

Sorority Rush ends with 575+ pledged Aggies

Texas A&M University's Formal Fall Sorority Rush 1993 ended Saturday evening with approximately 575 Aggies accepting pledges, Panhellenic President Stephanie Johnson said Saturday.

"Rush went great this year, and it was a beneficial experience for the majority of the people who participated," she said. "The Panhellenic attitude was very positive among the sororities."

Panhellenic Rush Chairman Julie Coffman said this year's Rush was the largest the University has seen since 1989.

"The high registration could indicate that the acceptance of Greeks at A&M is growing in Panhellenic spirit as well as Aggie spirit," she said.

Open bidding opportunities are available now and throughout the semester for some sororities, Coffman said.

A&M fraternities to ease registering with forum

Texas A&M University fraternities will conduct their 1993 Fall Rush differently this year in order to increase membership, Interfraternity Council Vice President Donald Eknayan said Friday.

Fraternity Rush begins Wednesday, Sept. 8, with an all-day open rush forum at the MSC Fountain. The forum, which is new to this year's rush, will allow anyone who is interested to ask questions about individual fraternities and register for Rush, Eknayan said.

"The forum is a casual way for guys to see what's going on in different fraternities," he said. "Every fraternity is different, and hopefully the forum will help guys decide which fraternity is right for them."

In addition to informational booths, the forum will feature appearances by Reveille, the yell leaders and Miss Texas A&M. Rush Chairman Glen Webb said the fraternities hope these activities will reflect Greeks as Aggies.

"We'd like to be part of A&M instead of a separate entity," he said. "The Greek system is growing so large that it's important for us to remember that we're all Aggies first."
