Retiree wins lotto jackpot of $21, 760,794

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

AUSTIN — Retired nurse Janie Kallus won enough money in past bingo games to put a new roof on her house and buy food for her niece's wedding. But Monday, she hit it really big.

Kallus, 65, claimed the state's first lotto jackpot — a total of $21,760,794.

"It hasn't sunk in, it's so overwhelming," she said. "I haven't come to reality yet."

The reality is that the Schulen-burg resident was the only person to pick all six numbers and grab a lotto jackpot that had been building without a winner since Nov. 14.

She will receive 20 annual payments of about $1,088,000 each.

"Don't spend it all in one place," state Comptroller John Sharp said while presenting the first installment.

Sharp said that not only did she pick the correct numbers, she had chosen them in the same order they were drawn, although that has no effect in the game.

"She is our first big winner," Sharp said.

But Kallus said she doesn't think the money will change her life much.

"I'm going to build my dream house — no," she laughed, "I'm going to have a mother that's 94 and stay in a nursing home. So I can take care of her. I also have an aunt that's widowed and has children. I will help her, too."

As for herself, "I don't think change my lifestyle much."
