Off-campus fair to offer housing facts

By SHEILA VELA
 The Battalion
 More than 60 local apartment complexes, long distance services and police departments will be providing information about off-campus living Wednesday during the 1993 Off-Campus Housing Fair.

OCA sponsor informational session; more than 60 local merchants to attend
 MSC from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
 Warren Talbot, president of Off-Campus Aggies, said anyone looking for off-campus housing next semester or anytime before graduation should attend.
 "The fair is an excellent opportunity for students to see what's out there and see opportunities for the future," he said.
 Representatives from local apartment communities, duplex and fourplex management companies, condos and mobile home parks will answer prospective movers' questions.
 Andy Jones, fair assistant coordinator of the Off-Campus Housing Center, said all faculty, staff and students who are switching apartments or moving out of residence halls are encouraged to attend and pick up information.
 "The fair is a way to bring the off-campus community to campus in a centralized process," Jones said. No one has to sign leases or make permanent decisions, he said.
 Representatives from local utility companies, campus food and transportation services also will provide information.
 A local radio station will give away compact discs and T-shirts. Some of the apartment complexes may give away door prizes as well.

Crime Stoppers

Officials seek help in Bryan burglary
 During the night of Nov. 11, thieves visited the Bryan Lake Park.
 Evidence indicates that the thieves forced their way into the park office and storage building where they searched the building for items of value.
 The thieves stole a boat motor, marine battery, power and hand tools and fishing equipment.
 The power and hand tools were manufactured by Craftsman, the fishing reels by ABU Garcia and the boat motor by Mercury.
 The motor is a black 20 HP Mercury Outboard Motor with serial No. 4586210.
 Bryan police detectives believe there was more than one person involved with this theft, and the thieves will have sold or traded the items in the local area.
 This week the Bryan Police Department and Crime Stoppers need your help to identify the people responsible for this burglary.
 If you have helpful information, call Crime Stoppers at 775-TIPS.
 When you call, you will not have to give your name.
 Crime Stoppers will assign you a special coded number that will be used to protect your identity.
 If your information leads to an arrest and grand jury indictment, Crime Stoppers will pay you up to $1,000 in cash.
 Crime Stoppers also pays cash for information on any felony crime or the location of any wanted fugitive.

Name

 "I hope in the long run this is better, but in the short-run it sets us back," Wydell said. "I worry about the identity of the A&M name. A&M has gained nothing from this."
 Three regents whose terms expired Feb. 1, Showers, McKenzie and Douglas R. DeCluitt, participated in the vote and will remain on the Board until the three newly appointed regents receive Senate confirmation. Regent Royce E. Wisenbaker was unable to attend the session.
 McKenzie and DeCluitt voted against all four changes, while Showers voted against changing A&I and West Texas. Mary Nan West voted against the West

Correction

A story that appeared in Friday's Battalion about the Texas A&M Corps of Cadets' internal investigation of possible sexual assault and sexual harassment in- correctly identified the reporter as Gina Howard.
 The author is Battalion reporter Jeff Gosmano.
 The Battalion regrets the error.
