

UPD stresses holiday safety

Students should take precautions during break, officer says

By CPL. BETTY LeMAY
Special to THE BATTALION

We are fast approaching the Thanksgiving holidays, and many students, faculty and staff will be leaving home and traveling the highways. Before leaving on your trip there are safety precautions that should be taken.

Try to make your residence look as if someone is home by using timers on lights and radios. All of your valuables should be engraved and the serial numbers recorded.

Use Operation Identification stickers on windows and doors, and make sure they are locked and the drapes are closed. If you live in an apartment or home, have a neighbor you trust pick up your mail and newspapers. Also, leave a phone number where you can be reached in case of an emergency. If you live in an apartment or residence hall, it is a good idea to take all valuable items home with you during long absences.

Avoid breakdowns on the road by having the tires, battery, hoses, radiator and belts of your vehicle checked before you leave. While traveling, wear seat belts and drive defensively. Allow plenty of time to reach your destination. Remember, speed kills.

Never drive when you are extremely tired, sick or taking medication.

Let someone know when you leave and expect to arrive as well as what route will be taken.

If your car should break down on the road, raise the hood, use flares, tie a white cloth to the door handle or put a sign in the window requesting help. Keep the doors and windows locked. If someone stops, ask them to send help instead of accepting a ride with a stranger.

Be prepared and enjoy a safe and happy holiday season. For more information about crime prevention contact the University Police at 845-8713 or 845-8900.

Artist Max Greiner Jr. stands beside his sculpture of a one and a half times life size bust of E. King Gill, the original Twelfth Man. The statue was dedicated on Saturday in the Twelfth Man Foundation offices in the Student Services building. Greiner, and several members of his family, attended A&M in the past, so Greiner decided he wanted to give something back to the school by casting a bronze sculpture of an important figure in Aggie history. Greiner has pursued the life of an artist because "it beats going out and getting a real job."

In Advance: India club to show movie today

The India Association is screening one of the most successful Indian blockbusters of all time at the Rudder Auditorium today.

In terms of numbers, the Indian movie industry produces more movies annually than Hollywood — in about 15 languages.

Indian movies and its megastars are household names in many neighboring Asian countries.

"SHOLAY," meaning torch, became a sensation when it ran continuously for more than 5 years in some of the movie theaters of Bombay.

Bombay, the Hollywood equivalent of India, is jocularly referred to as Bollywood.

The film to be screened as the auditorium has a 35mm format and gives a representative look at the Commercial Indian Cinema. The language of the movie is Hindu and it was not possible to arrange for a sub-titled version for the benefit of a wider audience.

The film stars Amitabh Bachchan, Dharmendra Sanjeev Kumar, Amjad Khan, Hema Malina, Jay Bhaduri and Asrani.

Tickets can be purchased at the door for $4.
