Week Tuesday, drove in Gonzales with a single. Left fielder Chad Alexander followed with a single, scoring Thomas.

Fedora later scored on an error by Leay.

"When we do fall behind, we think to ourselves that there are nine more innings to play," Fedora said. "Since it was early, we didn't feel any pressure to try to get everything back at one time."

"If it had been the seventh or eighth inning, then it might have been a different story. It just worked out well for us tonight."

Sam Houston knotted the score at four with a single run in the second inning, and the game remained tied until the fourth. Fedora started the inning off with a single, and after a flyout by Alexander, A&M took the lead.

Lewis then hit his first home run of the year, giving the Aggies a 6-4 lead.

"I worked on a new stance today because I have been slumping all year," Lewis said. "I spread my feet out a lot more, which can take away from my power. In fact, I felt like I didn't have any pop in my bat during batting practice."

"It felt great to get that hit." But the Bearkats would not curl up in a corner, as they tied the score in the top half of the inning with two runs. A&M struck back in the sixth, however, and in the process put Sam Houston in the litter box.

Smith reached base courtesy of a two-base error by Leay to begin the inning. After Fedora struck out, pinch hitter Brian Bittiker singled him home. Bittiker was thrown out at second trying to stretch his base rap into a double.

Lewis struck again, though, when he hit his second homer deep into the College Station night.

"I had been getting mad at myself and getting down, but maybe the two homers will help get me out of the slump," Lewis said. "This season, I started out soft, and it was hard to get into a groove."

"Maybe now I can."

Johnson praised Lewis's efforts at the plates.

"He gave us two big hits at a time when we needed them," Johnson said. "It was fun to watch him hit because he needed those two."

Thomas and Harris also added back-to-back round-trippers in the seventh inning. Harris had a two run homer, his sixth long ball of the year, which was immediately followed by a solo shot from Thomas.

"The home run was great because I hadn't hit one in a quite a long time," Thomas said. "It was nice to get the win, and it seemed like things just became contagious."

Slocum promotes Davie to assistant head coaching slot

FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

Texas A&M defensive coordinator Bob Davie has been promoted to assistant head coach, A&M coach R.C. Slocum said Tuesday.

Davie will remain defensive coordinator for the Aggies.

The promotion comes after Davie was courted for the Baylor head coaching position last fall.

Davie eventually removed his name from contention for the Baylor job, with Chuck Reedy replacing the retired Grant Teaff.

"Bob is an outstanding football coach, and he has had a lot of opportunities to leave Texas A&M during his career, but he's remained loyal to our program and this promotion was made to recognize the contributions he's made to our program," Slocum said.

Davie took over for Slocum as defensive coordinator in 1989 after the latter was promoted to the head coaching position. Davie came to A&M in 1985 as outside linebackers coach.

The A&M defense finished the 1991 season first in the nation in total defense under Davie, and also broke a Southwest Conference record for sacks in a season with 56. Last year, the A&M "Wrecking Crew" defense also became the only one to lead the SWC in all four defensive categories two years in a row.

"Texas A&M is a special place for me and my family," Davie said. "I'm proud and excited that R.C. thinks enough of the job I've done here to give me the opportunity to serve as assistant head coach in addition to my responsibilities as defensive coordinator."

During Davie's tenure as linebackers coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1980-82, the Panthers' defense finished among the top five units in the nation, and was the top defense in the country for both the 1980 and 1981 seasons.

Davie also served as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator for Tulane University from 1983-84, and was the linebackers coach at the University of Arizona from 1978-79.

Davie has recently been named in publications by The Sporting News and Lindy's as one of the nation's top assistants.
