

Horton, Cowboys down Chiefs, 17-10

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

IRVING— Safety Ray Horton was demoted but not disheartened. It's a good thing, because his interception Sunday put the Dallas Cowboys back into the NFC East leadership.

Horton's interception with 3:27 to play helped Dallas beat back a late Kansas City threat Sunday and the Cowboys rode back to first place with a 17-10 victory over the Chiefs.

Dallas (5-1), which has won 10 straight home games, moved ahead of Philadelphia, which lost to Washington, 16-12.

Kansas City dropped to 4-3 with all three losses on the road at Houston, Denver and Dallas.

"We were put to the test today," Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson said. "We did what we had to do against a physical football team. Horton made just a great play."

Horton, who was replaced at starting strong safety by Thomas Everett, stepped in front of J.J. Birden to intercept Dave Krieg's pass on the Dallas 8. Horton had been inserted on the Cowboys' pass defense packages.

"I took my demotion like a man," Horton said. "I accepted it with humility and with a determination I was going to get my job back. I believe you can take things with class and dignity even though I felt like an outcast and a leper."

It saved the day for a Dallas team that went into a second-half offensive gridlock. The Cowboys could manage only a 39-yard field goal by Lin Elliott.

Kansas City got its best chance to tie the game when rookie Dale Carter took a pass away from Michael Irvin at the Dallas 47.

Harvey Williams gained 10 yards and Krieg completed an 11-yard pass to put the Chiefs into position for the tie.

But Krieg, under heavy pressure from Charles Haley, threw the ball in Horton's direction.

"Krieg was looking the other way and I kind of stepped in there and beat the receiver (Birden) to the ball," Horton said. "I believe he was trying to throw an out."

Krieg said Horton closed on the ball faster than he expected.

"I guess I just didn't get enough on the ball," Krieg said. "Their defense played great. You have to make a big play when you get down there where we were."

Kansas City coach Marty Schottenheimer said the Cowboys' success on offense and defense was "disappointing."

"We didn't tackle Emmitt Smith and didn't make the play when we had a chance," Schottenheimer said. "Dallas made the plays. We didn't. If we play the way we are capable of playing, we can win."

Women's soccer goes 2-0 for weekend

Aggies grab wins over Centenary, St. Edwards

FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

The Texas A&M women's soccer team got a much-needed lift this weekend, upping its record to 5-8 after consecutive wins over Centenary and St. Edwards.

The Lady Aggies spread the wealth Sunday against St. Edwards, with four different players scoring goals as A&M jumped out to a 3-0 halftime lead. Anna Whitehead, Brittan Hlista, Terri Stone and Heather Tooker all logged goals in A&M's 4-1 win.

Stone played a bigger role in Saturday's game with Centenary, finishing with two goals in the 3-2 A&M win.

Hlista added a goal against Centenary, whose offense was stymied by seven A&M saves.

The Lady Aggies resume play Friday, when they take on Army at Meyers Park in Houston.

RICARDO S. GARCIA/The Battalion

A&M's April Gallagher (18) tries to get the ball from a member of St. Edwards' team in the Lady Aggies' 4-1 win Sunday. A&M will be back in action Friday as they take on Army in Houston.
