Love, Kite win Shootout

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

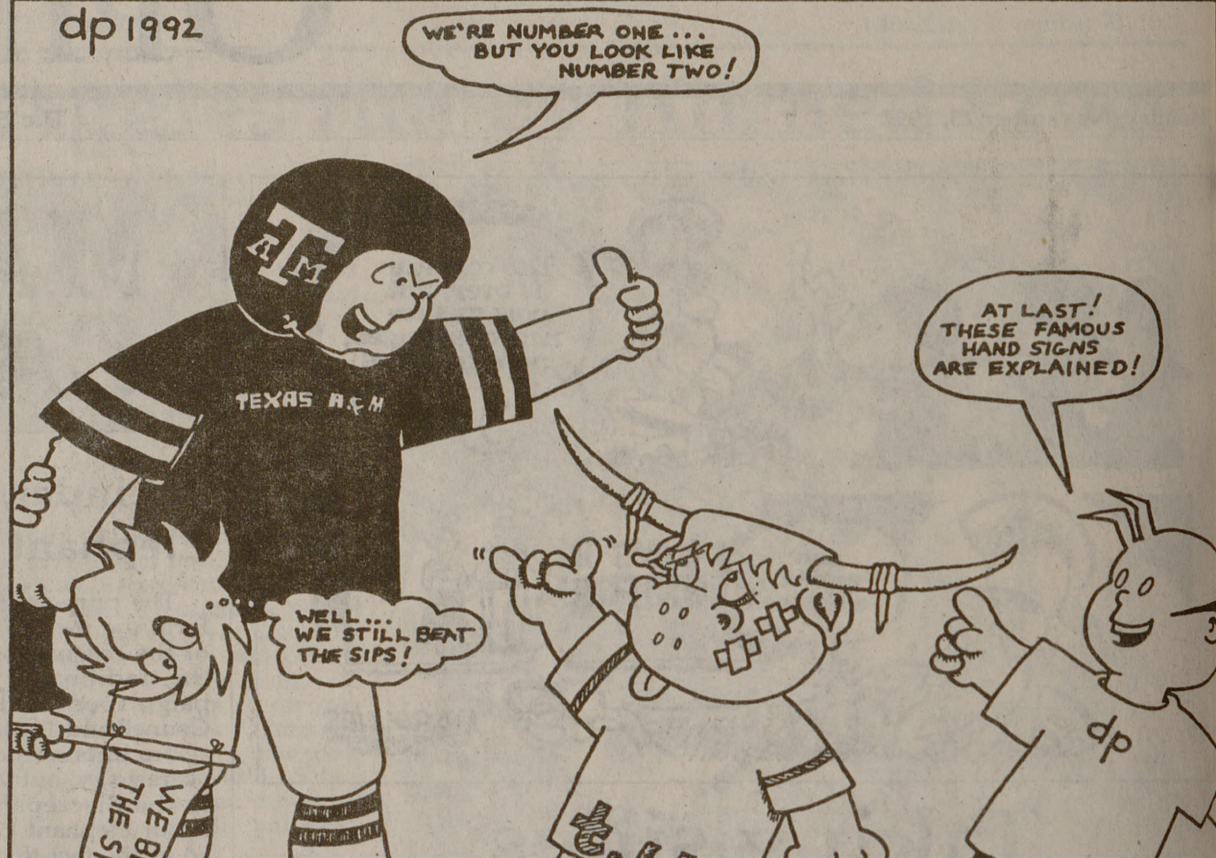

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. — Davis Love III and Tom Kite teamed up to shoot a 13-under-par 59 in the scramble format to win the $1 million Shark Shootout on Sunday at Sherwood Country Club.

Love birdied the final hole with a 10-footer for the margin of victory over three other twosomes — Fred Couples and Ray Floyd; Hale Irwin and Bruce Lietzke; Nick Price and Billy Ray Brown. Love's 8-foot eagle putt at the par-5 16th hole set up the finish.

Love and Kite finished the three-day event at 25-under, each earning $125,000.

Under the scramble format, each player drives on each hole and the best drive is selected. Each player then played a second shot from the spot where the selected drive lay, and the best second shot is selected. The process is repeated until the hole is completed.

Aikman leads Dallas past Phoenix, 16-10

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

TEMPE, Ariz. — A big crowd brings out the best in the Dallas Cowboys and the worst in the Phoenix Cardinals.

Before a throng of 72,439 — largest ever to watch a Cardinals home game — Troy Aikman overcame a stout Phoenix defense Sunday with a pair of touchdown passes for a 16-10 victory.

It was the sixth loss for the Cardinals (3-8) before a crowd of 50,000 or larger since they moved here five years ago.

