Sports notes

It is too early to comment on rumors that the Phoenix Cardinals are seeking Texas A&M head football coach R.C. Slocum for their head coaching job, Slocum said at A&M's national signing day announcement meeting.

"Those things are very premature," Slocum said. "I'm very pleased and happy to be at Texas A&M."

Officials from the Cardinals could not comment on the search for a head coach.

"I don't know who is interviewing for the coaching position," said Greg Galadysiewski, director of media relations for the Cardinals.

"Our owner, (Bill) Bidwell, has not told us his decision." Slocum became A&M's head coach in 1989 after being an assistant coach for six years. In his head coaching career at A&M he is 49-12-1.

Wilbert's career-high 33 leads A&M past injury-plagued Bears

The Associated Press

WACO — Joe Wilbert scored a career-high 33 points and pulled down a game-high 14 rebounds to lead Texas A&M to a 90-74 victory over Baylor Wednesday.

The Aggies (12-5) ran their Southwest Conference record to a perfect 6-0 with the victory.

Baylor (12-6, 3-3) played without Jerome Lambert, the nation's leading rebounder, who missed the game because of muscle spasms in his neck and shoulder.

Without Lambert, Texas A&M repeatedly went to Wilbert who simply outmuscled Baylor inside.

The Bears fought back from an 11 point deficit to tie the game 39-39 at halftime. Jerome Banks hit a 3-point shot at the buzzer to tie the score.

The Aggies outscored the Bears 14-4 to open the second half and put the game away.

Cerny deals a winning hand

By Kristine Ramirez

THE BATTALION

It took a deck of cards but Texas A&M's center Kelly Cerny had a hot hand after Wednesday's defeat of Baylor.

Cerny had a career-high 10 rebounds and 8 assists in Wednesday's game against Baylor.

It is the first double-double of Cerny's career. The 6-foot, 5-inch sophomore from Duncanville also had 19 points, second to Lisa Branch's 21 points.

Branch said the turnaround by Cerny was bound to happen.

"It started on our card game and she beat me in a couple of games," Branch said. "She said she was feeling it and I think it started from there."

Cerny said she was happy with the game and the help from center Martha McClelland.

"I feel good," Cerny said. "I thought we all played really well. Martha and I really complimented each other tonight and it made it fun."

Head coach Lynn Hickey said it was the first time the two have really worked together.

Hickey was also pleased with the dominating rebounding in the second half.

Cerny was second only to McClelland's 13 rebounds in Wednesday's game.

"I was pretty happy about the rebounds," Cerny said. "LJ (Lisa Jordan), our assistant coach, told me she wanted me to rebound tonight and I think that helped my game all the way around."

Cerny said she was happy about the game-high assists of 8.

The team is now 6-0 in the conference and she said the team is ready for the rest of the season.

"That's what we're striving for," she said. "What were aiming for is the Southwest Conference Championship."

The Lady Aggies will face Texas Tech, No. 4 in the AP Poll, on Saturday, and Cerny said the team was ready.

Signing

ing 27 for losses and six quarterback sacks last season, Driver earned Class 4A all-state honors and was named defensive player of the area on the team last season.

"We were fortunate that this was a good year in the state of Texas for linebackers," Slocum said. Over the years, we have taken great pride in the linebackers we've had at Texas A&M."

In all, the Aggies signed five linebackers, four defensive linemen, and two defensive backs to help carry on the "Wrecking Crew" tradition.

Among the five linebackers signed by A&M, Trent Driver, a 6'3" 215-pound All-American from Cleveland is the most-heralded.

After racking up 150 total tackles including 27 for losses and six quarterback sacks last season, Driver earned Class 4A all-state honors and was named defensive player of the year.

Headlining the class of defensive linemen is Houston-Clear Lake All-American Steve McKinney.

Last season, McKinney recorded 73 tackles and 10 sacks. He originally committed to Notre Dame after learning about the NCAA sanctions against A&M but said he changed his mind after visiting the campus on Jan. 21.

"The people were really friendly and I love the coaches and players," McKinney said. "It's in my blood to be an Aggie."

Slocum said he is excited about next year and is extremely pleased with how the recruiting season went.
