THE BASEBALL AGS ARE AT THE OSCAR MAYER BASEBALL CLASSIC IN THE MINNESOTA METRODOME

Haskins wins 600th; UTEP edges Wyoming, 73-72

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — Texas El-Paso coach Don Haskins says his 600th career victory means little to him.

"You stay around long enough and that's going to happen," said Haskins, who's guided the UTEP program since the 1961-62 season. "The reason that happened is I've been very lucky over the years. I've had great assistants and I've had great players, or that doesn't happen."

"The 600th win tonight doesn't mean much to me because our guys have tried hard all year. They worked hard together, practiced hard and were trying to win the Western Athletic Conference and that's what's important."

Haskins became just the 12th coach in NCAA Division I history to reach the 600-win plateau, doing so with only 261 losses, as the Miners (21-5, 10-4 in the WAC) defeated Wyoming 73-72 Thursday night.

"It was a great win for Don, and I kind of forget about it after the game," said Wyoming coach Benny Dees. "I was so down about losing and forgot to give him the game ball."

Dees had fewer kind words about his own Cowboys (14-12, 6-8).

"I can't tell you how frustrated I am," Dees said. "We've played as sluggish tonight as we ever had, with no enthusiasm, no alertness, no sharpness. I've got no answers."

"I'm not sure we deserved to be as close as we were at the end of the game. When we were close, the shot selection was bad," he said.

Wyoming trailed for almost the entire game, but rallied to 61-59 with 4:23 left after two Maurice Alexander 3-pointers. Dees then committed a technical. The foul shot and a free turnover gave the Miners a 66-61 lead with 1:23 left.

Free throws down the stretch helped UTEP escape with a win despite a 3-point display by Wyoming's Tim Breaux.

Spurs stop Warriors

Robinson's 24 boards pound Golden State

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — David Robinson scored 37 points and matched his career high with 24 rebounds as San Antonio beat Golden State 124-103 Thursday night.

It was only the Warriors' second loss since the All-Star break.

Terry Cummings added 23 points and Donald Royal had a season-high 16 for San Antonio.

The Warriors, who had shot over 60 percent from the field on the first three games of their road trip, finished Thursday night at 46 percent. Chris Mullin led Golden State with 28 points, while Billy Owens had 20.

It was Robinson's third 20-rebound game this season and the eighth in his career. He also had five blocked shots and three steals.

Golden State led 72-70 with 3:23 left in the third quarter, but Royal triggered a 14-4 run that gave San Antonio an 84-76 lead going into the final period.

The Spurs put the game out of reach with a 16-3 fourth-quarter run that gave them a 122-99 lead with 1:25 remaining.

Robinson's 20-point, 10-rebound first half helped the Spurs take a 56-53 lead.

The Warriors played without guard Sarunas Marciulionis, who bruised his right thigh against Houston on Wednesday. He had averaged 21 points in three games against San Antonio this season.

Aggies play in Minneapolis

there to play, but the unknown is exciting.

Johnson said the A&M team, which is ranked No. 24 in the nation by Baseball America, has the opportunity this weekend to show the country it is for real.

"All of the teams we will be playing are really good teams," he said. "That's one thing no one can accuse us of is not playing tough teams, because we have an outstanding schedule and that could get us some recognition."

"Sometimes I ask myself why in the world we are playing such a tough schedule."

A&M first baseman Conrad Colby, who had three hits in Wednesday's 9-2 win over Sam

Houston State, said he felt the Aggies were solid enough all around to compete with anyone they play.

"We've been doing a real good job defensively, and I think defensively we can hang with all of those teams," Colby said. "We turned five double-plays against Sam Houston, so I think there is no question about our defensive strength."

Colby and second baseman Mike Hickey, who bat third and fourth, combined for five RBI's in Wednesday's win, and both broke out of minor slumps.

"We needed a big offensive performance to get ready for Minnesota," he said. "I think this win was a big lift."

"Mike and I just try to do our share bringing in the runs."

A&M tracksters head to Flagstaff, attempt to qualify for NCAA meet

The Battalion News Services

Texas A&M will send six athletes to the Days Inn Invitational in Flagstaff, Ariz. this weekend to make one more attempt at qualifying for the NCAA Indoor Championships.

A&M has qualified nine athletes in six events for the Championships, which will be held March 13 and 14 in Indianapolis.

The A&M women's team is lead by senior high jumpers Gwen Buck and Sandra Hines.

Buck automatically qualified for the Championships with a foot, 3/4 inch jump, which was the Southwest Conference lead.

Hines has qualified provisionally in the high jump with a 5-foot, 10 1/2 inch jump.

Hurdler Greg Williams broke former teammate Richard Buckner's SWC meet record in the 55-meter hurdles with a time of 7.23 seconds. A week before that, he posted a 7.18 time at the same distance.

Nic Pollard and Richard Murphy will attempt to join Williams and Rosa Baker as part of A&M's hurdle corps going to the NCAA against SMU, three days before the fracture occurred.

"I guess somebody came down real hard on my foot," Johnson said. "It wasn't bothering me because I had a lot of adrenaline going, but after the game I started feeling a little soreness. So I took an X-ray, and on the X-ray, you saw a slight, slight, slight crack, but it was more like a bad bruise."

The team doctors allowed him to play up to his pain tolerance level. Then, in the Texas game, the break occurred as he was driving in the open lane.

"I went up for a layup, and I felt the break because I got shoved in the back and I planted real hard on my left foot," he said. "Then, at halftime I cooled down. I couldn't come back in the second half because it was just too much pain."

Contributing to the team's main goal for Johnson in his first season. He said he realizes that he cannot score 25 points a game right away. He just wants to be able to play Texas again on March 8th.

"If I keep on practicing, keep on making improvements like I am now, and then eventually getting into full practices, I can show coach that I can go (all out), and he'll let me play."

and took precautions. Sure enough, in the second game, the rain pummeled the brave fans who stuck around for both games.

Sometimes rain isn't the problem. It's the cold. Wednesday, after yet another postponement, the Aggies played Sam Houston State. A cold front had blown into town the previous evening which forced temperatures at game time to drop into the 50s.

These schedule makers need to realize it's February. It's still winter. When the winds blow so cold that the flesh on your face turns numb, the first thing that comes to mind is not, "It sure feels like baseball season!"

This weekend, the Aggies will get a break from the weather when they play a tournament in Minneapolis' Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, site of Super Bowl XXsomething. This afternoon, they face Mississippi State, who has yet to play a game.

Either Mississippi State has had a season filled with rainouts or the school didn't bother scheduling a game until the weather was tolerable. If it's the latter, A&M needs to hire Mississippi State's schedule maker.