Dallas improved to 9-2, its best start since 1983.

The Phoenix defense limited NFC rushing leader Emmitt Smith to 35 yards in the first three quarters and gave up only short-yardage passes to Aikman.

But that was all the fourth-year Cowboys quarterback needed to outmaneuver a team demoralized by the loss of quarterback Chris Chandler in the first quarter.

Chandler, whose 2-yard pass to Larry Centers gave the Cardinals a 7-0 lead, was hurt trying to scramble to his left with 30 seconds left in the period. With backup Timm Rosenbach at the controls, Phoenix gained only 38 yards in the next two quarters and had the ball for only 7 minutes, 41 seconds.

Aikman gained just 237 yards on 25 completions but kept drives alive with flare patterns, including a 7-yard TD throw to Jay Novacek which put the Cowboys up 10-7 at halftime.

Smith, who finished with 84 yards, also caught 12 passes in the ball-control Dallas offense.

In the third quarter, Aikman took the Cowboys 90 yards in nine plays for the clinching score — a 37-yard pass to Alvin Harper, who caught the ball on the 27-yard line and spun outside on cornerback Lorenzo Lynch to race untouched down the sideline.

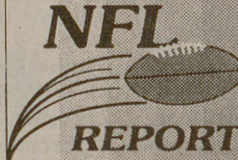

The Cardinals blocked the extra point on Lin Elliott, who gave the Cowboys their first points with a 28-yard field goal in the second.

Phoenix drove to a first down on the Dallas 11 late in the game, but the Cardinals gained only eight yards in three plays and settled for a 20-yard field goal by Greg Davis.

The complexion of the game changed when Chandler was knocked out by Jim Jeffcoat's 13-yard sack.

After a Phoenix punt, the Cowboys drove 54 yards for Elliott's field goal. Rosenbach, who came on in relief of Chandler, fumbled the first snap after the kickoff, and Dallas linebacker Robert Jones pounced on it on the Phoenix 27-yard line.

An interception by Aeneas Williams returned the ball to the Cardinals briefly, but Rosenbach was unable to move the team. Phoenix finished with four net yards in the second quarter.

Kicker lifts Miami over Houston

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MIAMI — Pete Stoyanovich's fourth field goal, a 52-yarder with two seconds left, gave the Miami Dolphins a 19-16 victory over Houston.

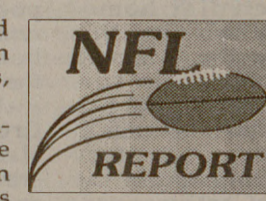

The Dolphins took over at their 23-yard line with 1:49 left and moved 42 yards in seven plays for the winning score. Dan Marino completed all five passes in the drive.

Houston penetrated the Miami 35 twice in the final six minutes, but failed to score.

The Dolphins, coming from behind in the fourth quarter to win for the fourth time this season, improved to 8-3 and remained one game behind Buffalo in the AFC East.

Houston fell to 6-5 with its third loss in the past four games. Though second in the NFL in scoring by kickers, Stoyanovich has struggled this month. He went three games without a field goal and missed a key 35-yard attempt a loss to Buffalo.

But against Houston, Stoyanovich was perfect, hitting from 38, 40 and 29 yards prior to the game-winner. His third field goal tied the game at 16 with 11:25 left.

A&M swims past TCU

FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

Texas A&M won a total of 19 races as they swept the men's and women's team championships in the A&M-Texas Christian SWC Dual Swimming and Diving Meet Saturday in College Station.

Troy Johnson paced the men, winning the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 21.10 and leading off the first-place 400-yard freestyle relay. He also anchored the first-place 400-yard medley relay.

"Troy Johnson had a great meet," assistant head coach Jay Holmes said. "He won the 50 free, and led off the 400 freestyle relay in 46 (seconds), which is his best time of the season, and good for so early. That's especially good for being at the end of the meet at the end of a long week of work."

Suzie Geyer led the way for the women, winning the 200-yard breaststroke with a time of 2:23.25 and swimming the second leg of the first-place 400 medley relay.

And veteran Denise Dereski won the 200-yard butterfly with a 2:13.11, and also swam the third leg of the 400 medley.

"The women swam well, as we expected, and they came in and took charge as well," Holmes said.

"Suzie Geyer continued to swim well, and even did well in what, for her, were 'off events' the 200 freestyle especially."

A&M's next meet will be the Texas Invitational, which will be hosted in Austin by the perennially powerful Longhorns. But although the competition will be tough, A&M head coach Mike Nash is looking forward to the test.

"We're really looking forward to Austin and competing with some great teams," Nash said. "The competition we'll have there will be some of the fastest teams in the country, and how we perform will tell us a lot about our team for the rest of the season."
