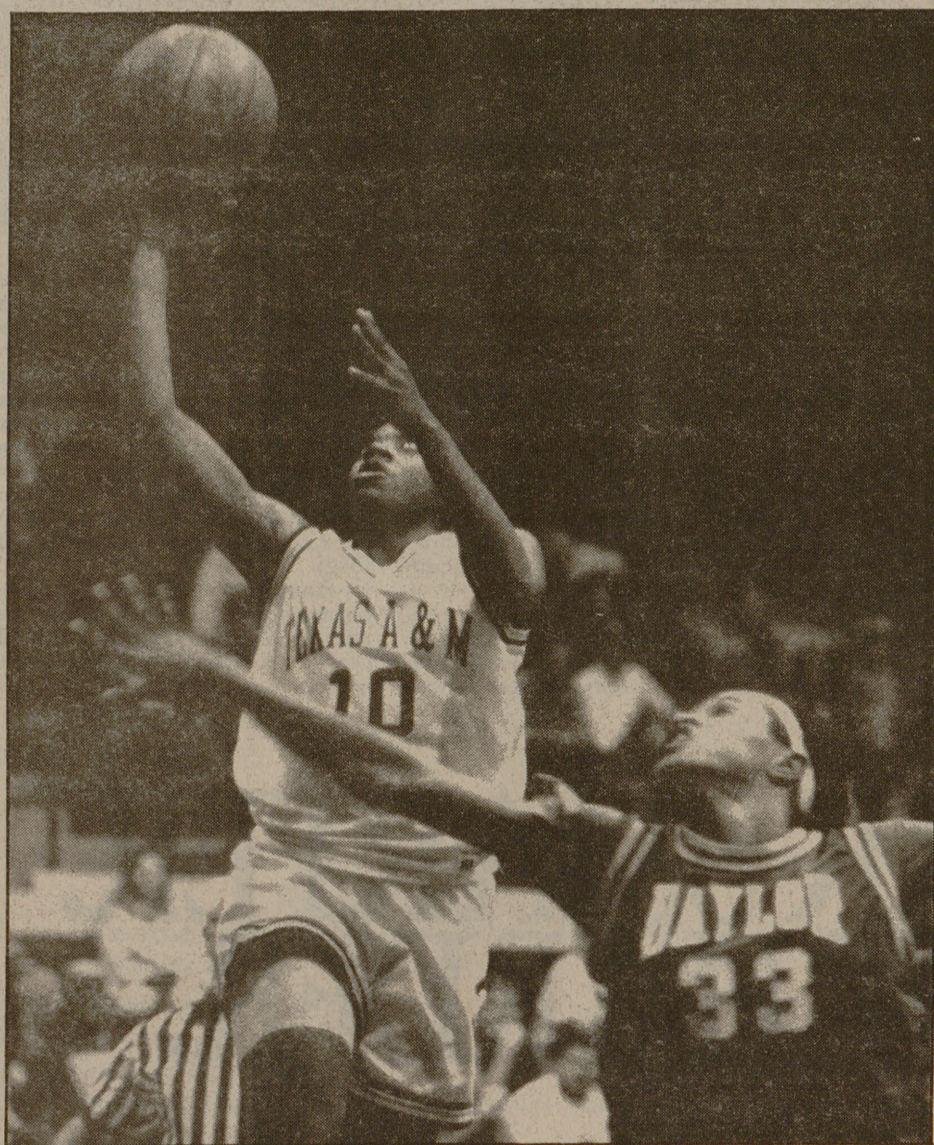

The Lady Aggies held the eight point lead most of the way through the first half, and even opened it up to a 24-12 lead with 12:28 to play before Baylor started a late first half run. The Bears cut the lead to two points late in the half before A&M moved back out to a 42-37 halftime lead.

Baylor cut the lead to 53-52 early in the second half, but after two free throws and a layup by junior Yolanda Brown, the Bears never seriously threatened again. Brown and senior Dena Russo finished the game as A&M's leading scorers, both putting in 18 points.

Russo said one of the keys to the victory was A&M's ability to take the ball inside to Brown in the second half.

"We concentrated on going inside on them, and she (Brown) came out in the second half ready to play and she did a really good job," Russo said.

Richardson helps West to 14-6 win

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Bucky Richardson of Texas A&M threw a touchdown pass to Kansas State's Michael Smith to lead the West to a 14-6 victory Sunday in the East-West Shrine Game.

The West took a 14-0 lead when Richardson hit Smith, Kansas State's career leader in receptions, yardage and touchdown catches, on a post pattern down the right side for a 24-yard TD with 9:54 left in the half.

California's Mike Pawlawski, named the game's top offensive player, gave the West a 7-0 lead with a 1-yard touchdown run that finished off a game-opening 15-play, 77-yard drive with 5:38 left in the first quarter.

Pawlawski, the Most Valuable Player in Cal's 37-13 victory over Clemson in the Citrus Bowl, faked a handoff into the line, spun and rolled left, deked New Hampshire linebacker Dwayne Sabb into the air with a pump fake, then beat two defenders into the left corner of the end zone.

Klaus Wilmsmeyer, who made 22 of 30 field goals in four years at Louisville, pulled the East within 14-3 with a 31-yard field goal with 1:13 left in the half. Wilmsmeyer's 22-yard field goal with 2:44 left in the third quarter made it 14-6.

Dana Hall of Washington, Tyrone Leggett of Nebraska and Matt Darby of UCLA intercepted passes for the West. Erick Anderson of Michigan and Tim Simpson of Illinois recovered fumbles for the East.

Hall was named the defensive player of the game.
