Pit bull dogs pull for world record

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

DALLAS — Pit bull prestige was on the line this weekend in Denton, where canines huffed and puffed their way to glory.

More than 300 pit bull terriers participated Saturday and Sunday in the American Dog Breeders Association National Pull & Confirmation Show.

The national competition is the only event recognized by the Guinness Book of World Records.

setting record weight pulled by a dog, said Ed Hinkle, president of the Texoma American Pit Bull Terrier Club.

A pet named Invincible won his weight division by pulling 4,006 pounds about 15 feet — in less than 60 seconds.

"He dragged 70 pounds a mile every day for month to get here," said owner Rick Kinze of Tulsa, Okla. "It's difficult to wear him out."
