NEWS BRIEFS

ACLU, city council object to strip club

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BATON ROUGE, La. — The Gold Club, a recently opened strip club that is the target of some members of the city's Metro Council, also is falling under fire from the American Civil Liberties Union.

The club's operators contend their strip shows are protected by the U.S. Constitution.

But the ACLU says the club is violating Louisiana law because it bars women from entering alone.

The club bars unescorted women because management does not want angry wives or girlfriends searching for their partners, said Howard Klubeck, executive vice president for Dallas-based Entertainment Corporation of America, which owns the club.

Bush telephoned Acting Secretary of State Lawrence Eagleburger and accepted Eagleburger's recommendation that Assistant Secretary of State Elizabeth Tamposi be relieved of her duties, department spokesman Richard Boucher said.

Other officials said Bush's call was prompted by a story in Tuesday's editions of the Washington Post alleging that, after searching files for information on Clinton, department officials looked for material on Perot as well.

Eagleburger ordered an investigation Oct. 19 after press reports of the search of Clinton's files. It was later disclosed a search of the files of Clinton's mother also had been ordered.

Lawmaker lines up votes for election

AUSTIN — Rep. Pete Laney, a Hale Center farmer and state lawmaker for 20 years, Tuesday said he has lined up pledges from enough current and future House members to be elected the next speaker.

Laney, a Democrat who has chaired the House State Affairs Committee, released a list of 86 lawmakers who he said have committed to vote for him when the 1993 Legislature convenes in January.

He pledged to change House rules that many lawmakers consider too restrictive — such as reforming the secretive Calendars Committee.

Two Russians train at NASA for voyage

SPACE CENTER, Houston — Two Russian cosmonauts said Tuesday that they are beginning to feel right at home as they train at NASA's Johnson Space Center for a mission aboard the space shuttle Discovery.

One will be chosen to fly aboard Discovery on a research mission scheduled for November 1993. The voyage will be the first U.S.-Russian space endeavor since 1975.

Week focuses on women's addiction

AUSTIN — Women addicted to drugs and alcohol face fears not shared by men and require more gender-based recovery programs, a group of experts said Tuesday while kicking off Women's Addiction Awareness Week.

Lynn Hatcher Lipshy, a member of the Texas Commission on Alcohol said having a week to focus on women and addiction will hopefully raise consciousness about the problem.

Allegations trip up Austin police work

AUSTIN — Mounting errors and potential misconduct by Austin police are prompting a review of all 90 pending homicide cases.

Travis County District Attorney Ronnie Earle and Police Chief Elizabeth Watson said some cases may be jeopardized by the alleged misconduct.

Watson, who only recently was named chief, said she was stunned by the situation.

Bush offers budget with no new taxes

WASHINGTON — In a departure from recent outgoing presidents, President Bush will submit a bare-bones federal budget in January that will seek no new tax or spending changes, administration and congressional officials said Tuesday.

Instead, the unusually brief document will summarize what fiscal policy has looked like during the Bush administration and simply project what the 1994 budget would look like without any of the changes President-elect Clinton is certain to make. Fiscal 1994 begins next Oct. 1.

State Department official dismissed

WASHINGTON — Seeking to end a simmering political embarrassment, President Bush on Tuesday dismissed the State Department official who initiated a pre-election search for passport records of Gov. Bill Clinton and Ross Perot.
