Astronauts find precious data

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) - Discovery's astronauts captured a small shiny satellite loaded with precious solar data Tuesday, two days after setting it free to study the sun's flaming

The shuttle zoomed to within 35 feet of the Spartan satellite as the two spacecraft sped over the South Pacific. Astronaut Ellen Ochoa grabbed the satellite with the ship's robot arm and gently nudged the craft into its cradle in the cargo bay.

"Great work, Ellen," said Mission Control's Kevin Chilton. "There are a lot of smiles in the room down here. Congratulations on a fantastic rendezvous

Two carnival workers killed

DALLAS (AP) - Two carnival workers were killed Tuesday afternoon when a cable snapped while they were trying to erect a Ferris wheel, officials said.

Another worker was taken to Baylor Medical Center with a se-rious foot injury, said Carolyn Garcia, Dallas Fire Department spokeswoman.

"It appears that the cable broke as they were setting the Ferris wheel up," Garcia said.

Women, children flee from Bosnia

SARAJEVO, Bosnia-Herzegovina (AP) - Hundreds of women and children jammed trucks Tuesday to flee the misery of Srebrenica, where Serb shelling killed at least 56 people a day earlier.

Of the 650 people who arrived in government-held Tuzla hours later, 47 were hospitalized with various wounds, officials of the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees reported.

Robert Johansson, a Swede who drove one of the trucks, said the convoy was stoned by bystanders when it passed Serbheld Zvornik.

Worker's death due to safety belt CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) - A broken safety belt is being blamed for the death of a worker who fell from a television tower, police say Mike Sanchez, 28, of San Antonio was killed instantly Monday morning when he fell 70 feet from the tower at independent television station KDF, said police Sgt. J.K. Granger. Sanchez was changing a light bulb on a sign on the TV tower when he fell, Granger said.

The self-employed worker was subcontracted by Corpus Signs and Lighting to work on the KDF sign. An autopsy was being conducted by the Nueces County medical examiner's office, officials said.

Officials alarmed at witness' death

BROWNSVILLE (AP) - Federal officials say they're alarmed by the shooting deaths last week of witnesses who had testified against hitmen in a Mexican drug gang. Both Norberto Hernandez Paz, 25, and Armando Barrera, 28, had declined offers to join the federal witness protection program, law enforcement sources told The Brownsville Herald.

Hernandez was found dead Friday evening by the Rio Grande. Barrera's body was discovered Thursday morning in a residential area southeast of Brownsville.

the Juan Garcia Abrego drugtrafficking ring.

Their deaths deeply concern said FBI agent Wayne us." Smith. "We have no reason to believe any other witnesses are being sought. However, we have taken steps to inform other wit-nesses of what has happened." Garcia Abrego, 47, whose op-erations are based across the border from Brownsville in Matamoros, Mexico, has been in-screening jurors Tuesday for the criminal trial of the trucker blamed for an accident that sent a school bus plunging into a roadside pit, killing 21 children. Ruben Perez, 28, who is charged with 21 counts of involuntary manslaughter, sat impassively as 390th District Judge Fi-dencio M. Guerra Jr. asked the pool of 200 jury candidates whether they had seen newspa-pers or TV accounts of the September 1989 accident.

The refugees were protected by tarpaulin covering on the trucks, he said.

Sarajevo radio reported late Tuesday that the eastern and northern frontlines in the Srebrenica area were being heavily shelled with mortars and multiple rocket launchers.

Those who perished Monday in Srebrenica included 15 children.
