

Police Beat

The following incidents were reported to the University Police Department between April 2 and April 15.

Assault

•Coke Street - A bicyclist's verbal exchange with a motorist ended with the vehicle operator knocking the victim to the ground with his car. The cyclist complained of a twisted back and a sprained wrist.

•Keathley Hall - A subject forced her way in the residence hall room and grabbed the victim by the throat. The assailant was identified as the estranged wife of the victim's boyfriend. The subject also slapped her ex-husband, who was present in the room. Both victim's expressed their desire to press charges. A criminal trespass warning was issued to the assailant.

•Parking Area 9 - A security officer found a semi-conscious subject lying on the ground on the south side of Fowler Hall. The subject had been struck on the left side of the head. The victim advised the investigating officer he may have been hit because he took another person's parking space. The victim was transported to a local hospital by Texas A&M EMS personnel for treatment. The victim informed the investigating officer that he did not want to file criminal charges.

•Brayton Firefighting School - The victim was touched in an inappropriate manner by an acquaintance.

Felony Theft

•Parking Area 96 - The victim's ox winch was unbolted from the frame of his jeep.

•Texas A&M University Riverside Campus - A black golf bag containing a set of custom made Weser golf clubs, a pair of Nike golf shoes and a Volcom golf umbrella was stolen from a table in the large hangers in the Riverside campus.

Misdemeanor Theft

•Entomology Research Laboratory - Someone has billed several unauthorized long distance telephone calls to a telephone located in the building.

•Zachry Engineering Center - The individual who was responsible for the resale of two stolen textbooks has been identified.

•Engineering Physics Building - A bright blue backpack containing two chemistry textbooks, a Texas Instruments 60X calculator and a Sony AM/FM cassette walkman, was stolen from a second floor room.

Burglary of Habitation/Building

•Keist Hall - A third floor room was entered and 25 shirts and 15 pairs of pants were stolen.

•Keist Hall - The victim advised that the clothing he reported stolen from his room had been returned. The clothing was taken as a prank by three acquaintances.

•Heldens Hall - An indicator light panel and an overhead projector mirror was stolen. In addition, ketchup was smeared on a chalkboard and wall.

Harassment

•Keathley Hall - The victim was the recipient of several offensive and obscene telephone calls from an intoxicated individual.

Truancy

•Hensel Park - Two school age children were observed in Hensel Park during normal school hours. The two juveniles claimed to be expelled from school. Investigation revealed one of the ladies was supposed to be in school and the other had withdrawn due to excessive absences. The juveniles were transported to the high school and one was released to the associate principal and the other to an adult responsible for her care.

Criminal Mischief

•G. Rollie White Coliseum - A paper towel rack and a water valve were damaged in the first floor men's locker room. In addition to this activity, three individuals had their lockers forcibly entered and several items of athletic wear stolen.

•G. Rollie White Coliseum - Someone apparently was locked inside a storage room used for women's basketball. The subject damaged the door by beating the hinges with several trophies that were inside the room in a failed attempt to get out of the room. The person was able to escape the storage facility by kicking a hole in the sheetrock wall and exiting through the women's basketball film room.

•University Owned Apartments - Assorted papers were removed from the console and placed on the passenger seat. Nothing was removed from the vehicle.

•Ball Street - Someone entered the victim's vehicle removing items from the center console and placing them on the passenger seat.

•UV Row - Someone entered the victim's vehicle and scattered items on the front seat after removing them from the glove box and door pockets.

Terroristic Threat

•Dunn Hall - The victim received a phone call from an acquaintance who threatened to shoot him at work.

Forgery

•The Pavilion - Someone forged a loan application to fraudulently receive funds from the Student Financial Aid office.
