

SWC might join other conferences at ABC Oilers hire Fisher as defensive coordinator

The Associated Press

AUSTIN — The Southwest Conference is considering teaming up with the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big Eight Conference and perhaps even the Big East Conference to negotiate a television deal with ABC, according to a published report.

Officials in both conferences say any TV deals could eventually further the prospects of a merger between the SWC and Big Eight.

"I would say the CEOs from both conferences are certainly looking at (a merger) more seriously today than ever before," Kansas State President Jon Wefald told the Austin American-Statesman.

HOUSTON — The Houston Oilers on Wednesday hired San Francisco 49ers defensive backs coach Jeff Fisher as their new defensive coordinator.

Fisher replaces Buddy Ryan, who was named head coach of the Phoenix Cardinals on Feb. 3.

"The hiring of Jeff Fisher is a very key addition for the Oilers," said Oilers general manager Floyd Reese. "Buddy did a good job with defense last season and we are committed keeping the same system in place.

"... At a relatively young age, Jeff already has outstanding experience."
