Cowboys' Smith tough on 'Skins

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

IRVING — The Washington Redskins know what they have to do in Monday night's National Football League opener against the Dallas Cowboys. The question the Redskins must answer in Texas Stadium is just how do they stop Emmitt Smith?

In the past, Smith has treated the Redskins defense like a World League team rather than the defending world champions.

The NFL's leading rusher had two big games against Washington last year. In another Monday night game, Smith rushed 11 times for 112 yards, including a 75-yard scoring run in which he broke three tackles.

Smith also caught a touchdown pass in that 33-31 loss, his first scoring reception college or pro.

There's no telling what Smith would have done if he had not spent half the game vomiting because he drank too much Gatorade too fast.

Properly warned about Smith, the Redskins held him to 132 yards on 34 carries in a 24-21 Dallas victory in the second game. He also dashed 32 yards for a TD in that game.

"I'm not sure what it is about the Redskins but I seem to have special games against them," Smith said. "It's not like I try harder against them or anything. They are a big rival. I just like doing well against them."

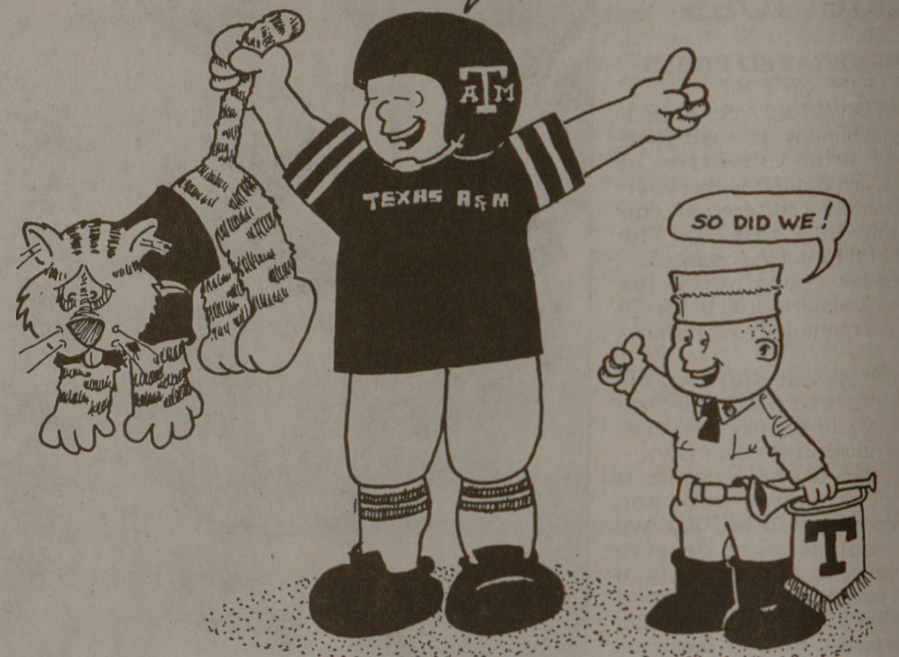

Smith rushed for 1,563 yards last year, averaging 4.3 per carry. Against Washington, he averages 5.3 yards per carry.

Redskins coach Joe Gibbs said Smith has been a puzzle his team can't solve.

"We've taken our best shots against him and still haven't done a good job," Gibbs said.

Moon's performance falls short as Pittsburgh upsets Houston

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOUSTON — Pittsburgh intercepted Warren Moon five times, two each by hobbled cornerback Rod Woodson and Larry Griffin, and the Steelers started the Houston Oilers 29-24 Sunday.

Neil O'Donnell hit backup tight end Adrian Cooper with a 9-yard touchdown pass with 8:06 to go for the winning points.

The Steelers, who hadn't won a regular-season game in the Astrodome since 1988, gave new coach Bill Cowher a victory in his first game after replacing Chuck Noll, the Steelers coach for 23 seasons. The Steelers befuddled the Oilers, strong favorites to repeat as the AFC Central champions.

Woodson finished his second interception with a 57-yard return off a pass into the end zone by Moon. Barry Foster ran 19 yards on the next play, setting up the touchdown catch by Cooper, who replaced injured starter Eric Green.

Moon tried to rally the Oilers one more time. He hit Haywood Jeffries with a 57-yard pass and Leonard Harris for 5 yards to the Steelers' 14. But Griffin picked off Moon's next pass and returned it 27 yards with 2:09 left.

Moon did hit touchdown passes of 11 and 8 yards to Ernest Givins and a 15-yard fumble return by Johnny Meads got another score, helping the Oilers to a 24-16 halftime lead.

Third-quarter field goals of 25 and 37 yards by Gary Anderson further jeopardized the Oilers, cutting their lead to 24-22.

Moon, who last week settled almost two years of negotiations with a two-year contract extension, was intercepted on his fourth pass when Woodson returned a theft 16 yards to Houston 37. But his slow start didn't hurt the Oilers until the second quarter.

Interceptions by Darren Perry and Griffin led to a 30-yard field goal by Anderson with 1:13 elapsed, then O'Donnell's 20-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Grubbs that trimmed Houston to a 17-lead.

O'Donnell completed 14 of 23 passes for 233 yards.

The Steelers, showing new-found trickery, turned a fake pass into a 44-yard pass from punter Mark Royals to Warren Williams in the first quarter, setting up the 1-yard run.

Cowher also sent receiver Dwight Stone on an 8-yard reverse play in the third quarter that helped set up a 25-yard field goal by Anderson.

Moon completed 30 of 45 passes for 330 yards.

Thank You!

The Aggie Orientation Leader Program and Department of Student Affairs would like to thank all these dedicated Aggies for their outstanding contributions this summer as we welcomed new students and their families to Aggieland.
