Officials aim at fans of football

Texas lottery lets sports lovers play

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

AUSTIN - State officials Monday hoped to cash in on Texas' love of football by offering a new scratch-card game called "Touch-

"Football season is here at last, and our new Texas lottery Touchdown game is going to give players a new opportunity to win by outscoring their opponents," State Lottery Director Nora Linares said.

Officials introduced the game at a news conference in the north end zone of Memorial Stadium on the University of Texas campus. In the game, players scratch the latex covering off spots marked "Your Score" and "Their Score."

If "Your Score" is higher than
"Their Score," the player wins the dollar amount under the 'Prize" box.

There are two games on each $1 ticket. Prizes range from $1 to $500. With nearly 20 million of $500. With nearly 20 million of the 100 million tickets being a winner, the game offers about a 1 in 5 chance of winning.

That's the highest odds of winning money in any of the five scratch-card games, although the vast majority of "Touchdown" winners — 15.6 million tickets — are $1 winners.

Doctor questions validity of TB test on Mexican steers

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOUSTON - A doctor has questioned the credibility of a tuberculosis test used on steers imported from Mexico, as some physicians and federal officials are worried the cattle could spread a bovine form of TB to hu-

Dr. Terry Beals, executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission, said although cases of "mycobacterium bovis" in humans have been extremely rare, he believes it is a "big potential problem.'

The disease can be transmitted through the air, meat and milk, although pasteurization makes milk transmission unlikely.

Mexican veterinarians must test the imported cattle for TB, but Beals claimed there is some question about the test's credibili-

Nearly 1.2 million Mexican steers were imported last year, and many of them came through

Spread of TB among domestic cattle has been limited by rigid U.S. quarantine rules.

Dr. Jeffrey Starke, director of the Childrens Tuberculosis Clinic at Ben Taub Hospital in Houston and chairman of a state TB advisory committee, agreed that importation of steers "raises a potential health threat to people."
