"From a standpoint of technique and style it might not have been our best game, but in terms of character it was one of our best," A&M defensive coordinator Bob Davie said. "Our guys played with an awful lot of heart. I am very proud."

Davie added that he was excited with the nature of the shutout. "I'm proud of the way we played, but I'm more proud of getting out of the first half without giving up a touchdown," Davie said. "That was tougher because they had their opportunities but we made the plays when we had to make them."

A&M inside linebacker Jason Atkinson concurred.

"I am extremely excited to have a shutout," Atkinson said. "It is something we have strived for and this was our kind of game. We knew if they don't score, they don't win."

"This was the best I have ever seen our defense play together because everybody was focused. We took their heart away."

ceptions for 91 yards and two touchdowns.

On the second touchdown McElroy was able to show the crowd of 61,307 his speed and pass-catching ability on a short screen pass.

"The ball was kind of low so I had to adjust and make the catch," McElroy said.

"We caught them blitzing and that's the type of screen where you catch the defense coming after you and it ends up a big play."

"All I saw was turf, (and) all I had to do was slow down a little bit to catch the ball."

Thomas did not slow down at all as he amassed the ninth most rushing yards in A&M history. Most of his yardage came on a 80-yard touchdown run exploding through the left side of the offensive line.

"It was one of those plays just like any other play," Thomas said. "But things developed just right; things happened at the right time. There were good blocks, perfect timing and it was off to the races."

Thomas said he felt proud for what he and his team accomplished Saturday.

"I'm proud of myself because I stuck it out when things got kind of hard," Thomas said. "I feel very happy that I got the yards but I'm also happy because as an offensive unit we established ourselves. We got off to a good start and I believe things are going to work out for us."

The two backs also had praise for each other.

"Rodney is just a great tailback," McElroy said. "He's been there before; he did his job and everything came out okay."

"I think Leeland did a great job," Thomas said.

"I like the way he came in. He was a little nervous at first, but when he got that first play and some other carries it helped him. I'm proud of him."

Oilers take it on the chin as Saints win 33-21 blowout in Superdome

The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS — It's a new season but the same old New Orleans Saints — devastating defense and the sure foot of Morten Andersen.

New Orleans beat the Houston Oilers 33-21 Sunday night behind Andersen's four field goals.

New Orleans took a quarter to get to Houston quarterback Warren Moon, then built the pressure throughout the game. They sacked him three times, including a 10-yard pounding by Vince Buck in the fourth quarter that forced a fumble and left Moon stunned on the Superdome carpet until he was helped to the sidelines.

Andersen kicked field goals of 28, 37, 18 and 47 yards. It was the 10th time in his career that Andersen kicked four field goals in a game. His 24 consecutive field goals tied the NFL record held by Kevin Butler of the Chicago Bears.

The Oilers made it 33-21 with just under three minutes left when Marcus Robertson recovered a fumble by Lorenzo Neal and ran it 80 yards for a score.

called at halftime, A&M's perfect season would have fallen to 7-5.

And Saturday, A&M would have been tagged for an 0-0-1 mark in '93.

But the first half is an adjusting phase. After all, if A&M's opponents did what A&M expected them to do, there wouldn't be a need for a football game.

In the first half, LSU's offensive coordinator Lynn Amedee used a two tight end set to keep A&M outside linebackers Antonio Shorter and Steve Solari off of sophomore quarterback Jamie Howard. They also ran up the middle to counter A&M's blitz.

That was the same tactic used by the Howard Schnellenberger-led Louisville Cardinals last season. LSU also utilized the talents of center David Mwae to clear running room.

But the two tight end protection for Howard didn't last the half, and he nearly didn't as Solari and Shorter sandwiched him on third down of the Tigers' final first half possession.

And Howard trotted off the field weaving from left to right, until an offensive lineman helped guide the wozy quarterback to the bench where he could take off his helmet and put his head in his hands.

In the second half, Howard's protection dried up for good, and so did LSU's running game. The Tigers' total offense consisted of 67 yards in the second half, compared to 139 in the first. "By the half, we had taken their best shot - they kept trying, kept trying and couldn't score," A&M senior inside linebacker Jason Atkinson said. "We took their heart away and pounded them into submission. (This is) the best I've ever seen the defense play."

A&M's offense, behind the strength of Rodney Thomas and Leeland McElroy's running, busted loose in the second half, gaining 341 total yards compared to 121 in the first.

A&M coach R.C. Slocum said his team would now work on the necessary adjustments for next week's clash with Oklahoma.

"It's much easier to go back and correct mistakes after a victory, but win or lose, you still have major adjustments to make after the first game," Slocum said. "Most football teams improve from their first game to their second game more than any other time during the year. "Just finding a way to win your first game is something that's tremendously important."

A&M defensive coordinator Bob Davie said he couldn't completely evaluate his players' performances because he had not seen the films of the game, but said he could at least be happy with the outcome of his team's first action of the season.

"The only thing I can judge on right now is the final score, and I'll take that any time," Davie said. "Any time you're a defensive coach and you haven't scrimmaged, you're just going into a crapshoot - you're rolling the dice."

He didn't mention how loaded the dice were.
