Colbert wins Senior Players Championship

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

DEARBORN, Mich. — Jim Colbert didn't make a mistake until the final hole Sunday. By then, it didn't matter. Colbert had an insurmountable lead and won the Senior Players Championship by one stroke over Ray Floyd, who had already finished.

Colbert shot a 69 in the final round to finish at 10-under 278 and collect the $180,000 winner's prize. It was the seventh Senior victory — but the first major — for Colbert, who won the Royal Caribbean in February.

Floyd shot a 68 to finish at 279. Al Geiberger was another shot back at 280 after a closing 66. Colbert and Rocky Thompson were tied for the lead at 209 after three rounds, one shot ahead of New Zealander Bob Charles.

Colbert birdied the fourth and ninth holes to turn at 9-under, three shots ahead of his nearest competitor. But things tightened up on the final nine holes. Floyd and Geiberger each made a run to close within one stroke, but Colbert hung tough.

Colbert birdied the par-3 15th to go 10-under, then rolled in a twisting putt on the two-tiered 16th to go 11-under. That gave him a three-shot lead again, this time with just two holes to play.

Still, he made it exciting at the par-5 17th, where his third shot ran across the green before stopping a foot short of dropping off into the water. Then, at the 18th, his approach landed in a greenside bunker. He blasted out and made a two-putt bogey, his only bogey of the day.

Geiberger, a two-time winner this season, started the day five shots off the pace. He made the turn in 33, then made a big move on the back side. Geiberger eagled the par-5 13th and followed that with birdie at the 14th — the toughest hole on the golf course — to get to 8-under, just one shot behind Colbert.

But that was his last move and Geiberger finished 8-under.

Floyd, playing this event for the first time, also saved his best for the back nine, where he birdied the 12th and 13th to get to 8-under. He made bogey at the 14th but made it up with birdie at the 15th to remain one behind Colbert — who was in the threesome just behind him.

Floyd narrowly missed a birdie putt at the 17th, then birdied the final hole for a 68 and 279 total.

Hugh Delane Thompson, the mayor of Toco, Texas, birdied the first two holes Sunday to get to 9-under, two strokes better than anyone else in the field.

But it quickly slipped away. Thompson bogeyed the fifth and triple-bogied the sixth after hitting his second shot in the water.

Jack Nicklaus, who designed the 6,876-yard TPC of Michigan course, shot 71 in the final round to finish at 3-over 291. That tied him with Charles Coody, whose finishing 65 was the best round of the tournament.

Chi Chi Rodriguez shot 74 Sunday for a 291 total. Gary Player had 72 for 294, Lee Trevino 69 for 297, and Arnold Palmer 78 for 298.

Stars use first-round pick for 'physical player'

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

DALLAS — In the Dallas Stars' first draft since moving south, they came up with a physical player who was voted Best Checker last year in the junior-level Ontario Hockey League.

The stars used their first-round pick, the ninth overall, to take 18-year-old center Todd Harvey of the Detroit Junior Red Wings.

Harvey, who scored 164 points in 113 games in the last two years with Detroit, is said to have a fiery temper and a disdain for losing.

According to National Hockey League scouting reports, Harvey is a good skater with excellent speed. The scouting report on Harvey also says he's clever handling the puck.

Harvey will probably have to spend some more time in the junior league before he gets a shot at the NHL.

"Conservatively, we're not looking at him helping us until the 1995-96 season," Stars general manager and coach Bob Gainey said.

The Stars took another center with their second-round pick, Jason Langenbrunner, a 17-year-old who just finished his junior year of high school in Cloquet, Minn. Langenbrunner was also drafted by two junior league hockey teams.

"He's a hard-nosed competitor with a big upside to improve," said Craig Button, Stars director of amateur scouting. Langenbrunner must also spend some more time playing at the junior level, Button said.

"He's only a junior in high school," he said. "He hasn't played a lot of hockey."

Dallas' third-round pick was used in a 1992 trade. The team picked 18-year-old goalie Chris Lang in the fourth round.

Kile shutouts Atlanta; Astros win 3-0

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ATLANTA — Darryl Kile came within one out of his first major league shutout, extending his winning streak to six games as he led the Houston Astros over the Atlanta Braves 3-0 Sunday.

Kile (8-1) gave up five hits, struck out eight and walked four in 8 2-3 innings before Xavier Hernandez got the final out, gaining his third save in six chances.

Otis Nixon had three hits as the Braves were shut out for the sixth time this season.

Greg Maddux (7-6) gave up all three runs — just one earned — and six hits in seven innings, struck out two and walked three.

Houston scored unearned runs in the second and fourth innings following errors by third baseman Terry Pendleton. Eric Anthony reached on Pendleton's first error leading off second inning, stole second, took third on a groundout and scored on Andujar Cedenos's single.

Anthony reached on a one-out error by Pendleton in the fourth, took third on Chris Donnels' single and scored on Cedenos's sacrifice fly.

Ken Caminiti singled home a run in the sixth following a double by Luis Gonzalez.

Notes: Caminiti left in the sixth inning after fouling off a pitch and bruised his right knee. He's listed as day-to-day. ... Mar Lemke's stolen base Saturday night was the first of the season and second of his career. ... Other came on May 14, 1991. ... Gant struck out four times Sunday and has struck out in seven consecutive at-bats and 10 of 11.

Rangers out-Witt Oakland again, 4-0

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ARLINGTON — Kevin Brown pitched a five-hitter to snap his three-game losing streak as Texas beat former Ranger Bobby Witt and the Oakland Athletics 4-0 on Sunday night.

Brown (6-6), struck out five and walked one to win for the first time since June 4. He did not allow a baserunner past second until the ninth inning.

Witt yielded three solo homers and nine hits over 6 1-3 innings to fall to 7-5.

Texas took a 2-0 lead on Rafael Palmeiro's first-inning solo homer and made it 2-0 on Mario Diaz's bases-empty shot in the third. It was the 12th homer of the season for Palmeiro and the first for Diaz.

Ivan Rodriguez made it 3-0 in the fourth with his fourth home run and Dean Palmer hit a sacrifice fly to close the scoring in the sixth.

reached the final here three years ago.
Pete Sampras, the men's No. 1 seed, had just one problem: a brain nosebleed during a match. He blamed dry weather, surely an unusual complaint here. He played Monday against Britain's last hope, Andrew Foster, in a match tucked away on Court 14, where presumably fewer fans will shed tears.
Steffi Graf, the women's No. 1 and four-time champion, got through the week easily, winning the first three matches with the loss of only three games, all in her second match. She sandwiched two double-bagels, 6-0, 6-0, around that, and should have another easy time Monday against American Meredith McGrath.
No. 2 Martina Navratilova, going for her 10th singles title here, said the only thing bothering her was the shifting of the chairs to put them with their backs to the umpire's stands as a precaution against a repeat of the Monica Seles attack two months ago in Germany.
