

1705 Texas Avenue College Station TX 77840 (409) 693-1706
We have software for IBM, Mac and Amiga Computers!
We buy and sell used software.
We have Genesis and SuperNintendo games and systems to rent!
Bring in this coupon for a Free Membership!

Membership is for 1 year. Some restrictions apply. Coupon expires 9/30/92

We need 52 ACE's...

Could one of them be YOU?

ACE AGGIE COUNSELING EXPERIENCE Student Counseling MTA

Aggie Counseling Experience Student Volunteer Program

The Aggie Counseling Experience, or ACE Program, is a student volunteer program at the Texas A&M University Student Counseling Service. ACE volunteers represent a variety of majors and interests. If selected, you will be given training in presentation skills and listening skills, and you will learn how to help students improve their academic performance and research possible majors and careers.

Interviewing NOW! Application DEADLINE Monday, September 28

Pick up an application and brochure on the third floor of the YMCA Building.

Student Counseling Service 845-4427 .. A Department in the Division of Student Services

We accept Cash, Checks, Debit Cards on sale items. Specials through Saturday Sept. 19th, 1992

Photo exhibit shows early African-American culture

By JULIE POLSTON

The current photography exhibit at the Sterling C. Evans Library depicts African-American life in the United States from ballet dancers to businessmen, newlyweds to soldiers, young children to cowboys.

"Images of the Past - A Photographic Study of Things That Once Were" is composed of original photos from the private collections of Brazos Valley families. The pictures were enlarged and reproduced by photographers Sunny Nash and J.R. Mac.

Nash is publisher and editor-in-chief of "Legacy" magazine, a periodical published in Hearne and dedicated to the study of African-American family, life and history. She said she feels the exhibit is important between the control of the study of the study of the study of the said she feels the exhibit is important. tant because it offers people a new and different perspective on African-American culture.

"The reason for the exhibit is to celebrate a different kind of image of African-Americans," Nash said. "Most people think of African-Americans in a much different manner than those people display with their cars, hats, clothing and jewelry

The pictures show poverty and hard times as well as wealth and material possessions.

"We were not aware that there was so much wealth in the African-American community during the 1930s in the midst of the depression," Nash said. They understand very, very well how to live on next to nothing.

Nash said the photos are a great way to teach people about another culture because people like to look at pictures rather than read.

"With this exhibit, people will see that people are all the same," she said. "We end up seeing a lot more of our similarities than differences."

Nash said she hopes the exhibit will teach students about the African-American culture, and allow them to view all African-Americans in a more posi-

"I hope they will take away a different impression of African-Americans," she said. "I hope they will take away a higher regard for African-Americans than some people have.

Nash said she had the idea for the exhibit about seven years ago. She said she has been gathering material for two years with Mac, a free-lance photographer from Dallas who reproduces the photos. "People have been really wonderful about reproducing their pictures," Nash said. "They want other people to know about them.

This 1920 photo, titled "Couple in the Woods" is a part of the library's photo exhibit now on display.

Mac, creative director and chief photographer for "Legacy," has reproduced hundreds of family photos. The oldest photograph in the collection, a Civil War-era wedding picture of former slaves, was taken around 1865.

"It is very important for families to have their photographs professionally reproduced," he said. Photographs help us to preserve our history.

The exhibit, which is located on the first floor of the library by the elevators, will be on display until

Reggae band returns under new name

By SUSAN OWEN

The Killer Bees, under new name and without from man Michael E. Johnson, will play tonight at the Stafford Opera House.

They may call themselve the UZ-2-BZ's, but they aren has-beens yet. Johnson is tal ing a break from the road, and the band is taking the opport tunity to steer in different d Thanh Nguyen, promotions manager for Stafford, said the band is "trying to branch out adding a funkier sound their strong reggae back ground.

The four band member combine many styles of mus Ishmael Sealy, Wallace Ham mond, Gino Ronde and Ja Williams comprise jazz, blu gospel and classical infl

After six years of successfully selling reggae to the masses the band is exploring Caribbean and "soca" sounds

"Most of the time when the play here the place is sold out," Nguyen said.

He said he expects a crowd of 200 to 250, but is unsu whether the upcoming fin round of tests at Texas A&M will affect attendance.

The UZ-2-BZs have an album coming out in December and will do a support tou with Johnson afterwards, Nguyen said.

The band will start about 9 p.m., he said. Stafford's door open at 8 p.m. and tickets will

Around Jown

Information is provided by the individual nightclubs and is subject Saturday - Shoulders. Alternative. Tickets $5. Doors open at 8

Gallery Bar

In the College Station Hilton at 801 E. University Dr. Only ages 21 and older admitted. Call 693-7500 for more information. Friday, Saturday - Big Apple Trio. Jazz. Starts at 8 p.m. No

Kay's Cabaret

At Post Oak Mall. Ages 18 and older admitted. Alcohol served. For more information, call 696-9191. Thursday - Writers and Performers Showcase with Kyle Hutton.

Open mic. Starts at 9:30 p.m. $1 cover. Friday- Rif Raf. Rock and roll. Starts at 9:30. $3 cover.

Saturday - Two bands Cocked and Bone Orchard. Starts at 9:30 693-7500 from more information. Alcohol served. p.m. $3 cover.

Two Pesos

Located at 303 University Dr. in College Station. Alcohol served. For more information, call 846-4135. Wednesday - Sneaky Pete. Sing-along. Starts at 8 p.m. $2 cov-

Friday - Mirror Image. Starts at 10 p.m.

Stafford Opera House

Located at 106 S. Main in Bryan. Alcohol served. For more information, call 775-4082.

Thursday - UZ-2-BZs - Reggae. Tickets $5. Doors open at 8

Friday - Audio Assault ITT and Lesson Seven. Industrial Music. Tickets $5. Doors open at 8 p.m.

Love Shack

Located at 318 N. Main in Bryan. Alcohol served. For more information, call 775-1578.

Wednesday - Billy Boy - Comedian/Country Singer. $1 cover. Starts at 8 p.m.

Friday - Body Chemistry Featuring Ana. Rock and roll. $2 cover. Starts at 8 p.m.

Saturday - Petting Zoo. Rock and roll. $2 Cover. Starts at

Comedy

Sundance Club

Located in the College Station Hilton. 801 E. University Dr. Call

Thursday - Comedy night- Featuring Peter Hefty and David Lamont. Tickets $4 in advance and $5 at the door.

Special Events

Messina Hof Wine Cellars

Located off Highway 6, just east of B-CS.

For more information call 778-wine.

Winery Tours

Weekday - tours at 1:00 p.m. Saturday - 10:30 a.m., 12:30 p.m., and 2:30 p.m.

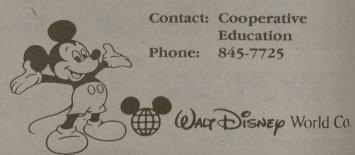

Sunday - 12:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL 821-3409:

WALT DISNEY WORLD COLLEGE PROGRAM

Walt Disney World Co. representatives will present an information session on the Walt Disney World College Program on Thursday, September 24, 7:00pm in room 410 — Rudder Tower. Attendance at this presentation is required to interview for the SPRING '93 COLLEGE PROGRAM. Interviews will be held on Friday, September 25. The following majors are encouraged to attend: Business, Communications, Parks & Recreation, Theatre/Drama, Horticulture, and Entomology.

© The Walt Disney Compa

An Equal Opportunity Employe