Page 4

862-2052

Brazos Valley and the Texas Commission on the Arts.

The Battalion

Martin, Edmiston named Scholar Athletes of the Year

The Battalion News Services

Texas A&M basketball player David Martin and A&M volleyball player Eliza-beth Edmiston recogwere nized as male and female Scholar Athletes of the Year on Monday night. The awards were presented at the Third Annual Texas A&M University Scholar-Athlete Award dinner at the College Station Hilton.

Martin

Martin, a junior biochemistry major from Tyler, is expected to graduate this May. He is a twotime member of the GTE/SWC Academic honor team. He plans to attend medical school.

Martin, a 5-foot-11 guard, played in 27 of the Aggies 28 games last season, averaging 3.4 points per game and handing out 42 assists during that time.

Edmiston, a junior from King-wood, is a three-time member of Conner sails into America's Cup defender finals

SAN DIEGO (AP) - Dennis Conner wasn't about to surrender his title of Mr. America's Cup. Conner masterfully sailed

Stars & Stripes to victory in a sudden-death sail-off over Bill Koch's Kanza on Monday to earn a spot in the defender finals

Conner kept alive his chance to sail in five straight America's Cup finals, leading wire-to-wire to beat Kanza around the eight-leg, 20.03-mile course by 2 minutes, 12 seconds.

Conner's victory also guaranteed that the best-of-13 defender finals, beginning Saturday, will indeed be a battle.

to the All-SWC second team. Tennis player Scott Phillips and basketball player Yvonne Hill were also honored Mon-female Distinguished Lettermen of the Year. awards were presented by Edmiston the A&M Letter-

The

Texas

man's Association. Phillips is undefeated in SWC ay this season and has a career

SWC mark of 21-2. Hill, who graduated in December, was a two-year starter on the A&M women's basketball team. She was an All-SWC team second team selection in 1991.

More than 220 student athletes achieved a grade-point ration of 3.0 or better. Sixteen scholar athletes posted a 4.0 GPR in the 1991

Tuesday, April 14 Tuesd Carnesecca steps down after 24 years at St. John

NEW YORK (AP) - Lou Carnesecca retired as coach of St. John's on Monday, a month before his enshrinement into the Basketball Hall of Fame. The 67-year-old Carnesecca stepped down after 24 seasons at St. John's, a school he took to postseason play each of those years and the only college he ever worked at. "It's going to be very diffi-cult to put the ball down, but the time has come," he said at a packed news conference. "There are two reasons, really. I still have half of my marbles and I still have a wonderful taste in my mouth about basketball. It's a difficult decision, but it's all mine.

Carnesecca jumped into the national spotlight with the cre-ation of the Big East Conference.

His teams led by Chris Mullin and Walter Berry may not have earned him as much notice as did his penchant for sweaters and his ability to run and jump on the sidelines like a man 20 years his junior.

Carnesecca retired with a ca-reer record of 526-200. His teams produced 20-win seas times. St. John's reached t nal Four in 1985 when the East teams advanced to the tional semifinals at Lexing oppor Call 8 Ky. "I thought hard about last couple of weeks. Ih MSC give it serious consideration with attend said. "Hey, I'll still be here figure just going across the street Carnesecca will stay on Erik a assistant to the Presiden AGGI community relations. to dis 301 F

SCO

forme

goals

"We hope Lou will ser our ambassador to New inform SOCI SCIEI

City," said Rev. Donald], rington, the school presiden "Things can't last fore Carnesecca said. "The le will go on and preserve what's alread will go on and prosper. W Because of the players and special relationship the sin have with each other." packe SCAF AND welco for roo Harrington said the top a successor would be deal AMNE Tuesday. meeti

"This is his day and wear want to detract from it in Acade and Ir way," Harrington said. "We have something to say Tue ORCH because we want him to the enjoy this day." meetin

