St. Louis stops Houston's sweep with 10-4 win

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOUSTON — Donovan Osborne earned his fifth victory in six decisions and Gregg Jefferies drove in three runs Monday to lead the St. Louis Cardinals over the Houston Astros 10-4.

St. Louis avoided a four-game sweep and stopped Houston's four-game winning streak. Osborne (7-3) allowed three runs and five hits in 6 2-3 innings, relying primarily on 13 fly ball outs.

Jefferies went 3-for-5 with a home run and a double. His 16-game hitting streak was snapped Sunday.

Greg Swindell (6-8) gave up six earned runs and 10 hits in five innings. Lee Smith retired Ken Caminiti with the bases loaded to end the game.

St. Louis took a 3-0 lead in the first when Jefferies' 11th home run drove in Ozzie Smith, who singled. Todd Zeile followed with a triple and scored on Bernard Gilkey's single.

The Cardinals increased their lead to 4-0 in the second on Geronimo Pena's sacrifice fly, but Scott Servais hit a two-run single in the bottom half.

Run-scoring singles by Erik Pappas and Tom Pagnozzi made it 6-2 in the fifth. Pinch-hitter Chris James singled home a run in the seventh, but Ozzie Smith and Jefferies hit RBI singles in the eighth for an 8-3 lead.

Jeff Bagwell hit his 13th home run in the eighth. Brian Jordan hit a two-run homer in the ninth, his second home run this season.

Gonzalez's two-run homer lifts Texas past Milwaukee, 5-4

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MILWAUKEE — Juan Gonzalez hit a two-run home run in the eighth inning Monday as Texas beat the Milwaukee Brewers 5-4 for its third consecutive victory.

With the score tied 3-3 in the eighth, Rafael Palmeiro singled with one out off Graeme Lloyd (2-1), who relieved to start the inning. Gonzalez then greeted James Austin with his 21st homer, driving a 2-0 pitch over the left-field fence.

The victory was the fourth in five games for the Rangers, who opened their 11-game road trip by winning three of four in Detroit.

Milwaukee overcame a 3-0 deficit with single runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings, tying the score in the sixth on Robin Yount's RBI single off Todd Burns. With the bases loaded and two outs, Mike Schooler (3-0) relieved and retired Tom Brunansky on a popout to shortstop.

Bob Patterson, the sixth Texas pitcher, struck out the final two batters for his first save of the season.

Texas took a 1-0 lead in the second on a bad-hop RBI double by Mario Diaz over shortstop Dickie Thon. The Rangers added two unearned runs in the fourth after an error by third baseman B.J. Surhoff and a wild pitch by Angel Miranda. Butch Davis followed with an RBI triple and Jon Shave singled home a run.

John Jaha hit an RBI double in the fourth and Thon doubled in a run in the fifth.

The Brewers cut the lead to 5-4 on a two-out RBI single by Yount in the eighth.

Notes: With Monday's game, Yount moved into a tie with Honus Wagner for 14th place on the games played list with 2,785. Tris Speaker is 13th with 2,790.

club is open to all forms of inline skating. Nansh said the focus, however, is on roller hockey.

"We might change our name," Nansh said. "Another club just started for free-style and we asked them if they wanted to make their own division with us. They wanted their own club, though."

The inline skate nine-member competition team recently returned to A&M from a tournament in Houston with a first-place finish. There were six teams in the division in which the club competed. "The team from Sam Houston State was probably the toughest team we faced," Nansh said.

Marc Wills, a member of the competition team, said, "I was impressed with the win. We improved a lot over our last tournament in Dallas. In Dallas, though, we only had six players instead of nine, so we couldn't get any line changes."

Nansh was also pleased with the victory. "Hopefully by winning some tournaments we will get some sponsorship," Nansh said.

One sponsor has already agreed to support the team. BCS Bicycle has agreed to give the club a percentage of its sales of skating equipment.

At the moment, the competition team is practicing for a national tournament to be held in Colorado on Sept. 18. The team will be competing in the recreational Division at the tournament.

The team has stayed relatively injury free, barring the occasional scrapes that come from falls. Checking is not allowed during competitions.

Aside from the lack of checking, the only other difference between roller hockey and ice hockey is the length of the game. "In Houston we only played with two 12 and a half minute halves with a five minute break between," Nansh said. "I would like to play with at least three 12 and a half minute periods."
