and the Civil War for freedom that they have yet

"The present generation of whites need to the injustice of their parents around and make at effort in pulling us together, otherwise get out of way," Quanell X said.

Brian Williams, a senior computer science ma said the speech didn't refer to everybody.

"I don't think what he said applies to every but there is a lot of pain built up in black people in time God can bless us to forgive," said William

Security at the speech was strictly enforced body searches and metal detectors.

West said Quanell X contradicted himself by discriminating against white people and calling them

At one point in the speech Quanell X referred to white women as smelling like pigs and said white women desire to be like black women by getting breast, lip and buttock implants.

Quanell X said blacks fought in the Korean War