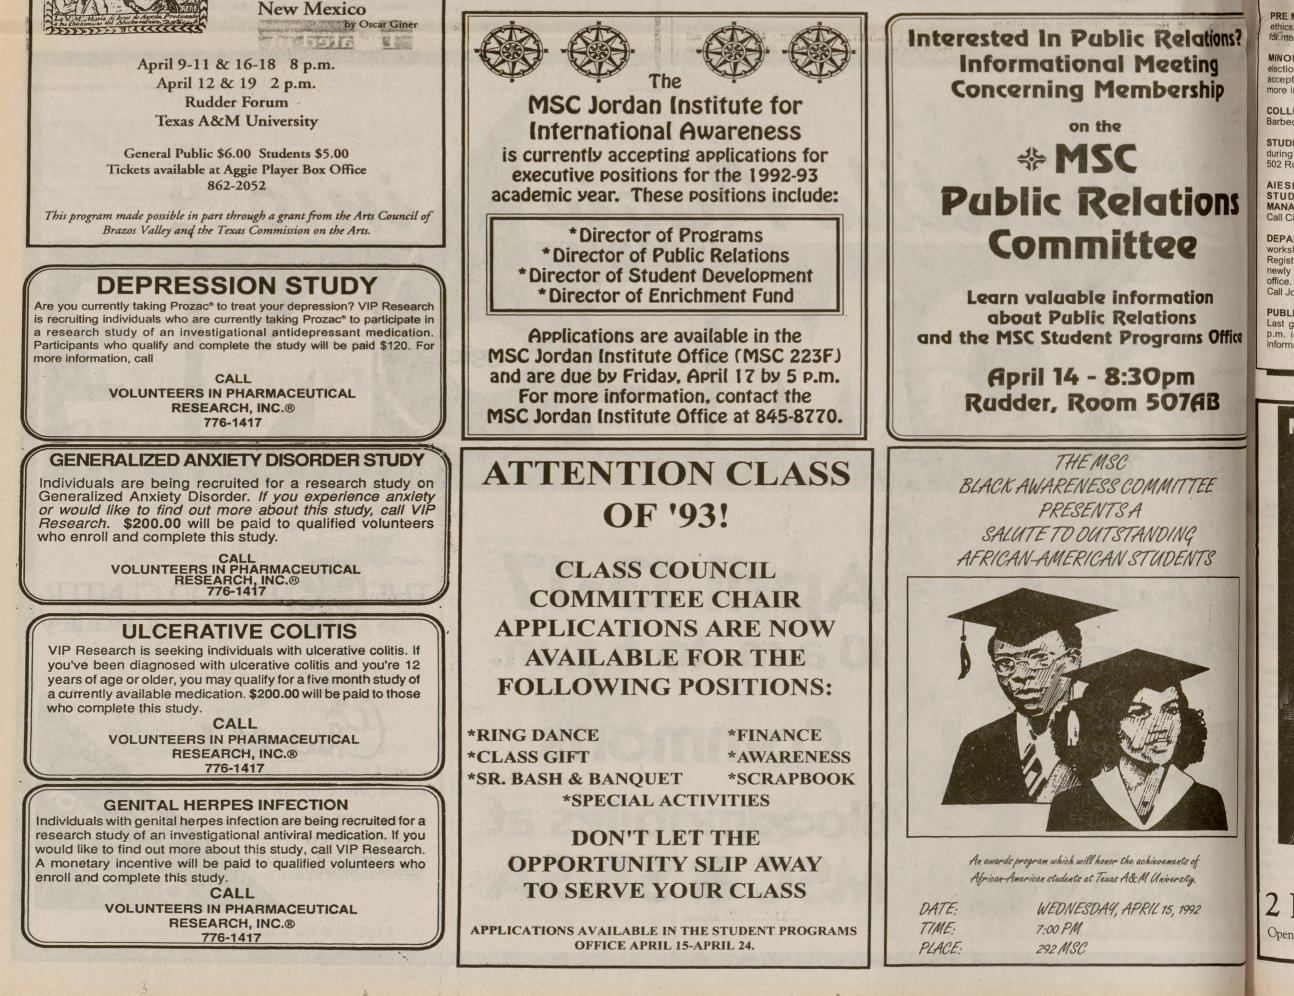

Wayn discu arrang

> TAMU Zoran eons : 847-2

tion, the long, drawn-outsi ule has a chance to redeemin INSTI It gives the Aggies a chancel party a officer make a comeback. A&M, at full strength, can more i make a run at winning 40 ga But, if things continue to go downhill, the Aggies may fin GENE trip inf themselves sitting at homedu A.P. F ing the NCAA tournament.

about the new schedule, the gies may be too worn out to make a run at the conference dent athletes were recognized. O'Brien semesters. Last spring, 179 stu-

Continued from Page 3

win against Texas, Johnson talked about where his team stands

"We'll just keep punching it out until they tell us we can't win this thing," he said. "They did win the series, but they didn't sweep us, so we picked up one which will help when we start looking at regionals.

"Every win we get now is very important for us." But the long schedule alone can't be blamed for A&M's sputtering. Inconsistent pitching and the lack of timely hitting has sent the Aggies looking for answers.

It was injuries that almost knocked the Aggies completely off the SWC map earlier in the season Junior second baseman Mike Hickey, who is one of A&M's best hitters, was out for 21 games with a hand injury. Freshman outfielder Scott Smith, who was leading the team in hitting before he broke a bone in his foot in early March, was out for 17 games.

With two key players injured, the Aggies stumbled through the middle part of their SWC schedule, dropping two games to Bay-lor at Olsen Field and losing two games to Texas Tech in Lubbock. So while the conference title is pretty much out of the ques-

DEPA Hopefully, for the Aggie, bring a season is going to be just long enough for Hickey and Smith 845-1 spark the team to an NCAA playoff birth. TEXA But if all the critics weren meetir for mo TEXA p.m. i inform PROpopco PRE M ethics. for mo MINO electio accept more in COLL Barbeo STUD

works