

Dallas loses again, 104-95

DALLAS (AP) — The Minnesota Timberwolves haven't had much to celebrate this season. Even a two-game winning streak is a reason for a few smiles and high-fives.

The Timberwolves won their second straight for only the third time this season, knocking off another team near the bottom of the standings, the Dallas Mavericks, 104-95 on Friday night.

"Down the road we know we're going to be better," said Timberwolves forward Tony Campbell, who came off the bench to score 16 points. "But you need to win a game every once in a while to build something for next year. We've been struggling, but we feel we're a better team than we've showed."

Pooh Richardson scored 22 points to lead Minnesota and Thurl Bailey added 19.

Herb Williams paced Dallas with a season-high 26 and Derek Harper contributed 22.

Spurs stop Nuggets, 90-87

Cummings posts 24 as Denver slump hits seven

DENVER (AP) — Terry Cummings scored 24 points as San Antonio handed Denver its seventh straight loss, 90-87 on Sunday.

Denver cut an 11-point deficit to 73-72 at the end of three periods, and then opened the final quarter with a 7-0 run to take a 79-73 lead. But San Antonio countered with an 11-1 burst to take an 84-80 lead with 3:53 remaining.

Reggie Williams' 3-pointer for Denver closed the gap to 84-83 with 3:05 left. After a pair of free throws by each team, Sean Elliott hit a 17-foot jumper to give the Spurs an 88-85 advantage.

Trailing 88-87, Denver rebounded a San Antonio miss and called timeout with 23.9 seconds remaining. But the Nuggets couldn't score.

They tried to inbound the ball with ten seconds left and only two seconds remaining on the shot clock. But Mark Macon couldn't get the ball inbounds in five seconds and the ball went to San Antonio.

After Sidney Green hit two free throws for the Spurs, Denver had a last chance with 4.7 seconds left. But Todd Lichte's attempt to inbound a pass bounced off Elliott as time ran out.

Williams led all scorers with 25 points. Elliott had 18 for the Spurs and Macon scored 17 for Denver.

The Nuggets hit only three of 17 shots in the fourth quarter, while the Spurs made only six of 16.

"We didn't play as well as we are capable, but we still played well enough to win," Cummings said. "Our defense in that fourth quarter is what turned it around for us. We forced a lot of tough shots even though they made some of them."

Simple Gifts

A fantastic musical journey!

presented by
The Brazos Valley Symphony Orchestra
Franz Anton Krager
Music Director

BRAZOS VALLEY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

TUESDAY, APRIL 7th
8:00 p.m. Rudder Auditorium

For ticket information: 845-1234
For general information: 774-BVSS

CONCERT V

featuring
the World Premiere of
CRYSTAL SHIPS
by Peter Lieuwen
Written to commemorate the 1992 Quincentennial of Columbus' journey to the New World
also featuring selected arrangements for
FRANZ ANTON KRAGER, marimbist
&
JAVIER CHAPARRO, violinist
with
LT. COLONEL RAY E. TOLER
(USAF Ret), Director of Bands TAMU, Conducting
and
performing for the first time
as free citizens of Lithuania,
VACLOVAS DAUNORAS, bass
IRENA MILKEVICIUTE, soprano
ROBERTAS BEKIONIS, concert pianist
Selected works from five operas including Gioacchino Rossini's La calunnia
from The Barber of Seville

The Battalion

Fall Editorial Board

The following positions are available:

- Managing editor
- City editor
- Sports editor
- Lifestyles editor
- Opinion editor
- Photo editor
- News editor (2)

Applications available at the front desk in room 013 Reed McDonald

All majors encouraged to apply
Due date: Monday, April 6 at 5 p.m.

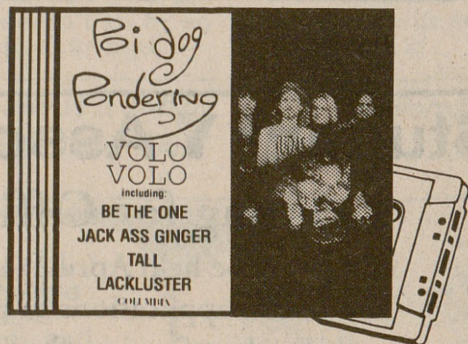

Bi dog Pondering

"Volo Volo"

"Volo Volo"

IN-STORE PERFORMANCE TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 4:00pm
At MAROONED on Northgate

New Release "VOLO VOLO" on Sale

CD $ 11.95

CASS $ 7.97

Poi dog appearing Tuesday evening at the STAFFORD OPERA HOUSE. Tickets available at MAROONED.

Hospitality provided by

CAFE ECCELL
101 Church

marooned
CD's • Tapes • LP's

110 College Main (409) 846-0017
College Station, TX 77840 Fax: (409) 846-3153

106 S. Main St. Phone: 775-4082