"Hullabaloo, caneck, caneck... goodbye to Texas University, so long to the orange and the white... Familiar? Well, contrary to popular belief, that's not the first verse of the Aggie War Hymn. But, fear not, Casey Motl wants to teach it to you.

Casey Motl, a senior graduating in August of 1993, is the organizer and president of Aggie Fish Club, a freshman club "committed to the intensification of Aggie spirit and the development of freshman leaders."

Motl felt that non-reg students had begun to water down Aggie traditions and history, so he developed the club last April to rejuvenate tradition, history and Old Army spirit. Motl, who has never been in the Corps, feels that non-reg students need to be spirited too.

"You don't have to be in the Corps to be spirited," Motl said. "Anybody can be a red-ass Aggie."

In Fish Club meetings, Motl along with faculty and other upper-class student leaders, hope to teach freshmen the history of A&M and renew the respect for Aggie traditions and symbols.

"It is important for the students to know the history of A&M," Motl said. "It has made A&M what it is today."

In addition to teaching the first verse of the war hymn, Motl says he wants to revitalize the "Howdy" greeting, reduce alcohol consumption at Bonfire, and dispel Aggie tradition "myths," such as the dunking of senior rings. Motl feels that dunking rings is an act of disrespect toward an Aggie symbol.

"That is a recent tradition, it was not done in the past," Motl said. "Dunking the Aggie ring is It's also hard to believe that you get free software when you buy HP 48 calculators.

There's a lot more than a great calculator waiting for you when you purchase an HP 48SX or an HP 48S between June 1, 1992, and October 31, 1992. You'll get a bonus book that's good for free software, a free PC link cable and hundreds of dollars back on applications—like electrical and mechanical engineering—memory cards, training tools, games, and HP's infrared printer.

It's a really big offer. Worth more than $500. And it's going to make your HP 48 calculator even more valuable to you. The free serial cable lets you exchange information with your PC. And the free software disk lets you enter and plot equations easily, do 3D plotting, and analyze polynomials.

Beyond all the bonuses, you'll have the right calculator for your most challenging classes. HP 48 calculators have over 2100 built-in functions and offer a unique combination of graphics and calculus.

Head over to the campus bookstore now. After all, you don't see this kind of deal every day. HP calculators. The best for your success.
