Pullig thanks God above for improved play

Shhhhh. Everyone, please be quiet. The Aggie football team has something to say.

Well, go ahead.

Please don't hesitate, there's no need to keep us waiting.

Sorry, we can't hear you. You sound muffled.

You have a what?

An offense!! Great - something we've needed. Now, get this season rolling.

JULIE CHELKOWSKI

After the Aggies faltered in their season opener against Louisiana State and were silenced in the Big Eight by Oklahoma, they fixed the broken pieces of their offense and made their statement - loud and clear.

Yes, the Aggies are back, complete with an offensive line, running backs, receivers and a solid quarterback.

Texas A&M's Corey Pullig - a solid quarterback. A week ago this would have been considered an oxymoron. But Pullig played Saturday like his past performances were just a bad dream.

Pullig said that although he could not have been successful Saturday without the help of the line, the difference between the last two games and the Missouri game was he and his attitude.

"(It was) the trigger man - myself," he said. "Last week, I wasn't

Aggies sprint past Tigers in laughter

A&M routs Missouri 73-0 as offense surges

By Matthew J. Rush

THE BATTALION

The booming sound of the cannon wasn't the only explosion on Saturday afternoon as the Texas A&M Aggies crushed the Missouri Tigers 73-0 before 51,304 at Kyle Field.

A&M head coach R.C. Slocum said that he was happy about his team's effort and emphasized that he was not trying to run up the score on the Tigers.

"(Missouri head coach) Bob (Stull) is one of my best friends in all of coaching," Slocum said. "My heart goes out to him. But what a difference a week makes. We had a good solid performance on both sides of the ball."

The Aggies began the game by marching 78 yards in 10 plays. The drive was capped off by a scoring strike by sophomore quarterback Corey Pullig junior tight end James McKeehan to begin the rout.

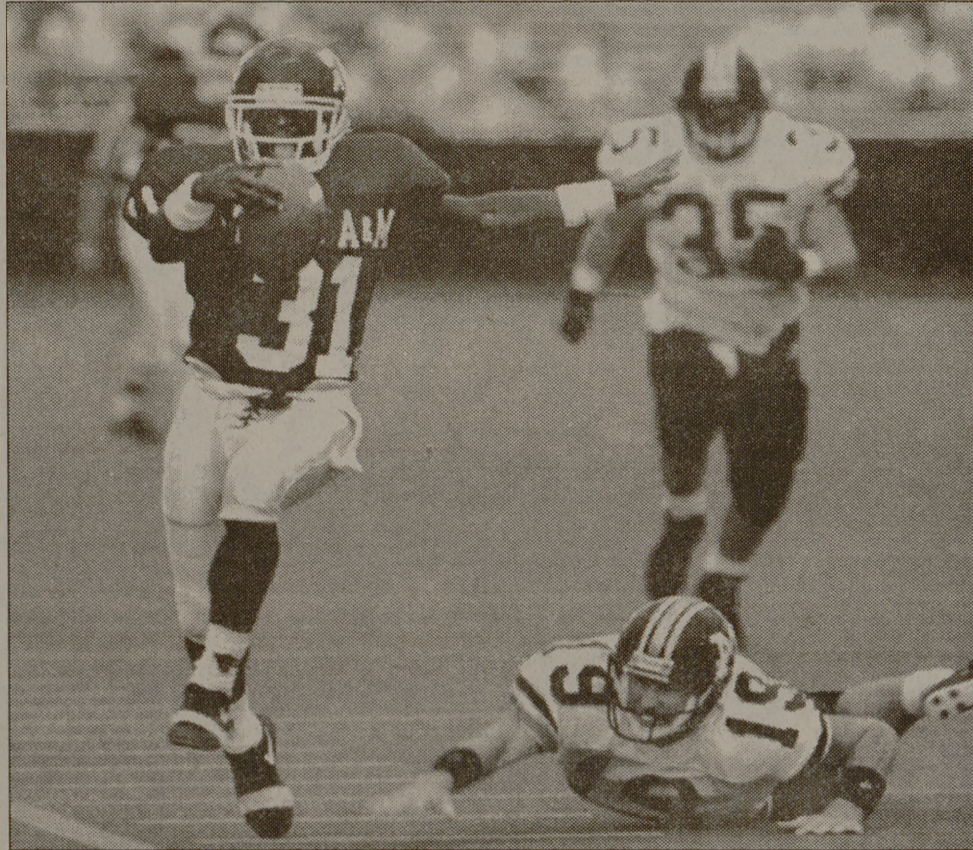

A&M took advantage of four Missouri fumbles to take a 38-0 halftime lead. The Aggies did not let up in the second half as they scored five more times, giving A&M the most points since they scored 74 against Texas Christian in 1986.

Even senior cornerback Aaron Glenn got into the scoring act. He returned a punt 76 yards in the third quarter, the longest run back since 1972. He also set a school record with 131 yards on three punt returns.

Glenn said once he got into the clear, all he had to do was to put a move on the punter.

"I was looking touchdown all the way," Glenn said. "I knew I had to make a move and I thought I could beat him outside. I just put a basketball move on him."

Pullig passing for 186 yards while completing 15 of 22 passes while throwing two touchdowns. He said he felt relief after his showing in A&M's 44-14 loss to Oklahoma and that he had been trying to shoulder too many things.

"The difference today was that I played within myself," Pullig said. "I was trying to audible too much in the first two games, but I think that the defense did a great job today."

A&M offensive coordinator Bob Toledo said that he was pleased with the offensive output on Saturday.

"I'm extremely proud of our football team," Toledo said. "They bounced back from a tough week and showed an awful lot. Our kids (Rodney Thomas and Leeland McElroy) ran extremely hard and our offensive line did a great job of blocking."

Freshman tailback McElroy rushed 17 times for 136 yards en route to setting an

A&M's defense led by injured England

By William Harrison

THE BATTALION

A&M head football coach R.C. Slocum said last Tuesday that injured senior right defensive end Eric England was the most questionable player for the Missouri game.

But come Saturday, there was no questioning how dominating England and the A&M defense played in the team's 73-0 pounding of the Tigers.

England and junior left defensive end Sam Adams were both scratched from the starting lineup but entered the game on Missouri's first possession, as the Tigers were driving deep into A&M territory.

England that because he and Adams were injured and could not practice through Wednesday, senior linemen Larry Wallace and Kefa Chatham had earned their right to play.

"Larry Wallace and Kefa Chatham worked all week, they deserved to start, and there was nothing to it," England said. "I suggested (for them to start), but then they started driving and coach came up to Sam and I and said, 'Get ready.'"

"We went in and took over." The defense stalled Missouri on A&M's 16-yard line and Tiger field goal kicker Kyle Pooler missed a 33-yard try, squandering the only scoring opportunity Missouri would have for the rest of the day.

After being slowed at Oklahoma by a bruised calf and a rapid heartbeat, England helped shut down Missouri quarterbacks Jeff Handy and backup Brandon Corso. As a unit, A&M finished the day with five
